METHODIST.

Rev. J. T. Ensor, pastor of Calvary M. E. Church on Columbia road, returned to the city this week from his vacation which was spent in Maine. He will preach at the morning service of that church tomorrow and in the evening will give a sermon appropriate to Labor Sunday upon the topic "Thoughts for Labor Day."

Rev. Dr. D. H. Martin, pastor of Dumbarton Avenue M. E. Church, who spent the month of August at the home of his wife's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Harwood, Chatham Falls, Maine, N. Y., will enter upon his work again tomorrow, conducting services both in the morning and in the evening.

The annual fall rally of the Dumbarton Avenue Chapter, Epworth League, will take place on Sunday, September 26, at which time Secretary Daniels will deliver the principal address. The new president of the chapter, L. P. Houston, has called a meeting of his organization for next week when committees to arrange the rally will be appointed.

Rev. Dr. James Shera Montgomery, pastor of Metropolitan Memorial Methodist Church, will again occupy his pulpit tomorrow, having returned from his tour of chautauqua lectures during which he spoke forty-nine times.

Rev. F. J. Prettyman, chaplain of the Senate, has returned from Texas and will preach at Mount Pleasant M. E. Church South tomorrow morning and evening. On Tuesday evening the Mount Pleasant Church board will meet to consider plans for construction of the new chapel at Sixteenth and Lamont streets.

Two sermons on "Immortality" will be preached tomorrow at the First Methodist Church by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Melvin. The sermons will be illustrated by photographs of which were obtained by Rev. Mr. Melvin on a recent visit to Palestine.

In Foundry, Methodist Episcopal Church tomorrow evening, the pulpit will be occupied by Rev. J. O. Wrightson, D. D., pastor of West Baltimore M. E. Church, in Baltimore, who will preach on the theme, "The Nature and Necessity of Resurrection," and in the evening the subject will be "Peter's Restoration." The pastor, Rev. W. H. Wedderburn, will return next week and occupy the pulpit on the next Sunday, morning and evening.

Miss Mira L. Spaulding will act as organist at Mt. Vernon Place M. E. Church, South, in September while the regular organist, Fulton B. Karr, is out of the city.
