The President accompanied Mrs. Wilson on a motor trip about Washington yesterday, the glorious weather proving a splendid inducement to keep every one out of doors as much as possible.

Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson left Washington yesterday for Philadelphia and New York, where she will visit relatives and friends.

The last concert of the Boston Symphony Orchestra drew a record-breaking audience, among them being members of the most distinguished residents of the National Capital.

The Misses Wilson occupied the President's box, their guests being Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, Mrs. Holman, Miss Hagner and Miss Helen Woodrow Wilson.

The German Ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff entertained in their box Mrs. Meyer, wife of the former Secretary of the Navy; Mrs. A. P. Gardner, Mrs. Mack, Capt. Rodgers, and Capt. Boy-12, of the German Embassy.

Others who entertained friends in their boxes were Mrs. Marshall Field, Miss Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Johnson, Mrs. L. T. Mason, and Mrs. Lister.

In the audience were the Netherlands Minister and Mrs. London, the Misses Eustis, the Norwegian Minister and Mrs. Fry, Mrs. Calderwood, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Walter Howe, Mrs. Clarence Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Hennick, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hague, Mr. and Mrs. C. Peyton Russell, Mr. and Mrs. George Eustis, Mrs. James Finckel, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood, Mrs. Nicholas Anderson, Mrs. Fisher, wife of the former Secretary of the Interior, Miss Polly Randolph, Mrs. J. M. H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Parsons, Mrs. H. B. Buckingham, Mrs. Julian James, Mrs. Robert Craig, Mrs. Buckner, Mrs. V. A. M. Tallot, Mrs. Alexander Magruder, Mrs. Ten Eyck Weidell, Mrs. Victor Kerens, Mrs. Hennen Jennings, Miss Katherine Jennings, Mrs. Henry Jennings Perkins, Mrs. Richard Clark, Mrs. Richardson Clover, Mrs. Thomas Carter, Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge, Mrs. Perry Johnson, Miss Jane Gilmer, the Misses Selig, Mrs. Richard Ely, Mrs. Wilder, Mrs. Hichborn, Mrs. Tom A. Williams, Mrs. Thomas M. Gale, and Mrs. Wallace Radcliffe.

Mrs. Henry P. Dimock was hostess at a luncheon yesterday in honor of her house guest, Miss Godwin, of New York. Covers were laid for eighteen.

Mrs. William L. Green, wife of Representative Green of Iowa, and her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Green, were hostesses at a bridge luncheon yesterday, the guests being Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. William Squire Kenyon, wife of Senator Kenyon; Mrs. S. F. Pruitt, Mrs. W. A. Mans-Tower, Mrs. James M. Good, and Mrs. G. N. Haugen, Mrs. McLean, of London; Mrs. Owens, of Michigan; Mrs. Lawson, of Des Moines; Mrs. Jackson, of Weirton; and Mrs. John Squire. Two were served later, to which additional guests were invited.

Mrs. William Cullup, wife of Representative Cullup of Indiana, left Washington yesterday for New York, where she will make a brief stay. Mr. Cullup will not return from Indiana until early next month.

Miss Dorothy Alshire, who has spent some time in Panama, has joined her parents, Mr. Gen. and Mrs. James Alshire, at their residence 1, S Street.

Miss Sidney Burleson has joined her parents, the Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson, at the Hotel Powhatan for the Easter holidays.

The third annual dog show of the Washington Kennel Club promises to be an even greater success than that of last year. Many prominent society people own valuable dogs, and they are taking great interest in the forthcoming show at the Arcade, on April 16, 17, and 18. Many handsome trophies have been offered, and there are prizes for the women members of the club as well.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Josephus Daniels have leased the country residence, "Single Oak," the Johnston home in Woodley Lane. They will take possession of their new home at the end of the week.

Mr. Robert Hinkley was hostess at a luncheon on Tuesday, when the decorations of the table were reminiscent of St. Patrick's Day.

Miss Agnes Hart Wilson, daughter of the Secretary of Labor, and Mrs. Wilson have returned to their home in Blossburg, Pa.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Carter Roosevelt, daughter of the former President, and Mrs. Roosevelt, and Dr. Leonard Derby, April 4, will be a comparatively small ceremony, because of the limited capacity of the Protestant Episcopal Church at the home of Day Long Island.

The musical features that will make it novel among the spring events of the kind will, however, accompany the ceremony. An American singer will give solo and at New York orchestra will play both at the church and at the reception which will follow at Sagamore Hill.

The Russian Ambassador and Mrs. Bakunoff are spending a few days in New York at the Ritz-Carlton.

Mrs. Richardson Clover, who has been making a brief stay in New York, has returned to Washington.

Mrs. Richard Townsend will spend Easter in New York at the Hotel Plaza, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Mack, who have been in Washington since March 4, have returned to their home in Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Flannery are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son. Mrs. Flannery was formerly Miss Isabel Gregory.

The Second Secretary of the Chilean Legation and Senora Herquinio, who were married here recently, sailed yesterday from New York for Antwerp, en route to Paris and Chile, to which latter country they will make their home. Senora Herquinio is a daughter of the minister of Uruguay and Senora de Poma.

Miss Leila May Henry gave a luncheon Monday at the home of her parents, Representative and Mrs. Henry, on Nineteenth Street. St. Patrick's Day sentiment and colors were in evidence, and the feast was a very pretty one in consequence.

Miss Henry's guests were Miss Hannah Taylor, Miss Virginia Stone, Miss Robert Amies, Miss Elizabeth Romble, Miss May Armstrong, Miss Dorothy Dobbs, Miss Edith McQuade, Miss Dorothy Wyeth, Miss Louise Weber, Miss Dorothy Campbell and Miss Pauline Lockett.

Mrs. Henry Cooper returned yesterday from a ten-day visit in New York at the Ritz-Carlton. Representative Cooper is in Wisconsin.

Representative and Mrs. James M. Gaudier, Jr. will attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Emma Gaudier, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Gaudier, of the Canal Zone, and Lieut. Robert L. Echebarragar, U. S. A., April 2, at Asheville, N. C.

Mrs. Leonard H. Mangum, wife of Mr. Leonard H. Mangum, of the Southern Railway office, leaves today for New York to spend the Easter holidays with her sister.

Mrs. J. W. Richards, of Maryland Avenue, Hyattsville, Md., announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mary Grimes, to Mr. George C. Boyer, of College Park, Md. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Dolan, of St. de Rome Catholic Church, on March 8.
