

AUSTRIANS DEFEATED NEAR GREAT MARSHES

Between Pripet Swamps and Dniester River Russians Hammer Lines of Teutons.

Petrograd, Sept. 16.—The Austro-German defeat south of the Pripet marshes and in Eastern Galicia is described by Russian military experts as a "complete rout."

All the way from the Pripet marshes, east of Brest-Litovsk, to the Dniester River, in Galicia, the Russians are hammering at the right wing of the German and Austro-Hungarian forces, and at some points the Teutonic troops are in precipitate retreat.

Terrific assaults are being launched by the Russians against the northern and southern flanks of the Teutonic right wing. Austro-Hungarian troops that advanced east of Koval are falling back before the pounding of the Russian cavalry. A number of villages have been taken by the Slav forces.

Northeast of Dubno strong positions held by the Austro-Germans have been taken at the point of the bayonet. West and southwest of the Tarnopol, Galicia, the Teutons have been headed across the Stripa River. Farther south in the region southwest of Trembowla the Russians have crossed the Stripa and are pursuing the Germans and Austro-Hungarian armies, inflicting enormous losses.

Operations in Central and Northern Poland were regarded as of secondary importance in view of the successful achievements of the Russians over the 20-mile front south of the Pripet marshes. As a result of the Russian advance in Galicia, the Red Cross station at Kiev has been moved to Makarow, thirty miles west of Kiev.

DANIELS WANTS FORD'S HELP.

Secretary Wishes to Discuss Problem of Gasoline Engines.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels wants to discuss the question of gasoline engines with Henry Ford, automobile manufacturer. He has written Mr. Ford, asking him to call on him in Washington.

The pressing need of the naval aviation service as presented in a light, powerful gasoline motor, American manufacturers have been so busy making gasoline motors for use in automobiles that they have not undertaken to any considerable extent, the development of the type of motor required for aeroplanes. Mr. Daniels hopes that Mr. Ford's experience in the development of a light gasoline engine will enable him to be of aid to the navy in solving its present problem.

He left immediately for Washington to report on the general conditions on the island. It was said that he will call on President Wilson to urge him that the United States should grant citizenship to Porto Ricans.

HEAT SPOILS OYSTERS EN ROUTE TO CAPITAL

Hot Wave Retards Opening of Season for Shell Delicacy.

September 1 is the time for opening the oyster season, but the hot wave has made the bivalves scarce. When it is hot oysters spoil while being brought up the river to Washington.

Plenty of founders are on sale at Center Market, only 12-2 cents a pound being asked. Watermelons and cantaloupes are very scarce. The few watermelons on the market are bringing 40 and 50 cents each. Rocky Ford cantaloupes are being sold for 25 cents. It is said the crop of Colorado cantaloupes this summer was but one-third the usual size.

Apples, which are commencing to come in by the barrel, oranges and grapefruit are taking the place of the watermelon and cantaloupe. The first shipment of Tokay grapes from California arrived yesterday week. Quotations given yesterday by dealers are:

District Courts

Mrs. Laura J. Farmer yesterday asked the District Supreme Court to appoint a receiver to sell an automobile which she says was bought jointly by her and her husband. Mrs. Farmer tells the court "that the relations between plaintiff and defendant have become so strained that it is impossible for plaintiff and defendant to use said car jointly."

Justice McCoy cited the husband, Henry T. Farmer, to show cause next Thursday why the car should not be sold by a receiver and his wife given her share of the proceeds. Attorney Webster Ballinger appears for the wife.

In her petition for a limited divorce from Dr. George Robert La Cole filed yesterday, Mrs. Cole alleges cruelty and inadequate support. Mrs. Cole says the defendant has an income of from $400 to $600 a month. She is represented by Attorneys R. H. and J. W. McNeil.

Justice McCoy has signed an order authorizing claims aggregating more than $50,000 against the defunct Arlington Hotel Company. The order ratifies the report of Charles W. Clazette, special auditor, filed yesterday at his home in Clarendon, Va. He held a position at Arlington Hotel for ten years ago, but resigned and came to Washington to accept a position in the Treasury Department. The body of Mr. Alfred will be sent to Atlanta this afternoon for interment.

WILSON WILL DEFINE STAND ON SUFFRAGE

Friends in New Jersey Will Learn His Views on Woman's Vote as State Issue.

President Wilson will disclose his views on woman suffrage as a State issue for the first time in a communication to his friends in New Jersey some time before the election on the suffrage issue in that State, October 12. Attention was directed by friends of the President yesterday to the fact that he had informed a delegation of suffragists last spring that he would make his views public before he visited New Jersey in October. The forthcoming pronouncement from the President has been carefully considered, for his friends realize that such political importance attaches to it. The President has been outspoken in his opposition to the agitation for a suffrage amendment to the national constitution, holding that under the fundamental system of our government the control of the suffrage is vested in the States. He never has committed himself, however, upon the merits of the cause as a State issue.

HONOR SYSTEM FOR MIDDLES.

White House Conference May Result in Its Installation.

President Wilson conferred yesterday with Secretary of the Navy Daniels and E. W. Larson, new superintendent of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, upon matters relating to the administration of the academy. It is possible that as a result of the conference the honor system may be attempted to install the honor system among the midshipmen, as a means for permanently disposing of the so-called "ignominious" period, which has resulted in scandals and a naval board investigation the past summer.
