China's Challenge to Christendom

By HOWARD A. BRIDGMAN, (Editor of the Congregationalist and Christian Work.)

Associated-Press dispatches from Peking on Thursday of last week reported that the Chinese government has made an appeal to all the Christian churches in China to set aside April 27—tomorrow—

Thirteen years ago this coming summer the imperial government of China hunted and slew her Christian subjects like wild beasts, and brought all of the resources of her command to aid in driving the hated religions of the "foreign devils" from her shores.

In 1900 a dispatch was sent from the throne to all viceroys of all the provinces to exterminate all foreigners, and the streets of Peking were placarded with posters threatening with death all who provided them refuge.

China is doing her part to make amends for the past and to demonstrate to the entire world the sincerity of her purpose. Undoubtedly this is the first time in history that such an appeal has been made by a non-Christian nation.

Was there ever a more striking proof of the presence of God in the life of the world and of his purposes for men in Jesus Christ, the universal Saviour of united prayer for a specific end?

EPISCOPAL.

In a circular letter dated April 23, 1913, addressed to the Reverend Clergy of the Diocese of Washington, Bishop Harding said:

"Reliable press information that an appeal has been made by the Chinese government to all the Christian churches in China to set aside April 27 as a day of prayer that China may be guided to the peaceful solution of the problems besetting her. This appeal was distributed broadcast by telegraph to all the Governors and high officials within whose jurisdiction Christian communities are to be found.

In consequence the Bishop sets forth a special prayer for use on Sunday, April 27, at 11 o'clock in all services in the churches of this diocese.

"O Lord God Almighty, whose name only is excellent in all the earth, and thy love as wide as the world; look down from Heaven, we earnestly beseech thee, and pour out the abundance of thy mercy upon the Republic of China. Give the leaders wisdom and patience in establishing free and stable institutions; guide the people through the mazes of strong and vicious men apt and meet as well to restrain as to hearten and encourage; inspire the nation with faithful purpose to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with their God.
