WHEN A MAN IS MARRIED

BY ONE WHO IS JUST PRACTICING.

"Do you think it would be proper for me to join the equal suffrage club?" asked Myra this evening, rather timidly, I thought. We were returning from a tour among the moving picture theaters.

"Certainly," I replied. "I don't know why it wouldn't be."

"I didn't know, Robert. You see, Alma Martin was in to visit me this afternoon, and she suggested that I ought to join her club. I told her that I had once upon a time said that you were no longer and that all my interest must center in your success, Robert."

"That was splendid of you, Myra," I returned, very much elated over her enthusiasm for me. "You say I'm your interest?"

"Yes."

"Well, then your career" thinks it is good for you to become identified with those who are working for the emancipation of women."

"I read this off with a large degree of magnanimity, and its effect was immediately apparent in Myra, although not in the way I expected. Under the rays of the street lights I saw her face brighten mischievously, as she said:

"I am glad you feel that way about it, because I had intended to join the club anyway. Alma suggested that I might mention the subject to you, but I was to be guided by my own wishes. And, therefore, as an act of courtesy, Robert, I've told you about it."

"So," I exclaimed. "That's the drift, is it? I supposed my permission might be necessary."

"Why should it? Have you not just admitted that we women are your equals? That being the case, haven't we as much right to do as we please in such matters as you have?"

"I concede that, but don't I always consult you with reference to important affairs?"

"Yes—sometimes. And then you go off and do whatever you yourself think best."

"Now, Myra, that isn't true."

"Yes, it is, Robert, and you know it."

"I don't know any such a blamed thing," I spluttered.

"I say you do, and I can name a dozen

SCHUETTE TO DISCUSS WAR.

Correspondent Will Give Talk on National Press Club Roof.

Oswald F. Schuette, war correspondent in Germany for the Chicago Daily News, has accepted an invitation from the National Press Club to discuss the war situation tonight on the Press Club roof. Club members and their friends are invited to attend. The rule admitting women to the roof will prevail.

Mr. Schuette, though an American by birth, speaks German fluently. This has been of great assistance to him in his work in the war. During the last few months he has been to the front five times. He leaves Washington Thursday night for New York, whence he will sail Saturday for Rotterdam en route to Berlin.

The talk will start promptly at 8 o'clock, and members may register their guests at the door.

RUSSIAN PAPERS PESSIMISTIC.

Battle Between Vistula and Bug Decisive, Germans Think.

Berlin, July 20 (wireless via Saville).—The semi-official Trans-Oceanic News Service sends out the following:

"The military critics of all the papers point out that the battle raging between the Bug and the Vistula is of decisive importance. Doubtless the Russians will tenaciously resist the onslaught, throwing forward their best troops. The St. Petersburg and Moscow imperial household troops have been held back until now."

"Meanwhile Russian papers like the 'Kozh' and 'Novoye Vremya' of St. Petersburg and the 'Golos Moskvy' of Moscow are already beginning to get pessimistic. Their hints of Russian defeat are hardly veiled."

Family Burns; "Firebug" Suspected

Chelsea, Mass., July 20.—Six persons, a man, a woman and four young girls, lost their lives by suffocation in a fire in Chelsea early today. There were indications that the fire was incendiary and the Police Department has started a vigorous investigation.

Canned Goods Rates Suspended.

The Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday suspended until November proposed reductions in rates on canned goods from Pacific Coast terminals to various Eastern destinations over trans-continental railroads. The proposed rate cuts would reduce the rates East to intermediate points.

NATIONAL LIFE DEFERS SALES

No More Stock to Be Sold Until Affairs Have Been Adjusted.

ACCOUNTS EXAMINED

Committee of Stockholders Considers Report by Supt. Charles F. Nesbit.

The National Capital Life Insurance Company, whose methods are now under criticism, will sell no more stock until its affairs have been understood and its plans for the future have received the indorsement of Charles F. Nesbit, District superintendent of insurance.

The sale of stock was discontinued June 19 by order of the board of directors of the company, following the announcement by Mr. Nesbit of his disapproval of the method of the corporation. The stock sales which Mr. Nesbit objected to were made during April 23, the date of the reorganization of the company, and June 13.

Mr. Nesbit holds that all these contracts were unfair, and that they should be canceled, if so desired, by the subscribers. Several stockholders have asked permission to withdraw their stock, but have been denied the privilege by officers of the corporation. Some of the board of directors of the company at the time of signing the stock contracts, but that they have not yet been appointed.

W. R. & E. CO. TAKES BOND CASE TO COURT

Asks that Public Utilities Commission Be Compelled to Authorize Issue of $341,000.

Alleging it is being discriminated against by the Public Utilities Commission, the Washington Railway and Electric Company yesterday applied to the District Supreme Court to compel the commission to authorize a bond issue of $341,000. Through Attorney S. R. Owen and John S. Harbour, the company asserts that the Public Utilities Commission refused to permit a bond issue that was necessary to cover certain improvements ordered by the commission.

The company asserts that its charter gives it the right to issue bonds to any amount not in excess of the amount to be spent for the improvements, and it questions the discretionary power of the commission to interfere with that right. The bill states that the reason given by the commission for refusing the issue was that it had not completed a valuation of the company's property. They point out, however, that the commission has no means of knowing when, if ever, the valuation will be completed.

The question of the present capitalization of the company could not be considered in this case, says the company, because all of its outstanding stocks and bonds were issued and applied under act of Congress June 19, 1910, before the creation of the Public Utilities Commission. The company contends that the commission cannot lawfully affect or disturb the existing capitalization fixed with the sanction of Congress.

GERMANY FAR FROM GOAL, SAYS TEUTON

Professor of Munich Asserts Final Victory Is Not Yet in Sight.

By G. R. STEWARD.

Rotterdam, July 20.—Despite official edicts that no one must discuss the probable outcome of the war, Dr. Skagnum, professor of German history at the University of Munich, yesterday, in a member of the chamber of deputies, writing in the Berlin Vossische Zeitung, says:

"Every sensible person must admit that there can be no question at this moment as to the end of this fearful struggle, and these in authority should speak a strong word on this subject. They are still very far from the attainment of our hopes, which must be realized before we can begin to discuss the terms of peace. Our splendid victories have gained victories in all the theaters of war, but gigantic tasks still lie before us. Germany looks forward with confidence to the future, but the victory that brings the end in sight has not yet been obtained."

"A couple of aristocrats make unqualified attacks on our imperial chancellor, but he does not seem to be sharply enough in German interests toward neutral people, while some pacifist elements, for the sake of peace, ask the enemy if he will graciously enter into negotiations. Consequently, there is considerable opinion on one end of the countenance to the other."

"If we wish to be strong to the end, there must be an end to all of this talk. Those who seem to regard the war as a sport to be played for the sake of the skin of the bear before it is shot had better hold their tongues."

The reference to the "couple of aristocrats" is directed to Admiral von Tirpitz and Count von Reventlow.

BECKER DESCRIBES NIGHT OF MURDER

uteness of his movements on the night of the murder, but he makes no reference, even to Benning. The entire statement by Becker contains, oddly enough, no direct contradiction of the testimony produced at the two trials.

Becker in his statement accounts for his movements on the night of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, July 15, 1912, as follows:

5 p. m.—Met reporters in office of John Hart, his lawyer, 60 Broadway, and discussed Rosenthal's affidavit.

7 p. m.—Rode with Hart and Jack Sullivan to Hart's home, 88 West 121st street, and rode around the city.

11 p. m.—Fights over. Went to Prince George Hotel for supper with existing newspaper to return newspaper clipping.

2:30 a. m.—Arrived home and received telephone message from Fred Hawley, a reporter, that Rosenthal had been murdered.

3:30 a. m.—Arrived at Times Square where he met Hawley. Went to Metropolitan Hotel, which was closed and proceeded to the West 47th street station, where he saw Deputy Commissioner Dougherty, Inspector Hughes and a man he thinks was Libbey. Talked to a group of reporters at the station.

4 a. m.—Talked to Lieut. von Deszelski, entered upon the blotter, viewed body of Rosenthal.

5:30 a. m.—Saw District Attorney Walker and John Reiser (John Barber) leave the police station, breakfasted with Hawley near Eighth street and Forty-seventh street.

7:30 a. m.—Went West Forty-seventh street station and there met Lieut. Dan Kerr, Ed O'Brien and Frank Flynn, detectives.

TO TAKE MOONLIGHT HIKE.

Wanderlusts Will Walk Out Beyond Kenilworth Lily Ponds.

Washington's wanderlusts are to take a moonlight walk tonight. They are to assemble at the Benning race track and hike out past the lily ponds at Kenilworth. W. Palmer Hall will be the leader.

The Sunday afternoon walks in the future will commence later than in the past, and the hike will be made at the intense heat of the early afternoon. The hike Sunday will start at 4:30 o'clock, according to announcement made by W. W. Paige, of the Department of Agriculture.

MINE WINS FOR BRITISH.

French Tells How Troops Took 150 Yards of Ditch.

London, July 20.—The press bureau tonight issued the following report from Field Marshal Sir John French:

"On Monday evening after successfully exploding a mine just west of the Chateau Hooge, east of Ypres, our troops occupied about 150 yards of the enemy's trenches. The gain has since been consolidated. We captured fifteen prisoners, including two officers. Two machine guns also were captured. Two other German machine guns were destroyed by the explosion of the mine."

"Whereas the front there is nothing to report."

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL, who will be invited to join the Advisory Board of the Navy.

BELL MAY SERVE ON NAVAL BOARD

Washington Man and Orville Wright Assured of Membership.

SELECTIONS BY DANIELS

Body Will Not Be Confined to Inventors Named by Scientific Societies.

"It became known yesterday that Alexander Graham Bell, Orville Wright and others who have distinguished themselves in various fields of science, are assured of membership on the Navy Advisory Board of Inventions and Development if they should fall of nomination by the scientific bodies that Secretary Daniels has invited to make up the personnel of the board.

An informal announcement to this effect was made by Secretary Daniels as a result of a suggestion that he address strictly to the selections of scientific bodies, some of the men he is most anxious to have serve the department on the board, might fail to be chosen for membership. Secretary Daniels made it plain that the Advisory Board would include such men as Mr. Bell and Mr. Wright, even if they were not named by the scientific bodies of which they are members.

Will Be Large Body.

It is apparent that the Advisory Board will be a much larger body than was originally contemplated. When the Secretary of the Navy originally announced his purpose to assemble such a board, he stated that it would be made up of ten members, five to be chosen by the Secretary of the Navy and five by the heads of eight scientific societies. It is now known that the board will be composed of a much larger number, the addition of Thomas A. Edison, who will be chairman, and in all probability a number of others representing various scientific societies.

Fear is expressed by some naval officials that a good deal of difficulty may attend the task of choosing members for the board, which will be chosen from the nominations made by the various scientific societies should arise antagonisms in these organizations. In this event, it is thought that the board will be made up of a number of representatives of the scientific societies.

SUICIDE'S BODY FOUND HANGING FROM BEAM

John H. Hinrichs, Who Had Been Missing Ten Days, Let Note to Wife.

John H. Hinrichs, 54, painter and contractor, who had disappeared from his boarding house at 206 G street north-west, was found yesterday hanging from a beam in the loft of his storehouse, in rear of 1523 I street northwest, hanging from a cord suspended from a beam. The body was found by a neighbor, who called the police and the fire department. Mr. Hinrichs returned yesterday from a two weeks' visit with relatives in New York and was told of her husband's disappearance. She called the police and in company with Frederick Hinrichs, an attorney, and Central Office Detective Warren, went to the warehouse.

On a desk there they found a note, reading:

"Dear Bessie: Just a line to you. Babe, good-bye, if things work as I plan. Love, John H. Hinrichs."

Detective Warren searched the building and found the body. It is supposed by the police Hinrichs hanged himself a week or two ago. He was not at work and falling health are believed to have been the reasons for the suicide.

CHAPEL NEARLY COMPLETED.

Services Will Be Held Shortly in Building at Bradbury Heights.

Anacostia, D. C., July 20.—The new chapel of the Anacostia Council, No. 16, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, met last night, when design work was accomplished. L. D. Donaldson, counselor, presided and outlined an active campaign for increasing the membership during the next six months.

Work on Faith Chapel, which is being erected on the Bowen road, at Bradbury Heights, is progressing rapidly. Work expected services will be held there very soon. It is being built under the direction of Rev. G. Leroy White, pastor of the Anacostia Baptist Church, and a committee of prominent churchmen. It will be the first and only church in the Anacostia and vicinity. The Anacostia and Vicinity Ministers' Association, organized several months ago for the purpose of conducting joint services in various sections, is expected to become active again in a few days. It is proposed to hold another series of revival meetings such as was held a few months ago at the different churches.

TORPEDO MISSED LINER.

Passengers of Italian Boat Tell of Meeting "Sub."

Philadelphia, July 20.—Passengers who arrived today on the Italian liner Ancona stated that while the ship was near the Rock of Gibraltar it was fired upon by two submarines about 500 feet on the side toward the sea. The boat was too close to shore to permit a submarine to get between it and the shore. The Ancona soon out-distanced the submarine, which, according to the passengers, launched a torpedo at the big liner.

The officials of the company today denied that prominent Italians, who came here to buy war munitions.

Amsterdam, July 20.—According to a Belgian correspondent of the Tvd. Courant, a Belgian clergyman, Canon Vermeulen, has been arrested by the Germans and sentenced to a month's imprisonment. No details are given of the cause of the arrest.

Cardinal Mercier himself was reported to have been arrested at the time of the success of the Belgian army against Germany. The German government denied that the prelate had been arrested. Subsequently it was explained that he had merely been taken to a prison. Since that time he has been in frequent consultation with the German authorities.

SOUTH'S ATTITUDE ON COTTON TOLD WILSON

Senator Bankhead Says British Interference with Shipments Will Cause Deploable Conditions.

The attitude of the South toward British interference with cotton shipments to Germany, Austria and other nations of Europe was placed before President Wilson yesterday by Senator Bankhead, of Alabama.

Senator Bankhead declared that the South now had a surplus of 3,000,000 bales of cotton on its hands, and stated that next year's crop probably would total 12,000,000 bales. The surplus would operate to reduce the price of the staple, he stated, that conditions in the South the coming winter would be worse than they were last winter.

Although President Wilson did not give Senator Bankhead any assurance that a note will be sent to Great Britain immediately on the subject of trade interference, it is the general understanding in Washington that such a communication will issue from the State Department shortly after the German tension is relieved.

5,000 STRIKERS IN RIOT AT STANDARD OIL PLANT

Threats Made to Destroy Big Refineries at Bayonne and Six Arrests Are Made.

Bayonne, July 20.—Five thousand men quit work in the Constable Hook Refineries of the Standard Oil Company today and threatened to destroy the plant when their demands for higher wages were ignored. Serious rioting ensued and several attempts are declared to have been made to explode the huge machinery and to burn the by-product works. Six arrests were made. One hundred policemen and 30 special deputies were placed on guard tonight to prevent incendiary attacks. The water front along the Kill von Kull also was patrolled by a fleet of tugboats.

The strikers are nearly all foreigners—Polish, Slavic and Italian—and are not affiliated with labor organizations. The leaders say they will not return to work until their demands, which approximate a 10-per-cent increase, are granted. The Standard Oil officials are equally determined. They announced that the plant would remain closed for several months and still meet the requirements of the market due to the curtailment of demand caused by the European war.
