New Dinner and Dance Dresses; Afternoon, Calling and Street Suits for Thanksgiving

In the Third-floor Salons of Women's Apparel.

Dinner and Dance Dresses.

New arrivals of Dresses for the dinner and holiday d'ansant, of soft filmy laces of elusive daintiness, over plaited drop skirts; soft chiffons over silk or net. And a most beautiful new material (satin sublime). Colorings are cerise, Nile green, turquoise blue, lavender, yellow, pale pink, white, white-and-black and all-black. Some of the new models are made with draped bodices, slightly high waisted, full circular skirts finished with small ruffles or bandings of velvet ribbons to match; the shoulders are daintily draped with tulle and finished with strap of velvet or ribbon rosettes.

Models more appropriate for dinners and teas have bodices designed with slightly more height in the neck, and long, transparent sleeves; the bodice itself composed of chiffon or tulle, and the skirt of velvet and charmeuse. Shades in these are plum, black-and-white, cerise, dark brown and green.

Prices are $16.95, $19.75, $25.00, and up to $95.00.

Printess Plush Coats at $25.00.

The soft plush fabric is one of the best of the season for coats, and the Printess makers have so manipulated it as to reveal its full beauty and richness. Other coats of the fine pile fabrics in baby lamb, imported broadcloth velours and combed plush.

Attractively trimmed with shirred velvet, encircled by genuine raccoon fur, and shown in the dress shades of black and taupe. Light in weight, but exceedingly warm. Coats that are suitable for all occasions of wear.

Three-piece Costumes Reduced.

Very appropriate for Thanksgiving wear. There are only 10 of these costumes, and they represent the best American and imported models, each one being exclusive.

Rich and handsome materials—velvets, broadcloths, panne velvets and plushes, and combinations of silk and cloth; many are beautifully trimmed with furs, fancy ornaments, braids and novelty buttons.

Colors are black, navy, green, brown, gray and plum, and sizes 36, 38 and 40.

*$87.50 Suits	$67.50	$135.00 Suits	$100.00
$95.00 Suits	$75.00	$165.00 Suits	$125.00
$125.00 Suits	$95.00	$200.00 Suits	$135.00

Our Suits at $35.00.

A very fine showing of Suits at this price, many of them copied from the highest priced models. Short, medium and long coat styles, many of them fur trimmed, in the colors of navy and black mostly, although brown and green are sufficiently shown. The influence of military styles is shown in the close-to-the-chin buttoning of coats.

The Army and Navy Suit Also Comes Under This Price.

And for the conservative suit buyer there is nothing that meets the requirements so exactly and with style; coat and skirt are both simply cut, well tailored and very excellent in workmanship. We guarantee the fabric, the linings, the tailoring and the wear of these suits to withstand the severest tests. In navy and black. A suit for the well dressed woman for all occasions.

WILEY HAS NEW PLAN FOR RELIEF WORKERS

Boxes of Food Should Contain Supplies for Particular Class of Sufferers, He Says.

A plan for the simplification of the Belgian relief plan has been offered by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley. Dr. Wiley suggests the shipments of food be divided into three classes—for infants, for convalescent adults, and for healthy adults, and that these supplies be shipped in fifty-pound boxes, each bearing the distinctive marks of the class for which it is intended. This, it is argued, would not only simplify the work of shipment, but will increase the efficiency of the workers.

Boxes for infants and young children will be marked with a white band; for convalescents, a blue band, and for adults, a red band. The contents of these boxes will be: For infants, capable of sustaining from 200 to 250 children one day: Evaporated, unsweetened milk, about 20 pounds; milk sugar, about 2 pounds; barley flour, 5 pounds; rice, brown, 5 pounds; iodine cornmeal, 5 pounds; oatmeal, 5 pounds; salt, 2 ounces.

For convalescents, capable of sustaining from 100 to 150 convalescents one day: Evaporated milk, 15 pounds; malted milk, 15 pounds; olive or cotton-seed oil, 1 pound can; canned chicken, 2 pounds; brown, 5 pounds; whole wheat, 5 pounds; white flour, 7 pounds; sugar, 3 pounds; tea, 2 pounds; salt, 4 ounces.

For well adults, capable of sustaining fifty adults one day: Canned baked beans, 5 pounds; dried lentils, peas, or beans, 5 pounds; canned salmon, 5 pounds; oatmeal, 5 pounds; dried prunes, 5 pounds; cornmeal, 5 pounds; whole wheat or white flour, 5 pounds; sugar, 2 pounds; salt, 4 ounces.

A movement to send a shipment of food and clothing from Washington to the Belgians will be launched at a meeting of the committee of women who are carrying on the relief work this morning at 11 o'clock in the Cripps Building.

James Gustave Whitley, secretary of the National Belgium Relief Committee, of which Cardinal Gibbons is honorary chairman, will address the meeting, as will also Dr. Wiley, and Mrs. Joseph Robinson Darling. Dr. Wiley will explain his plan for the shipment of food.

FORMING "HEALTH ARMY."

War Brings New Society to Combat Disease.

Because the European war "has emphasized anew the urgent need of a strong virile race to guarantee the perpetuity of the American nation," the Life Extension Institute, Inc., "designed as a self-supporting philanthropy," with former President William Howard Taft as chairman of its board of directors, has begun a nationwide campaign to enlist recruits in "The National Health Guard."

No fee required to enlist, but recruits are asked to pledge themselves to make an earnest effort to inform myself on hygiene, obey the laws of health, encourage periodic health examinations, to uphold physical efficiency and detect disease in time to check or cure it.

Elmer E. Rittenhouse is president of the institute, and Gen. William C. Gorgas, U. S. A., is its sanitation consultant. The headquarters are at 25 West Forty-fifth street, New York City.

I. C. C. to Open Hearings.

The Interstate Commerce Commission will begin a series of hearings Thursday in connection with the prohibition by it of a uniform system of accounts for pipe line companies. The commission in 1912 decided that pipe lines carrying oil were common carriers, the commission's decision being based on the fact to regulate commerce. The tentative uniform rates prescribed requires information to be furnished with regard to land, pipe, cost of operation, and maintenance.

Minneapolis is preparing to appoint women on the police force.

FORECASTS PROSPERITY.

Secretary Redfield Discusses Prospects for Business.

"Let the worst be said that can be said respecting business difficulties in America, our condition still remains not only relatively bright, but rapidly improving, and in many respects both prosperous and promising. The coming winter throws no such dark shadow as was feared a few weeks ago, and the statement is beginning to be heard that goods cannot be delivered as promptly as desired because the factories are too busy."

LINCOLN MEMORIAL A "PEONAGE JOB"

Labor Men Declare Government Has Set Aside Its Own Eight-hour Law.

Special to The Washington Herald. Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—The American Federation of Labor today reiterated its stand made at Seattle, last year, against direct participation in politics, by the formation of a labor party.

Angry representations before the federation convention here today indicate that the labor party's compromise constitution law recently put through in a number of States have multiplied rather than lessened labor's hardships, especially in New York and Pennsylvania, and the federation answered by pledging itself to have these laws probed, cleaned up or even made over.

The discussion of the compensation system and the airing of a bitter wrangle which the federation of labor is now having with the Federal government over the proposed of the Federal eight-hour law took up all of the morning session. The federation representatives charge that successive Attorneys General, including Wickersham and McReynolds, systematically nullified the eight-hour law and that, as a consequence the magnificent Lincoln memorial in Washington is a notorious job, being executed for the most part under "a peonage system."

By a unanimous vote of the convention the labor force of all the States were instructed to work for a review and re-arrangement of the compensation laws, with the ultimate purpose of a Federal law uniformly enforced in all the States.

Attorney General Wickersham and Attorney General McReynolds ruled that the eight-hour provision did not pertain to supplies such as stone and steel, and that classes purchasable in the open market. This ruling lately has included all the special stonework done on new government buildings.

No fee required to enlist, but recruits are asked to pledge themselves to make an earnest effort to inform myself on hygiene, obey the laws of health, encourage periodic health examinations, to uphold physical efficiency and detect disease in time to check or cure it.

"BOMB" A BOX OF BRICKS.

Court Attaches Manhandle Individual Who Carried Package.

New York, Nov. 15.—Eight court bailiffs and detectives in the Brooklyn Court of special sessions leaped on a man with a square package in the back of the court room today and beat him into unconsciousness, while a ninth court attaché with great precision grabbed the square package the man had carried, and tossed it in a bucket of water.

The nine attaches had been detailed, in view of the bomb scare being detailed in New York, to prevent any outrages like that attempted in the Tombs Court Saturday. All the spectators and one of the judges hastily left the court. It is thought the man who had been beaten came to his senses.

"Wadjuh hit me for?" he gasped. "I ain't done nothing."
"No," shouted a detective. "You'll only get about fifty years for this. Look at this bomb. It's dead now."
"Bomb," said the man. "That's a package of bricks. I threw them at me a month ago and he was up for trial today. I was ordered to bring 'em in for evidence."

FEAR TERRORIST CAMPAIGN.

Police on Trail of Those Responsible for Bomb Outrages.

New York, Nov. 15.—While the police so far have achieved no result in their search for the malefactors responsible for nearly fifty bomb outrages in the last ten months, belief was expressed today that the offer of a $1,000 reward, made by a newspaper, would result in a clue which might lead to the arrest of the guilty persons.

Unusual precautions have been taken to guard police headquarters and the courts, and detectives have been detailed to act as body guards for Police Commissioner Woods and Miss Katherine B. Davis, commissioner of the department of corrections. Since the attempt was made last week by the "bomb syndicate" to blow up the Tombs police court, the police have come to the belief that the city is in for another series of outrages.

Wyoming Gets Gun Trophy.

The Knox trophy, awarded each year to the battleship making the best record in gunnery, has been awarded for the year to the Wyoming, commanded by Capt. J. H. Glennon, according to announcement made at the Navy Department yesterday. The Knox trophy was presented to the Wyoming by the Society of the Sons of the Revolution in Massachusetts.

DISTRICT PENAL LAW CRIME CAUSE, HE SAYS

Indeterminate Sentences Would Work for Good, Whittaker Tells Monday Evening Club.

A plea for the "indeterminate" prison sentence in lieu of the "fixed" sentence now imposed by the courts of the District was made last night by Superintendent Whittaker, of the Occoquan workhouse, in an address before the Monday Evening Club, at the Y. M. C. A. building.

"A fixed sentence such as the courts now are compelled to give to those who violate the law," said Superintendent Whittaker, "is the cause of much of the crime and vagrancy in the District. I recommend the criminal courts be so amended that prisoners committed to the workhouse be sentenced for not less than thirty days or more than two years, the time of release to be fixed by the Commissioner, according to the prisoner's conduct."

Let the law provide that before the prisoner is released he shall be provided for him for at least six months, during which time he will be under supervision of an officer to see that he performs the criminal code he so amended that prisoners committed to the workhouse be sentenced for not less than thirty days or more than two years, the time of release to be fixed by the Commissioner, according to the prisoner's conduct.

After his address Mr. Whittaker showed pictures of the Occoquan workhouse, called one of the model penitentiaries of the nation. Mr. Ernest P. Bicknell, president, presided, and addresses were made by A. J. McKelway, Southern secretary of the National Child Labor Committee; Judge Lattimer, of the Juvenile Court; Secretary Wilson, of the Board of Charities; Superintendent Zinkham, of the District jail, and others.

SOCIETY
