MISS KATE GORDON, of New Orleans, in whose honor a reception will be given Thursday evening in the small ballroom of the Willard.

Last Week

Mrs. R. D. Shepherd gave a very delightful entertainment last Sunday afternoon at her residence at 1225 Biltmore street to afford her friends an opportunity to meet Miss Cora de Willhorst, of Paris and Washington, who was the first French woman to volunteer for Red Cross service at the front. Miss de Willhorst gave a most interesting account of conditions as she had found them at the front, and told of the things that are most needed by the field and other hospitals. Miss de Willhorst's health having broken down by reason of her exertions, she is now endeavoring to aid the Red Cross by these private recitals of her experiences.

Among those present were Hon. and Mrs. W. G. Brown, Hon. and Mrs. Howard Sutherland, Senator and Mrs. Gore, Miss Imogene Taylor, Mrs. Dudley, Mrs. John G. Capers, Mr. and Mrs. Tullaferrro, Miss Emma Bullock, Mrs. John Heath, of California; Judge Wilmer Latimer, his mother, and Miss Louise Latimer; Mr. De Leon Nichol, of New York; Col. Wainwright Murphy, who came over especially from New York for this occasion, and Mr. and Mrs. Philander Johnson.

The Twentieth Century Club held its February meeting on Thursday at All Souls' Unitarian Church. Mrs. Fredrick Schoff, of Philadelphia, president of the National Mothers' Congress, gave an address on "The National Outlook for Childhood," which was followed by an animated discussion.

Thursday's meeting was the first one since the change in the constitution and by-laws, which provides for the monthly meetings to be held at 20 a. m. instead of 11 a. m. heretofore. Another change is the admission to membership in the club of five persons at each meeting, an increase of three over the former number admitted. Those elected on Thursday were: Miss Emma Strider, Mrs. Wesley Shaw, Mrs. R. Kent Beaty, Mrs. Francis L. Hawse, and Mrs. Milton Thomas.

Attention was called to the primary ballot which has been sent out to all the members by the election committee composed of Dr. Clara S. Ludlow, chairman; Mrs. Lyman R. Swormstedt and Miss Elizabeth M. Carhart, which must be returned on or before February 12.

From the returns nominations for officers will be made. Elections will take place at the March meeting.

Mrs. E. E. Farham and Mrs. C. Dwight Marsh will have charge of the Twentieth Century Club table on Wednesday at the luncheon in the old Masonic Temple, given under the auspices of the District of Columbia Federation of Women's Clubs for the benefit of the proposed clubhouses. Among those assisting will be Mrs. Luke E. Strider and Miss Emma Strider.

The section of literature will meet on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Farquhar, 160 Park road. Mrs. Julia P. Wells will give a talk on "Don't Be a Mite."

The section of civics and education with Mrs. William F. Woodard and Mrs. Albert H. Grossman as co-leaders, will meet on Tuesday at 11 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell, 211 Connecticut avenue, to hear Miss Eliza R. Sabinore speak on "Far Eastern Conditions." An invitation has been extended to the sections of travel and peace to unite with the section of civics and education on Tuesday.

On Tuesday afternoon the section of archaeology will meet at the home of the leader, Mrs. John Lowe, 282 Woodley place, when Mrs. Horace M. Fulton will read a paper on "The Art of the Period of the Persian War."

The section of French will hold its fortnightly meeting on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. William J. Meyers, 125 F Street, when Mrs. Elizabeth M. Carhart will direct the games and reading.

The section of art will meet with the leader, Mrs. Dayton S. Ward, 1288 Columbia road, on Thursday at 5 p. m. when the "Famous Cities of Spain" will be discussed under the direction of Mrs. U. G. B. Pierce.

A musical and lecture will take place at the Brighton Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Lucie Moore, who has recently returned from Florence, Italy, and has studied under the famous Bononcini, will render several classic selections. Mrs. A. M. Harper will lecture on "The Art of Mental and Physical Self-Building."

The members of the Junior League of Washington are giving a bridge and dance at Rauscher's next Friday. The proceeds will go to local settlement houses. Bridge will be in order from 5 until 7. Miss Frances Carpenter has charge of the sale of tickets.

A tea-dance will be given at Rauscher's Easter Monday, April 5, for the benefit of the National Homeopathic Hospital. The dancing—from 5 to 7 o'clock—will be preceded by bridge. Mrs. L. D. Swormstedt, 2 Thomas circle, and Mrs. J. H. Branson, 125 Massachusetts avenue, comprise the ticket committee. The arrangement of the tables for bridge is in charge of Mrs. H. H. Hawhurst, 1831 Connecticut avenue.

Mrs. Theodore Tiller will have an informal reception on Friday at her home in Ontario road in honor of Mrs. Thomas Hardwick, wife of Senator Hardwick, of Georgia, and Mrs. Cone Johnson. Assisting her will be her sister, Mrs. Thomas Gore, Mrs. John Stevens, of Texas;

Mrs. Robert Gittens, of New York, and Mrs. W. S. Howard, of Georgia.

The Congressional Club has sent out cards for a reception on Monday evening, February 15, at 8:30.

Mrs. Harry Lee Rust will entertain at the Washington Club at the dance in honor of Mrs. William Russian Cox, the honorary president of the Colonial Dames of America. Wilner, Mrs. William Kearney Carr, Mrs. Ellithoit Andrews, Mrs. Playden, Mrs. Rely Gordon, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. William B. Harrison, Mrs. Marion Butler, Mrs. William L. Marshall, Mrs. C. C. Tucker, Mrs. H. N. Tatlin, Mrs. C. C. Marbury, Mrs. H. H. Robb, and Mrs. Russ Smith.

The auction bridge party in aid of the District of Columbia Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage at the home of Mrs. Robert T. Lincoln on February 24 will be followed by a tea, to which all friends of the "cause" not caring for bridge are invited to attend at a nominal admission.

Bridge will begin at 2 o'clock and tea will be served at 5. Neither bridge or tea is confined to the members of the association, as hostesses entertaining at both are including both men and women among their guests. Reservations for tables and tickets can be obtained at any time from the officers of the association, or members of the executive committee. The officers recently elected for the ensuing year are: President, Mrs. Charles H. Davis; first vice president, Mrs. Swager Sherry; second vice president, Mrs. Joseph M. Stoddard; third vice president, Mrs. T. T. Gaff; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George A. Worthington, jr.; recording secretary, Miss Elizabeth Davis; treasurer, Miss Alys Card.
