CARNEGIE LAUDS KAISER'S VIEWS

Hs Ministers of State Brought Germany to War — Allies Fight Military Spirit.

PRaises GREY'S IDEAS

Thankful to Be Back Here, Where Soldiers and Guards Are Not Watching People.

New York, Sept. 25.—Andrew Carnegie, absolute Emperor William of responsibility for the European war on his arrival here today from England on board the Mauretania.

"I know the Kaiser well," said Mr. Carnegie. "He is the most sorrowful man in Europe today. The Emperor went to sea for a vacation. He was on his yacht when he heard of the trouble. He got into communication with Berlin. He was called back. When he got there the mischief was done."

"His ministers are responsible for the entire affair. The German Emperor has done more for developing Germany than any other ruler of his time. He has made schools, he has pensioned the working classes, and he has helped the laboring man."

"Things have taken such a turn that I believe Sir Edward Grey said exactly the right thing when he made the statement, 'We are not fighting the German people, but German militarism.'"

"German militarism overrules the great men of Germany. The great men of Germany are not members of the court, but are scientists, philosophers, and the real leaders of Germany's progress."

"The rulers of the world gather around them the men who feel that they also have a tenure of office, and form these military cliques, such as were found in Germany, and they took such action as instigated this war during the absence of the Kaiser himself."

"Now that danger is on, I am delighted to find that England has as great and able a statesman as Sir Edward Grey. He is a man who will lead them in the right way; he is a man who doesn't say things without meaning them. There is no greater statesman in the world today."

Mr. Carnegie expressed his pleasure over getting back to America.

"To get back to a republic at peace, and a country of the brotherhood of men is wonderful," he said. "To get back here, where there is not a soldier or a guard to be seen. What a contrast! You have no idea what confusion exists in Great Britain today. We Americans should be the most thankful people in the world. It behooves us to maintain our neutrality and set the countries of Europe an example."

"You don't know how far in advance of Europe we are and this war has put the Continent farther behind than ever."

The Mauretania carried 1,000 passengers, most of them Americans. Among the passengers were Sir Johnson Forbes Robertson, the British actor and Antonio Scotti, the Italian baritone.

DANIELS CLAMPS LID ON WIRELESS STATION

Siasconset Office Delays Closing to Ask if Force Would Be Used by Censor.

Siasconset, Mass., Sept. 25.—The Marconi wireless station here was closed this afternoon by the United States authorities, following the refusal of the company to permit censorship of messages going by way of the station.

The station did not close at noon, as Secretary Daniels ordered, but at 1 o'clock. The delay was occasioned by the fact that when Ensign Nixon, the naval officer acting as censor, notified the station manager, he was given in return a letter from the company, asking him if he was prepared to use force. Ensign Nixon reported to the Navy Department the contents of this letter, and asked for instructions. Before the department replied to his inquiry, another message was received, reporting that the company officers had withdrawn their letter and voluntarily closed down the station.

The station will remain closed indefinitely. It is understood the company is preparing to ask for an injunction from the Federal courts, and also to bring suit contesting the right of the government either to impose the censorship or to close down the station.

STEAMSHIP FINES REMITTED.

U. S. Did Not Want Profit by Occupying Vera Cruz.

Secretary of War Garrison yesterday remitted the fines, amounting to more than $400,000 upon the Hamburg-American line vessels which landed arms and ammunition for Huerta at Puerto Mexico last spring. This followed a hearing, at which representatives of the Hamburg-American company presented arguments against the legality of the fines imposed. The secretary's decision was based upon the conclusion that the fines were unnecessary because it has not been the intention of the United States to acquire the port and city of Vera Cruz.

The fines were imposed as follows: Upon the Ypiranga, $84,500 pesos; upon the Bavaria, 118,825 pesos; and upon the Danla, 4,186 pesos. These fines were imposed because of the fact that the ships in question landed packages of arms, ammunition, and other materials at Puerto Mexico, when the ships' manifests showed that these goods were consigned to Vera Cruz.

JAPANESE AND BRITISH BOMBARD TSINGTAU

German Artillery Makes Vigorous Reply to Assault—Night Attack Expected.

Pekin, Sept. 25.—The first Japanese attack against the German works at Tsingtau on the land side in which allies have figured has begun.

A force of British troops under Brig. Gen. Nathaniel W. Bernardston, 800 South Wales borderers, 400 Indian Sikhs and Japanese began bombarding the outer works of the Germans.

(Tsingtau is the port city of the German leasehold of Kiaochow on the Shantung peninsula in China.)

The allies are making a vigorous assault and the German artillery is replying vigorously. A night attack is expected.

"PORK" BILL IS UNDER FIRE.

The House Committee on Rivers and Harbors met yesterday to consider the Senate substitute bill. Opposition was expressed to making an appropriation in a lump sum and giving the board of engineers authority to expend $20,000,000 without any instruction from Congress. It voted to instruct the chairman to move to concur in the Senate amendment. This will be strongly opposed.

CAPTURE DUTCH LINER.

Queenstown, Sept. 25.—The Dutch liner Amstelredijk has been captured by a British cruiser. The liner had a number of German reservists aboard.

REVOLTS SPREADING THROUGHOUT AUSTRIA

Many Persons Killed in Rioting at Prague, While Bohemia, Silesia, and Croatia Are Rebellious.

Rome, Sept. 25.—Smoldering discontent among the mixed nationalities of Austria has burst into open flames, according to advices received by diplomats here today. In Bohemia, Austrian Silesia, and Croatia revolts already have broken out, these diplomatic reports say.

Rioting is said to have been in progress at Prague for several days, many persons having been killed or injured. A number of Americans were recently in that city and efforts are being made to learn whether they left before the disorders broke out.

Publication of official lists of the dead and wounded in the Galician campaign revealed that the greatest losses were suffered by Czech and Croatian troops, who, because of suspicions as to their loyalty had been put in the first line of the soldiers opposing the Russians.

GERMANS MARCHING TOWARD FELLA IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Capetown, South Africa, Sept. 25.—A force of 300 Germans crossed the Orange River on Wednesday, marching in the direction of Fella, which is just over the line from German Southwest Africa. The German post at Schuckmannsburg, near Zambesi, surrendered without opposition on September 21 to the Rhodesian police.

A Million Readers FOLLOW THE WAR Without Confusion

"Next in value to a good map is a weekly summary by an expert, which will refresh one's memory of what has taken place, and will give some new methods of estimating results.

"The very best of these summaries, in my judgment, may be found in The Literary Digest, a weekly publication issued by Funk & Wagnalls Company of New York, and which may be had for ten cents a copy.

"This paper ordinarily gives a review of the most noteworthy news of the world in all departments, with special attention to American affairs.

"Now, with this great war as the absorbing topic, the editors devote fully half of their space to a series of admirable reviews of the war from many angles.

"These reviews are written by experts, and they will serve to fix in the mind of the newspaper reader the salient features of each week's events in this tremendous struggle.

"Fully half of these articles are translations made specially from the leading European papers, which give the American reader an excellent idea of foreign public opinion on many phases of the war."

VROOMAN WANTS QUIZ OF SULLIVAN EXPENSES

Tells Senate Committee Illinois Candidate Spent Much More Than He Reported.

PENROSE CASE WILL BE HEARD

Carl Vrooman, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, came forward yesterday before the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections with information in favor of a Senate investigation of the contributions and expenditures of Roger C. Sullivan in the primary contest for the Senatorship nomination in Illinois. Mr. Vrooman was a citizen of Bloomington, Ill., and is a Progressive. He entered the race for the Senate, but withdrew and accepted appointment as Assistant Secretary of Agriculture. He has spoken his mind freely on more than one occasion as to the undesirability of a candidate of the type of Roger Sullivan and yesterday he gave the committee to understand he thought they should investigate the Sullivan campaign fund. He gave the names of several witnesses to be called later. The committee will hear a witness from Pennsylvania today in preliminary statements to determine whether there is cause for ordering an investigation into the Penrose primary expenditures.

Just how the action of Mr. Vrooman will be viewed by the White House was a theme of gossip today. Vrooman's friends say he accepted the appointment as Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, understanding that it should not control his action in the Senatorial matter in Illinois, and it is said he is preparing to take the stump in Illinois in favor of Raymond Robins, the Progressive candidate. Senator Owen and other members of the Progressive Democratic League, will be on the stump against Sullivan. It is said, in fact, Senator Owen is declared to be the person most responsible for the move for an investigation of Sullivan. Secretary Bryan openly opposed Sullivan in the

ENEMY TAKES CAPITAL OF GERMAN NEW GUINEA

Australian Forces Hoist British Flag Over Friedrich Wilhelm, Meeting No Resistance.

London, Sept. 25.—The war office announced that the town and harbor of Friedrich Wilhelm, seat of the government of Kaiser Wilhelmland, German New Guinea, have been seized by Australian forces.

It was announced also that the German forces which had concentrated at Herbertshohe, New Pomerania, had been annihilated.

German New Guinea, which is now British territory as a result of the Australian forces' aggressiveness, forms part of the island of Papua, north of Australia. Its area is approximately 200,000 square miles.

WAR HURTS IMMIGRATION.

That the European war has cut down alien immigration to less than one quarter of what it was last year was indicated by figures made public at the Department of Labor yesterday.

During the period from August 1 to September 2, 1913, 25,065 aliens were received at Atlantic seaports. During the same period of this year only 5,528 immigrants came in. On September 2, 1913, 631 aliens arrived at these ports; on the same date of this year only 151 were reported.

MONTH AHEAD OF CONGRESS.

When the war revenue measure is passed by the House, the Jones Philippine bill will be taken up, under a limitation of twelve hours of debate. This word was brought to the White House yesterday by Representative Henry of Texas.

The ship purchase bill will follow under a limitation of eight hours of debate. Representative Henry does not expect Congress to adjourn for at least a month.
