A Reduction Sale of Women's Suits at $18.75

Immediate disposal of the winter and late-season stocks is absolutely necessary in our Suit Department, and the lowering of prices on high-grade suits has been proportional. The quality and attractiveness of the garments offered are equally as fine as when regular prices obtained.

We have grouped together all suits that sold from $29.50 to $50.00 and placed them on conveniently arranged racks marked at $18.75 each.

Broadcloths, eponges, fine serges, silk poplins, Bedfords and wool poplins—all of the popular materials of the season—in black, navy, pearl gray and brown; in all the late Winter and Early Spring styles, with cutaway coats and side draped and peg top skirts, self trimmed, or with velvet collar and cuffs. Sizes for all, up to 42, in styles of which there are but one or two of a kind. $18.75 each.

Third floor—G st.

If you have been waiting for the final price reduction on our Men's and Young Men's Quality Clothes—Suits and Overcoats—now is the time to come here and make your choice.

The very low prices now marked on the balance remaining should take them out in a few days, and, therefore, the time is limited in which you can secure advantage of the savings.

The exceeding unusualness of the values should influence immediate response. They won't be duplicated again until near the end of the summer clearance sale.

$14.75—For Suits and Overcoats formerly selling up to $22.50.

$19.75—For Suits and Overcoats formerly selling up to $35.00.

Second floor—F st.

Society Doings in and Around The National Capital

Congressional Reception Feb. 10

The President and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson have issued invitations to a reception at the White House in honor of the members of Congress on Tuesday evening, February 10.

President Wilson, accompanied by Miss Helen Woodrow Bones and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, occupied a box at the National Theater last night. Mrs. Wilson, Miss Eleanor Wilson, Mrs. Theobald, Mrs. Lawrence, and Mrs. Avery occupied a box at the Belasco at the performance of Mr. Washington Pezet's comedy, "Marrying Money."

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson received the British ambassador and Lady Spring Rice at the White House yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Miss Margaret Wilson has accepted the invitation to attend the address of Mr. John C. Freund, editor of Musical America, of New York, at the auditorium of the National Museum tomorrow evening. The subject will be "The Plight of Music in America," in which Miss Wilson is much interested.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan were the guests of honor at a dinner last night given by Miss Mabel Boardman.

Chaplain and Mrs. G. Livingstone Bayard entertained at a dinner last night at the Chevy Chase Club in honor of the Secretary of the Navy and Mr. Josephus Daniels.

The other guests were Senator and Mrs. James Martine, Surgeon General and Mrs. Stokes, Paymaster General and Mrs. Thomas Cowie, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Bradley Fiske, Judge and Mrs. Martin A. Knapp, the Bishop of Washington, the Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, Bishop and Mrs. Cranston, Capt. Hilary Jones, U. S. N.; Miss Jones, Miss Wilcox, of New Jersey, and the Rev. Father O'Horne.

Mrs. Robert E. Peary and Miss Peary will not receive this afternoon as they have left Washington to attend the Junior Promenade at Cornell University.

Mrs. Willard Saulsbury, wife of Senator Saulsbury, of Delaware, will be at home this afternoon at her residence, 1901 R street.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wells entertained at a dinner last night at the Chevy Chase Club in honor of Mrs. Elmer Black, of New York, and Miss Flora Wilson.

Mrs. Pezet's Play Pleases Society

Mr. J. E. Lefevre, secretary of the Panama Legion, and his sister, Miss Ramona Lefevre, gave a box party at the Belasco last night to see Mr. Pezet's "Marrying Money." They had as their guests to meet their mother, Mrs. E. O. de Lefevre, Representative and Mrs. P. A. Britten, from Illinois, and Mrs. W. W. Long, chief of the Latin-American division of the State Department.

Mr. John C. Freund, editor of Musical America, of New York, and Mr. Willard Howie, the local correspondent of that paper, will be guests at the Congressional Club tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Freund has created international interest in his propaganda of America's musical industry, and the ladies of Congressional circles were pleased to welcome him in Washington. He will give an address on Friday evening on this subject at which official, educational and musical circles will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kaufmann entertained at a dinner at the Chevy Chase Club last night.

Other dinner hosts at the clubhouse preceding the Wednesday night dance were Mr. and Mrs. John Callan O'Loughlin, Commander Boy-Ed, of the German Embassy; Mrs. James Emery, Mrs. Lily Totten, Jr., Capt. and Mrs. Theodore Baldwin, Col. and Mrs. Harry Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. William Hoover.

Judge and Mrs. John Barton Payne, who have been spending the past few months with the latter's brother, Mr. Charles Page Bryan, leave Washington tonight for their home at West Washington tomorrow en route to South America, where he will spend the next two months.

Mr. Charles Page Bryan entertained at a luncheon yesterday at his home in I street.

Mrs. Oliver Gould Jennings, of New York, will arrive in Washington at the end of the week to spend several days with Mrs. Hope Slater.

Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Albert Mills left Washington yesterday for New York where they will make a brief visit.

Mrs. Hugh Black Rowland will be at home tomorrow afternoon and the following two Fridays in February.

Mrs. Thomas Ewing, wife of the Commissioner of Patents, has sent out invitations to a tea in honor of Mrs. Daniel Lamont, of New York, widow of Secretary Lamont, and Miss Lamont, at her residence in H street on Wednesday afternoon, February 11.

The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Stern and Dr. Simon in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom. The playhouse was charmingly decorated with white and pink roses and palms.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Milton Herman, wore an exquisite gown of the latest style, draped with Chantilly lace and trimmed with pearls. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white and pink sweet peas. Mrs. Irving Isaacs, of Philadelphia, was matron of honor, and the bride's only attendant. She wore a handsome gown of pink crepe de chine, and carried a shower bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Mr. Bert Weil, of Philadelphia, acted as his brother's best man. After the ceremony the bride and bridegroom and the wedding guests were entertained at a seated supper. An orchestra played the wedding music. Later in the evening the bride and bridegroom left Washington on their wedding trip.

Senator John K. Shields entertained at a star dinner last night in compliment to the Tennessee delegation in Congress.

Mrs. Short Adam Willis, who spent Christmas in Galveston, Tex., has returned to Washington.

Mrs. George E. Hamilton was hostess yesterday at a charming tea at her residence in New Hampshire avenue. She was assisted in receiving by her sister, Miss Merrick, Mrs. Frederick McGuire,

Mrs. James Dudley Morgan, Mrs. Gallard Hunt, Miss Helen Marmont, Mrs. R. Douglas Sims, Miss Maury and Miss Elizabeth Hill.

Mrs. Samuel Spencer entertained at a tea yesterday at her home in Massachusetts avenue.

Mr. John Barrett, director of the Pan-American Union, and Mr. and Mrs. Francisco J. Yanes have sent out invitations for a reception on Thursday evening, February 5, at 10 o'clock, at the Pan-American Building.

Mrs. John Bassett Moore, wife of the counselor of the State Department, entertained at a prettily appointed tea yesterday in compliment to her house guest, Miss Janet Fish Montgomery, daughter of Mrs. James Howland Montgomery, of New York. Assisting Mrs. Moore were Mrs. Felix Harrison and Miss Marjorie de Pena, Miss Gertrude Gordon, Miss Margaret Magnun, Miss Ellen Shipman, Miss Ruth Pilling, and Miss Margaret Strong, of New York.

The two youngest sons of the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels, Josephus and Frank A. Daniels, are issuing invitations for a Valentine party on February 14 at "Single Oak."

Mrs. Pittman at Home Today

Mrs. Key Pittman, wife of the Senator from Nevada, will be at home at her residence on Idaho avenue and Macomb street this afternoon and evening.

A distinguished gathering of prominent Washington women attended the lecture given by Mrs. Vance Cheney yesterday morning at the residence of Mrs. Myron M. Parker. Her address was on the "Recognition of Individual Power" and suggested for drill in concentration, and proved a most interesting topic.

Among the guests were Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood, Mrs. A. B. Butler, Miss Jessie Fremont, Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell, Mrs. Beale Howard, and the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Wood.

Mrs. G. Wylie Cook and Mrs. M. M. Crenshaw will be at home from 4 to 6 o'clock this afternoon and evening.

The Church of the Immaculate Conception was the scene last night of a beautiful wedding, when Miss Helen R. Berens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Berens, and Dr. William Edward Detweiler, of Kansas City, Mo., were married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Eugene Connelly.

The pretty bride looked lovely in a gown of white satin draped with Duchesse lace and pearl garniture. Her tulle veil, arranged in cap effect, was held in place with hands of pearls and tiny clusters of red orange blossoms brought from Florida. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace with diamond pendant, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids, bride's roses, and lilies of the valley.

Miss Henrietta Berens was maid of honor and Mr. B. J. Miles best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Anna Welch, Miss Marie Studds, Miss Mary Yoe, Miss Virginia Bush and Miss May Cannon. The ushers were Messrs. Edward Ardeiser, Jr., Henry Diemer, Frederick A. Thues, Charles M. Brown and John D. Sullivan. Little Henrietta Berens was flower girl. The wedding couple left last night for their honeymoon travels. They will reside in Southern Oklahoma, the doctor having charge of the dental schools on the Indian reservations.

The Misses Frances and Harriet Sherwood, of Gambier, Ohio, who have been visiting in Baltimore and other Eastern cities, arrive at the home of the relative, Mr. Oscar Adams, at 323 Seventh street northeast, last evening for a few days' stay in Washington.

Miss Flora Wilson to Give Tea

Miss Flora Wilson has sent out invitations to a dinner at Rauscher's tomorrow afternoon, from 4 until 7 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. Elmer Black, of New York.

Miss Louise Noonan, of Washington, has gone to Ithaca, N. Y., to attend the Junior Promenade at Cornell University.

Mrs. Beverly Randolph Mason has sent out cards to an "at home" on Saturday, February 7, from 4 until 7 o'clock, at her residence, 1906 Florida avenue.

Mrs. John K. Shields, wife of Senator Shields, of Tennessee, was hostess yesterday at a beautifully appointed luncheon at her home in the Avenue of the Presidents in honor of the wives of the Tennessee delegation in Congress.

The luncheon was distinctly a "Tennessee" luncheon. All the delicacies were brought from the farm of the hostess, including the turkey, the chickens, the ham, and the menu was Southern in every detail. Southern smiles and pink roses formed the house decorations for the occasion.

Assisting Mrs. Shields were Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, Mrs. Horace Lorton, Jr., Mrs. Walter A. Wells, Mrs. Wycliffe Rose, and Miss Mary Temple.

The honor guests were Mrs. S. R. Sells, Mrs. Richard Wilson Austin, Mrs. William Cannon Houston, Mrs. Joseph W. Byrns, Mrs. Lemuel Phillips Padgett, Mrs. Thetus W. Sims, and Mrs. Finis James Garrett. Others attending were Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Warner, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Falls, of Memphis, and Mrs. P. P. Claxton.

The Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. William C. Redfield and their daughter, Mrs. Charles K. Drury, have gone to Baltimore to stop for a few days.

Mrs. Lester A. Barr and Miss Barr will not be at home this afternoon, but will receive Thursday, February 12, and will have with them Mrs. Sharfath, wife of Senator Sharfath, of Colorado.

Senator Burlingame, and Mrs. Guernsey, Mrs. McGillivuddy, Mrs. Hinds, and Mrs. Peters, wives of the Maine Representatives.

Mrs. Bankhead, wife of Senator Bankhead, will not receive today.
