Women's Street Hats at $10

For the smart, practical or street hat to be worn with the tailored suit we have many chic new models. According to the reports from Paris these may be either very small or along the lines of the new Georgette Sailor, of which we have many examples. The new Puritan high-crowned hats are also shown.

The close-fitting turbans are also in great demand. Hats are of velvet in black and colors, effectively trimmed, in the majority of cases with the popular feathery pompon in some variation, although a few show ribbon and velvet bow trimming. Then, too, we have Dress Hats at this price with flowers used as garnitures.

Women's Dainty Fall Neckwear In Many Pretty Styles

Almost numberless dainty effects and pretty new designs of embroidery and embroidered voiles and organdies in neckwear for fall and winter wear.

The round and rolling collars are most prominent, and the large Puritan effects find much favor; jabots of lace or lace and some soft material are again in favor, and are used in many pretty ways.

Our assortments at 25c and 50c are well worth your inspection.

At 25c each—Organdie and voile collars, in plain and embroidered styles, flat or rolled effect. Collar and cuff sets, of voile and organdie, plain hemstitched or embroidered in a number of patterns. Some are made with black and white effect, and collars alone may be had with narrow black edge. Vestees of Swiss embroidery, or plain organdie or net in many dainty styles. Crepe de chine ties and bows, in all colors, and many styles. Windsor ties in all colors.

At 50c each—Net Vestees, in several patterns in ecru and white. Pretty Lace Jabots in cream and white. A host of new collars, in rolling styles, flat styles, styles with tiny plaits in back, and large Puritan styles, an assortment in which every attractive feature of the new fashions is beautifully shown. Collar and cuff sets, large and small, and in all styles, of organdie, embroidered batiste, Georgette crepe, and voile. Oriental lace and organdie vestees, with high plaited or rolling collars. Neck ruffs, in black or white, and Windsor ties in all colors.
