

SOCIETY

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.

last Thursday. They will spend only a few weeks in Panama and then go to Southern California, spending the remainder of the winter and spring in San Diego, Coronado Beach and Los Angeles and going to San Francisco for the exposition before returning to Washington.

Master Donald Kann, of Baltimore, is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Harris, of this city.

Miss Mildred Oettinger has returned to Baltimore after a short visit to friends in town.

Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant left Washington last evening for Florida, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Potter Palmer, for the next few months.

Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Tausig and their daughter, Miss Emily Tausig, spent Christmas with Mrs. R. S. Johnston in Norfolk, Va.

Miss Callie Doyle has joined Miss Flora Doyle at the home of their brother-in-law and sister, United States Ambassador to Russia and Mrs. George T. Marye. Miss Callie Doyle has been visiting in Ohio for the month of December. The Misses Doyle are keeping the Marye house open for little Miss Helen Marye, who remained at home on account of the unsettled conditions in Europe.

Guests in Washington

Capt. A. E. Saxton, Quartermaster Corps, U. S. A., and Mrs. Saxton are the guests of Mrs. Saxton's parents, Gen. and Mrs. E. A. Godwin, at their apartment in the Dresden. Capt. and Mrs. Saxton have recently returned from the Philippines and will remain in Washington, where Capt. Saxton has been detailed for duty.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Schofield have had quite a house party of young people over the holidays. Their son, Cadet Frank C. Schofield, came down from West Point and brought one of his classmates, Cadet Spencer, with him. Their daughters, Miss Margaret Schofield and Miss Florence Schofield, have as their guests Miss Dorothy Foltz and Miss Margaret Foltz, of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia.

Miss Ernestine Rich has returned to her home in the city from a ten-day visit to friends in Richmond, Va.

The Misses Marguerite and Alma Kaufman entertained a number of out-of-town guests and their hostesses at tea Wednesday last, at their home in McComb street.

Mr. Sylvan Grosner leaves Monday evening for Detroit, Mich., after a most delightful visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Grosner, of Massachusetts avenue.

Miss Rhoda Mautner has returned to town after a short visit to friends in Richmond, Va.

Mr. Solomon returned to his home in New York after a short visit to relatives in the city.

Commander and Mrs. Estes, of Annapolis, Md., are the guests of Commander and Mrs. Cleland Davis.

Mrs. Phil in Clancy, of Niagara, N. Y., is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Tiller. Mrs. Clancy has had friends in Washington, where she has visited Mr. and Mrs. Tiller many times, and it was from their house that she and Mr. Clancy were married last summer.

Miss Jean Wilson returned this evening to her home at 1627 Twenty-first street from Albany, N. Y., where she had been giving readings at the governor's mansion.

Mrs. John G. Capers, 165 R street northwest, now convalescent from a recent illness, will, on that account, be at home only the last two Thursdays in January.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hendrie and the Misses Hendrie have arrived from their home in Denver, and will spend some time at the New Willard before continuing their travels South.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Gordon Hewitt, of Ottawa, Canada, have arrived in Washington and are stopping at the Shoreham.

Mr. Herman Koenigsberger is spend-

MISS MARY LORD ANDREWS.

Who made her debut last Thursday at a tea given by her parents, Prof. and Mrs. Eliphabet Andrews.

ing some weeks in the city with relatives before returning to his home in New York.

Mr. Emanuel Haas returned during the past week to Richmond, Va., after a short visit to Washington, the guest of Mrs. T. Haas.

A party of young folk left town on Wednesday last to spend New Year's Day in Richmond, Va. Among those in the party were the Misses Helen Fischer, Dorothy Stiefel, Esther Kahn, Gladys Lowenberg, and Lucille Lowenberg; Messrs. Norman Fischer, Stanley Fischer, David Bacer, and Raymond Goodman.

Mr. Lester Steinem has returned to the city from a short visit to friends in Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Prelinghuysen, who have been spending their honeymoon at Augusta, Ga., with short stays at other Southern cities, are at the New Willard to remain several days. They are accompanied by Mr. Walter Watson, of New York, Mrs. Prelinghuysen's father, also a late arrival from Augusta, Ga.

Mr. Myron Oppenheimer has returned to his home in Kalamazoo road from a short trip to Baltimore, where he went to attend a dance given by Miss Bessie Wiesenfeld of that city.

Mr. Jesse Cornicher, of New York, is the guest of friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Myer, who were recently married in town, are touring the North before leaving for Birmingham, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Herman announces the engagement of her daughter, Florence, to Mr. Sidney West, both of this city.

Mrs. Royal M. Remick, of Wilmington, Del., and her child have arrived at the Shoreham to spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McEwen and their daughters, the Misses McEwen, of Seattle, are at the New Willard for a visit of some length, en route for the South, where they will pass a month.

Gen. and Mrs. Stephen M. Weld, of Boston, after passing the Christmas holidays at the Pollochucos Club, South

Caroline, are at the New Willard for a week's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Runyer, of New York, have arrived at the Shoreham, where they will spend some time.

Dinner for Italian Ambassador

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont entertained at dinner last evening in honor of the Italian Ambassador and Countess Machi di Cellere. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stetsbury, of Philadelphia, came down for the dinner party and will remain over the week-end and occupy a box at the Charity Ball tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Letter were hosts at a dinner dance last evening at the Pallades, their country place near Great Falls, Va.

Capt. and Mrs. John H. Gibbons, he former superintendent of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, had a dance last night at the Playhouse in honor of Miss Elizabeth Wiley and Miss Ruth Wilson, debutantes of this season.

Col. and Mrs. Eugene Ladd were hosts at dinner last evening.

Mrs. William J. Boardman will be hostess at tea this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Murray Crane.

Miss Eugenie Holcombe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Walker Holcombe, entertained at breakfast yesterday in honor of the Misses Scriven, daughters of Gen. and Mrs. Scriven, and their house guest, Miss Cornelia McDonald, of Louisville.

Mrs. Reid Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hannis Taylor, who came from Boston to spend Christmas with her parents, will be the guest of honor at a bridge party which Miss May Power will give on January 5.

Mrs. David Jayne Hill gave the first of a series of "at homes" yesterday afternoon.

New Year's Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Lerner entertained a hundred or more guests New Year's night at a dance. Their guests included members of the Diplomatic Corps, Congressional, official and residential circles. A seated supper was served at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Victor Kauffmann gave a tea yesterday afternoon at Radischer's in honor of Miss Dorothy Mason, daughter of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Newton E. Mason. Those who assisted in receiving were: Mrs. Joseph Kuhn, Mrs. Ross Thompson, Mrs. William Haywood, Mrs. Hubert S. Dent, Mrs. Thomas Fuller, Mrs. Sturdevant, Mrs. William A. Hill, Mrs. E. T. Pollock, Mrs. John Crayke Simpson, Mrs. Joseph Homiston Crawford, Miss Elizabeth Hopkins, Miss Haskell, of Boston, and Miss Miriam Dow, of Brooklyn, who are Mrs. Kauffmann's house guests; Miss Ruth Wilson, Miss Louise Clark, Miss Dorothy Drake, Miss Dorthea Owen, Miss Elizabeth Wiley, Miss Lois Reeside, Miss Pauline Kindelberger, Miss Lillian Hendrick, Miss Maxwell Church, Miss Pocahontas Butler, Miss Mary Lord Andrews, Miss Dorothy Cranford, Miss Margaret Lerner and Miss Adeline Pendleton. Mrs. Kauffmann wore a gown of yellow silk embroidered in silver motifs, with which she wore a black tulle scarf and a black velvet rose at her belt. Miss Mason wore cream lace threaded with gold made over flesh-colored chiffon. Mrs. Mason, who presided at the tea table, was in black net spangled with opalescent sequins, made over white and trimmed with white tulle.

Mrs. Edwin F. Sweet and Miss Sweet, of 1706 Sixteenth street, will not receive tomorrow.

A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the P. E. O. Society, whether resident or visiting, to meet at the Congressional Library for luncheon once each month. A room adjoining the public cafe has been reserved for this purpose. On the first Monday in January Chapter C District of Columbia, will have charge of the arrangements, and it is expected that the other local chapters will serve as hostesses in turn.

The Southern State Suffrage Conference will meet on Sunday, January 17, at the Jardin de Danse at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. There will be no meeting before the peace mass meeting to be held at the Willard on January 18.

At the Day Nursery

The regular monthly meeting of the Day Nursery and Dispensary Association will be held at the Raleigh on January 8 at 8:30 o'clock. There was a Christmas tree for the children when they were forty-three children given candy, oranges, a Christmas stocking, and real warm stockings to wear. There were toys left at the nursery, where the children may come and play. The mothers came to the nursery and helped in the distribution of the good thing left by Santa Claus for the children.

Miss Ora M. Helming, the attractive young daughter of Mrs. Mary Helming, received New Year's Day, from 2 to 5, at her home 14 Sixteenth street northeast. Miss Helming was assisted by Miss Breat and Miss Leyden. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and holiday flowers. The hostess received in a gown of canary satin trimmed with Irish lace. Her bouquet was of red roses in a thread lace holder. Among those who called were Messrs. H. Shinn, H. Harvy, H. Honey, A. Van Louck, L. E. Hoffman, and R. A. Funk, who rendered: J. Waldman, C. Murphy, and T. Crisp.

Among those entertaining at dinner on New Year's night were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Byars. Covers were laid for ten. The spirit of the Yuletide season was predominant in the decorations. Music was enjoyed through the evening.

Holiday Dances

Mrs. Fred Dennett entertained yesterday afternoon at the Congressional Club some 200 young people, representing the Cabinet, Congressional and residential circles, at an informal holiday dance for her daughter, Dorothy. A novel feature of the occasion was the Musee orchestra, a string orchestra of nine pieces composed of young ladies in Greek costume, directed by Mrs. J. McDee. The young ladies assisting were Mrs. Thomas Kemp, jr., the Misses Genevieve Clark, Genevieve Walsh, Clara J. Francis, Dorothy Campbell, Phyllis Her, Mary Howell, Eleanor Knowland, Ruth Howell, Margaret Green, Elizabeth Reeside, Agnes Shackelford, Catherine Manahan, Mary Burke, Mrs. T. G. Forney, Misses Dorothy Berthoff, Lucie Hall, Thomas J. Gates, to Mr. C. Lewis Cooper, Rev. J. C. Elliott officiated, in the absence from the city of the Rev. Dr. Paul R. Hickok, of the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church. To Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Miss Zaida Miller, Miss Gates entered the bower of palms, accompanied by her father, Master Theodore A. Gates, brother of the bride, acted as ringbearer, while Miss Henrietta A. Gates, her sister, acted as flower girl. While the ceremony was being performed, Miss Miller played "A Perfect Day," the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin." The bride was handsomely gowned in white messaline, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and lilies of the valley. After the ceremony, a reception was held, during which many friends called to congratulate the bride and bridegroom. The presents received were numerous, costly, and useful, and will add much to the joy of the new home to be occupied upon the return of Mr. and Mrs. Cooper from a short wedding trip to Westchester, Pa., the former home of the bridegroom. Among those present at the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Gates, David, Herbert, Theodore, and Henrietta Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper and Miss Cooper, parents and sister of the bride, and Mrs. M. L. Gates, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hayes, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Elliott, and Mrs. Paul R. Hickok, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Cole and family, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Cole and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Cole and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles

Weddings and Engagements

SIX

New Year Suggestions

No. I.
88-note Player-Piano, fully guaranteed; all modern improvements, latest design. Scarf, bench, and library service.
$390

No. IV.
One lot of used Pianos, ranging in price from $95 to $125. These you should not miss seeing.

No. II.
Knabe Upright Piano, excellent condition. Mahogany case. Will sacrifice for $185

No. V.
$750 Kimball Player-Piano, used in Library; perfect condition; a real bargain.
$495

No. III.
Kimball Player-Piano, the famous Style Nine. Beautiful case design.
$450

T. P. Culley & Son

523 11th St. N. W.

No. VI.
A high grade Piano, Angelus Player, 150 rolls of music. Fully guaranteed. Perfect condition. Be sure and see this.
$195

Out of the High Rent District

THE LOUVRE
1115-1117 F STREET

Reduced Prices

EVENING GOWNS and DANCE FROCKS

January reductions prevail in this department. You can now buy our finest gowns and frocks in all the latest models and materials—black, white, and all colors are included.

- $19.50 for Dresses Worth to . . $35
- $25.00 for Dresses Worth to . . $45
- $30.00 for Dresses Worth to . . $55
- $35.00 for Dresses Worth to . . $60
- $45.00 for Dresses Worth to . . $65
- $50.00 for Dresses Worth to . . $75

Rengo Belt-Reducing Corsets

—will reduce the stout figure and furnish the greatest support and comfort to the woman of medium weight.

Their elastic inserts give freedom, and the great strength of design and fabric give Rengo corsets a lasting shapeliness that outwears all others.

All Rengo Belt corsets boned throughout with double watch-spring steels, guaranteed not to rust.

Price, $3.00

Payne's Corset Shop

925½ G St. N. W.
Phone Main 6373.

Cornelison

Genuine Millinery Reductions

Our show windows will tell the story. Look there for displays of handsome models with prices plainly marked. Personal attention to every patron.

708 Eleventh St. N. W.

CONTINUED ON PAGE THREE.