Liege Easily Captured
Is Berlin's Announcement

Small Force Took City and Its Forts, Says Wireless Message From German Capital—Admits Minor Defeats in Alsace and Lorraine at Hands of the French

London, Aug. 18.—The following dispatch was received from the wireless press service, which the German government sanctions:
Berlin, Aug. 18.—The secret of Liege may now be revealed.
"Information reached us prior to the outbreak of the war that French officers had been sent to Liege to instruct the Belgian troops regarding the maintenance of the fortresses.
"No objection was made at the time, but with the outbreak of hostilities this became a breach of neutrality on the part of France and Belgium, and we were obliged to take action without delay.
"Immobilized forces were sent toward the frontier with instructions to march toward Liege, and six walk brigades on a peace footing, aided by some cavalry and artillery, captured Liege.
"Pooled the Defenders.
"Two further regiments were brought up later. Our opponents supposed that 120,000 Germans were lying in front of Liege, and that they could not commence the advance owing to the difficulty of maintenance they were encountering.
"By the delay was due to another cause. The German advance is well maintained and will be maintained and well equipped for the advance.
"The Kaiser has kept his word not to

SENATOR ROOT SHOVS MOOSE IN BACKGROUND

Republicans Must Fight Democrats, He Says, as Progressive Party Is a One-Man Affair.

HITS ADMINISTRATION'S RECORD

Special to The Washington Herald.
Senator Root renewed the charge that the Progressive party is a one-man affair, and he seemed to disagree with all the Democrats have done and to find necessary to the welfare of the country all of the things they have not done, in a speech here today as temporary chairman of the unofficial Republican State convention.
"By this controversy with the Democratic party the Republican party stands alone," said Mr. Root, "and the threat of a third party which alarmed so many Republicans two years ago and still vexed us one year ago, has practically disappeared. It is plain that it never had any real substance apart from the powerful personality of Mr. Roosevelt. This is unmistakably indicated by the statistics of recent nominations and votes.
"Senator Root attacked the record of the national administration since the Democrats have been in control. He said:
"The Democratic party took possession of the national government a year and a half ago, with a program of policy by which they proposed to set free every American from the incubus of too great success by others, to reduce the cost of living, and to give new life and vigor to American production and commerce and more ample and certain returns to American industry.
"Have the rewards of American industry been increased? We all know that they have not, but that, on the contrary, production has been decreased.
"Enterprise hesitates; it waits, irresolute and fearful, because, under the dominance of the party which has shown such jealousy and envy of business success, they are afraid that the government may do to them and to their prospective customers and to their hoped for opportunities."

GEORGE WALKER EXONERATED.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Baltimore, Md., Aug. 18.—George B. Walker, a Washington automobile dealer, was declared by a coroner's jury to be blameless in an accident that resulted in the death of William Goldstein, a newby. It was testified that the boy ran in front of the automobile. Mr. Walker was released.

ENGLAND'S APPEAL TO HER SOLDIERS.

London, Aug. 18.—The following instructions were issued to the soldiers of the British expeditionary force by Lord Kitchener:
"You are ordered abroad as a soldier of the King to help our French comrades against the invasion of the common enemy. You have to perform a task in which you will need all your courage and energy and patience.
"Remember that the honor of the British army depends upon your conduct. It will be your duty not only to set an example by your discipline and perfect steadiness under fire, but to maintain the most friendly relations with those whom you are helping in this struggle.
"Operations in which you engage will for the most part take place in a friendly country. You can do your country no better service than by showing yourselves in France and Belgium in the true character of a British soldier.
"Be invariably courteous and kind; never do anything likely to injure or destroy property, always look upon looting as a disgraceful act. You are sure to meet with a welcome and to be trusted and your conduct must justify that welcome and that trust.
"Your duty cannot be done unless your health is sound, so keep constantly on your guard against excess. In this new experience you may find temptations of both wine and women and you must entirely resist both temptations. While treating all women with perfect courtesy you should avoid any intimacy.
"Do your duty bravely, fear God and honor the King."

President Asks People To Be Fair In Their War Utterances

"Addressing my countrymen," President Wilson yesterday issued a long statement calling upon citizens of the United States to confine their speech to the spirit of strict neutrality, which he defined as the spirit of impartiality and fairness—in the European war situation.
The President's statement follows:
" My fellow countrymen:
" I suppose that every thoughtful man in America has asked himself during these last troubled weeks what influence the European war may exert upon the United States, and I take the liberty of addressing a few words to you in order to point out that it is entirely within our choice what its effects upon us will be and to urge very earnestly upon you the sort of speech and conduct which will best safeguard the nation against distress and disaster.
" The effect of the war upon the United States will depend upon what American citizens say and do. Every man who really loves America will act and speak in the true spirit of neutrality, which is the spirit of impartiality and fairness and friendliness to all concerned. The spirit of the nation in this critical matter will be determined largely by what individuals and society and those gathered in public meetings do and say, upon what newspapers and magazines contain, upon what ministers utter in their pulpits, and men proclaim as their opinions on the streets.
" The people of the United States are drawn from many nations, and chiefly from the nations at war. It is natural and inevitable that there should be the utmost variety of sympathy and desire among them with regard to the issues and circumstances of the conflict. Some will wish one nation, others another, to succeed in the momentous struggle. It will be easy to excite passion and difficult to allay it. Those responsible for exciting it will assume a heavy responsibility, responsibility for no less a thing than that the people of the United States, whose loyalty to their Government is so loyal as to try men's souls. We as Americans all, bound in honor and affection to think first of her and her interests—may be divided in camps of hostile opinion, but against each other, involved in the war itself in impulse and opinion, if not in action. Such divisions amongst us would be fatal to our peace of mind and might seriously stand in the way of the proper performance of our duty as the one great nation at peace, the one people holding itself apart from the war by impartial mediation and speak the counsels of peace and accommodation, not as a partisan, but as a friend.
" I venture, therefore, my fellow countrymen, to speak a solemn word of warning to you against that deepest, most subtle, most essential breach of neutrality which may spring out of partisanship, out of passionately taking sides. The United States must be neutral in fact as well as in name during this time of peculiar trial, a nation that beyond others to exhibit the fine poise of undisturbed judgment, the dignity of self-control, the efficiency of dispassionate action; a nation that neither sits in judgment upon others nor is disturbed in her own counsels, and which keeps herself fit and free to do what is honest and disinterested and truly serviceable for the peace of the world.
" Shall we not resolve to put upon ourselves the restraints which will bring to our people the happiness and the great and lasting influence for peace we covet for them?"

GOES TO HARMONIZE VILLA AND CARRANZA

Paul Fuller, New York Lawyer, It Is Understood, Reports 'Peace Efforts' Are Reaping Good Results.

REBEL CHIEF DELAYS ENTRY

4,500 APPEALS FROM FINDINGS

Paul Fuller, a New York lawyer, had been sent to Mexico in the interest of promoting harmony between Villa and Carranza.
Mr. Fuller has just arrived at Chihuahua, and, according to reports from him, has already seen Gen. Villa. While Secretary Bryan yesterday refused to discuss Fuller's report, it is understood that the administration regards the situation as promising.
Although George C. Carothers, who has been the department's representative with Villa, has been in Mexico for several weeks in Washington, the administration still remains in ignorance as to Villa's real purposes.
The department's advice state every day of the progress of the French working out in Mexico City. Carranza continues to delay his entry into the capital, and it is not known when he will assume the presidency.
Veracruz, Aug. 18.—Gen. Funston today issued an order forbidding any trains leaving Veracruz for Mexico City until the forces from the capital has been resumed.
Communication between this city and Mexico City on the Mexican Railway was cut off today by the constitutionalists at the capital.

COMMISSIONER NEWMAN SPEAKS AT PETWORTH

District Official Discusses Needed Improvements in Suburb Before Citizens' Association.

Commissioner Newman went to Petworth last night and talked to members of the Citizens' Association, at the grounds adjoining the Petworth M. E. Church.
Mr. Newman discussed the conditions of the paving of the streets, which he knew by name, and asked as to the welfare of prominent citizens, whom he knew by name.
F. A. Perry, a member who had been unable to obtain information regarding street car schedules to "drop down to the District Building."
It was a family talk, with several hundred women and men in attendance. Mr. Newman told how the Board of Commissioners worked out a scheme of legislation.
" We figured out what you wanted, and then went and did it," he said.
Speaking of the lack of certain needed street improvements, and the fact that many improvements had been made, he asked the citizens if they were not satisfied when Milan bats '07.
F. A. Perry demonstrated that the association has refused to countenance suffrage organizations. He was successful in obtaining consent for an investigation as to the paving of the streets, which he knew by name, and asked as to the welfare of prominent citizens, whom he knew by name.

JAPAN ASKS U. S. TO ACT FOR HER AT BERLIN IN CASE OF WAR

Ambassador Chinda yesterday inquired of Secretary Bryan whether the United States would be willing to assume charge of the Japanese Embassy in Berlin in case of an emergency in the relations between Germany and Japan. This inquiry is understood to refer, of course, to the likelihood of war existing between Germany and Japan next week.
The reply of the United States was favorable to Japan's inquiry. Just as this government has undertaken similar service for others among the belligerent powers, it is expected also that the United States Ambassador at Tokyo will be asked by Germany to take over the German Embassy there.

SAYS WAR WILL AID NATIONALISTS

British M. P., Visiting Here, Asserts the Conflict Will Hasten Home Rule.

ENGLAND WAS PREPARED

But Not to Fight Germany, Declares Peace Advocate and Head of Greatest Labor Union.

James Henry Thomas, member of Parliament for Darby, England, reached Washington yesterday. He came to this country a few days before his government delivered its ultimatum to the Kaiser and expects to sail from New York for home today.
" I would not have come away had I foreseen this war," he said last night to a Herald reporter. " There was not a sign of such trouble when I left home. I am here investigating railways, particularly from the standpoint of accidents."

Mr. Thomas is president of the National Union of Railwaymen of Great Britain and Ireland, said to be the largest labor union in the world. He was elected to Parliament on the labor ticket in 1906 when he was driving a railway engine, and is now serving his third term in the House of Commons.
Kitchener Popular.
The visitor declared England could have made no better choice at the time than Lord Kitchener for the office of secretary of state for war. There is no doubt about that, he said.
" It was not a political appointment at all," he said. " Lord Kitchener was selected as a soldier, and I have no doubt the choice was a very popular one. It makes him commander-in-chief of the army and as such he will direct all its operations from the war office. Gen. French, a good man, is in command at the front."

Mr. Thomas expressed the opinion that an industrial revolution will come to Germany as the result of war. " There is bound to be an uprising in some form against the autocracy which has brought Germany into the present trouble," he said.
War Hastens Home Rule.
" Home rule for Ireland is bound to come now," he added. " Redmond's statement at the outbreak of the war of Ireland's loyal attitude was undoubtedly well received by the British people, and as a result of that there is no doubt about that except in the imagination of a few who assert the contrary. Ireland will win her freedom in the war. They would have got it anyway, but this will bring it sooner."

Mr. Thomas declared the Kaiser " acted as if he believed God had chosen him to rule the whole world, and as if he thought the choice was an excellent one."

There can be no doubt that Great Britain was prepared for a war, but never for this particular one," he continued. " I am sure England did not anticipate this war. Secretary of State had been by her to cement friendly relations with Germany and all other powers. I know it. I am of the peace party at home, but after thinking it all over, I have reached the conclusion that England could not have done otherwise. She had to go into this war."

"MOVIES" GO UP IN FLAMES.

Not a Theater but Four Reels Valued at $500. Several hundred persons saw a good moving picture show go up in flames in Ninth street northwest yesterday afternoon. It was not a theater, but four films valued at $500 which ignited in some inconceivable manner.

G. J. Swan, of the Fairland Theater, a Nineteenth and L streets northwest, took the films from the Warner Feature Film Company at 49 Ninth street. When he reached the street he wanted to read so he put them down. Then it was they burst into flames. It is believed spontaneous combustion was the cause of the fire. The explosion of an oil lamp at 128 Pierce street northwest late last evening did $5 damage.
