SUFFRAGISTS LATENT MILITANTS, SAY ANTIS

Association Opposed to Woman's Ballot Challenges Sisters to Declare Themselves.

DRASTIC EXPRESSIONS QUOTED

"That there are outspoken militants among the suffragists of this country is well known. But the suffragist party of the United States comes to the public and to itself to declare definitely whether it is militant or nonmilitant, or whether, as we believe, a majority of its members favors militancy, but fears to confess its real beliefs at this time."

Following its statement of Wednesday against Mrs. Pankhurst, the English militant, the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage came out yesterday through its Washington headquarters with the direct charge that American suffragists are prepared at any moment to adopt militant tactics.

"The view of what has happened since Mrs. Pankhurst landed in this country last Saturday," the statement continues, "is the height of folly for anybody to deny that there is militancy among the American suffragists."

"For instance, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, head of American suffragism, agreed to preside over the Pankhurst meeting, but later refused, saying the Pankhurst extremists would not guarantee her her followers $2,500 of the gate receipts. The public does not know whether she is against militancy or not when properly financed. But she gave this significant hint of her real attitude last year when she said:

"We hope that we will not come to militant methods, but I say that, if we are played with, made fun of, and greeted with supercilious smiles by Congressional committees we will come to it."

"Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage in Washington, has served a term in prison in England for militancy."

"About the same time Miss Inez Milholland, speaking of the English militants, said:

"I think they are entirely justified. Nothing counts but votes for women. Acid-throwing and bomb-throwing have their places."

"Mrs. F. Belmont, the New York hostess of Mrs. Pankhurst, said:

"Women in America will choose their own militant methods, and use them, too, without waiting very much longer."

Theft at San Francisco Mint Found to Be Nearly Double First Estimates

The San Francisco mint robbery, reported several weeks ago, has nearly doubled in size.

The shortage so far disclosed is $1.2 million. The pieces count six trade dollars were discovered in sealed bags supposed to contain all silver dollar currency.

The trade dollar was minted years ago for use in China. It later was recalled and redesignated by the government. The dollars became worthless except as gold, after the limit for redemption expired. The trade dollar has 420 grains of silver, as compared with 412 1/2 in the silver dollar now in use.

M'KENNEY ESTATE DIVIDED

Will of Late U. S. Supreme Court Clerk Filled for Probate.

The will of James H. McKenney, late clerk of the United States Supreme Court, has been filed. It is dated October 2, 1907, and modified by codicil of March 27, 1908. Each of the five grandchildren is given $2,000, to be held in trust until they reach majority.

A sister, Mary Ann McKenney, is bequeathed $5,000. Frank Duncan McKenney, a son, is to have $25,000, and the other son, Charles Albert McKenney, is given the father's farm in Montgomery County, Md., known as "Mack's Folly."

The remaining estate is to be equally divided between the two sons. By the codicil the son, Charles, is to have the use of his father's residence, 123 Rhode Island avenue, for the period of ten years. Should he desire to purchase the property at that time he is to pay his brother $25,000. Should the brother die before ten years, the son is to have title to the property. He is also to have the household effects. The sons are named as executors.

MANY PENSIONERS ON BOOKS

Commissioner of Pensions Gives Figures in Report.

More than one-fifth of the veterans who served in the army and navy of the United States during the civil war were on the pension rolls at the beginning of the present fiscal year, despite the great increase in the number of pensioners since the war. On July 1, there were 62,379 civil war pensioners, according to a report of the Commissioner of Pensions just issued.

During the last year there was a decrease of 24,284 civil war pensioners, while the net loss in the entire pension roll was 6,094, leaving 32,200 pensioners of all classes. There remain 1,142 Mexican war pensioners and 1,060 Indian war pensioners. The last surviving pensioner of the war of 1812 died about eight years ago, although 129 widows of that war's fighters receive pensions, a decrease of thirty-nine since last year.

BREAD REGULATION URGED IN REPORT

Col. William C. Haskell Wants Sale and Manufacture of Loaf Governed by Law.

Adoption of a law for the better regulation of the sale and manufacture of bread and the development of the scope of the municipal fish market are the two most important recommendations contained in the last annual report of Col. William C. Haskell, superintendent of weights, measures, and markets. The report was transmitted to the District Commissioners yesterday.

Revenues from the operation of the fish market will add materially to the income of the District. Col. Haskell thinks the States that if Congress allows the item included in their estimates by the Commissioner for the establishment of a model market and improvement of docking facilities on the site of the present market, this place should become an important distributing center for the surrounding country.

"The total revenue of the office of weights and measures for the fiscal year ended June 30 last amounted to $2,524.38. The net receipts of the office showed a gain of $1.24 over those of the preceding year. This gain was largely owing to the moneys collected from the fish wharf."

GARRISON HOLDS UP WORK

Construction of Public Comfort Stations Is Delayed.

Objection by residents near Franklin and Lincoln Parks to the location of the new public comfort stations in course of construction in those reservations near the street line instead of in the interior of the parks has caused Secretary of War Garrison to order suspension of the work until he returns from his inspection of the Panama Canal. The Secretary will not return to this city from his tour of inspection until November.

The site selected for the station in Lincoln Park was on the Thirtieth Street side, just south of the line of East Capitol Street. At the request of residents of Thirtieth Street the superintendent of public buildings and grounds selected a site about 100 feet further back in the park, providing the protestants would contribute the additional expense entailed, estimated at $1,500. It was objected that the expense was excessive. Secretary Garrison then ordered the work held up. Similar action was taken against the location of the station in Franklin Park.

Motion Picture News A Daily Feature In The Herald

This daily news feature of The Washington Herald is for the benefit of everybody interested in motion pictures.

Suggestions, comments, criticisms, inquiries, and questions invited. Address communications to Motion Picture Editor, Washington Herald.

Betty Nansen is one of the latest acquisitions to the staff of Great Northern Films Company's gallery of stars. She won distinction in the dramatic profession during her career on the legitimate stage. She was induced to enter the moving picture realm, only after its wonderful possibilities were made clear to her by the Great Northern directorate.

According to all reports, Dan Mason, character man of the Edison Company, does some truly remarkable work in the "Horrible Example," one of the new comedy features on which the company has been working for some time.

John E. Brennan and his companion in mirth, Miss Ruth Roland, appear as the central figures in a new Kalem farce-comedy, "The Speed Limit." Mr. Brennan enacts the role of a judge who is arrested and tried in his own court on a charge of speeding. These two comedians have never been seen to better advantage.

Julius McCree, who has made everybody in the world laugh, is writing some new comedies for the Reliance Company that should receive a royal welcome from the movie fans. Advance reports state that his work can be seen in the new multiple-reel feature, "A Daughter of the Underworld."

One of the most spectacular two-reel subjects ever made by the Cine Company is promised for early release in an adventure story entitled "The Two Divers." Many of the scenes are made under fifteen feet of water around the sunken hulk of a sea-going vessel.

Although a member of the Kalem forces but a very short time, Miss Billie Rhodes has already established herself firmly in the hearts of the motion picture "fans." Miss Rhodes is a diminutive person, with a charming personality. An excellent example of her work can be seen in the new multiple-reel feature, "A Daughter of the Underworld."

Bert French and Alice Ellis are featured in the Kalem production of "The Vampire." Every little step of the "Vampire Dance," which made them famous, is realistically pictured in the new film.

Agnes Egan Cobb promises new fame for the Kalem features and herself in the handling of the new Ideal feature, soon to be released by the Parisian Clair interests.

The Kinsmacolor Company numbers among its stars Ethel Barrymore, Jefferson DeAngelis, Anna Heid, Lillian Russell, Raymond Hitchcock, Eddie Foy, Alice Lloyd, and Flora Zabella.

NEW WHARFAGE PLAN WILL BE ADVANCED

Robert F. Bradbury Would Build Ships on Anacostia Flats.

Robert F. Bradbury, a member of the Handle Highlands Citizens' Association, yesterday made known a plan to provide wharfage facilities along the proposed bulkhead line of the Anacostia flats reclamation project. This plan will be laid before the next meeting of the association.

The plan would mean the establishment of several slips along the bulkhead line, some for commercial purposes, others for pleasure boats, and still others for private use. He lays special emphasis upon the value of establishing these slips for the accommodation of commercial vessels.

Salem Lodge, No. 22, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of Anacostia, met last night in the local Masonic Hall. The members were advised of the series of visitations that the grand officers will make to various lodges.

At the next meeting of the Handle Highlands Citizens' Association, the question of asking the Commissioners to include in their estimates to Congress an appropriation for drawing plans for a new bridge over the Eastern Branch at Pennsylvania Avenue will be considered. The officials of the Y. M. C. A. have been asked to notify the persons interested whether they intend to resume the meetings at the Washington Steel and Ordnance Company, as was done last year.
