which consist of 20,000 acres and are known as the Pisah forest.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory-lined mull, draped over a flounced silk lace undergarment. Her veil was of lace, an heirloom which had not been worn since the marriage of her great-grandmother in 1823. The bridegroom and best man were in uniform. A buffet supper was served and the bride cut the wedding cake with the bridegroom's sword.

After a wedding trip of several weeks, Lieut. and Mrs. Cain will go after Fort Sam Houston, Tex., where he is stationed.

Of interest to many will be the following from the Savannah News: "Miss Irene Montier and Mr. Jesse R. Allen were quietly married yesterday afternoon about 3:30 by the Rev. W. Moore Scott at his residence in East Taylor street. They left in the afternoon for Jacksonville, where they expect to reside.

The bride has been living in Savannah for about a year, having come here from Washington, D. C. "The Flowers Were L-o-v-e-l-y"

That's how a happy bride recently expressed her pleasure at the flowers we supplied for her wedding. You will have reason for saying the same if Gude supplies the flowers for your bouquet, decoration, and other wedding niceties.

Gude's flowers are cultivated by skilled men and the result is that they are the finest grown. Flowers for large orders are not cut until just before delivery; that accounts for their delightful freshness. Let us submit estimates and suggestions. We guarantee absolute satisfaction; and our prices are the lowest possible consistent with the finest quality.
