

WEDDINGS

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.

The bride's aunt is a sister of Mercy, and in order that she might witness the ceremony Cardinal Gibbons gave special permission that the marriage be performed in the hospital chapel, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with chrysanthemums, lilies and roses.

The bride's gown was of white satin and lace. She wore an exquisite necklace of pearls and diamonds, the gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore a gown of rose charmeuse with garnitures of gold lace. She carried pink chrysanthemums.

The bride party entered the chapel to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. The ceremony was performed and a nuptial mass celebrated by the Rev. Peter J. O'Carroll, assisted by the Rev. Timothy Murphy. During the service an "Ave Maria" was sung by Miss Rita Hohman. The sisters and nurses were present in the chapel.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the hospital chapel, where Mr. and Mrs. Neale, amid a wealth of blossoms, received the congratulations of their friends.

Miss Ruth Peake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Peak, and Louis J. Murray of Grand Rapids, Mich., will be married on November 23 at 11 o'clock at St. Paul's Catholic Church, assisted by the Rev. Timothy Murphy. The ceremony will be attended by several bridesmaids and an informal reception will follow at their home in Wyoming avenue.

An interesting wedding took place Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Sara C. Lowrey, when her daughter, Miss K. Louise Lowrey, was married to Mr. Frederick A. Wadsworth of Concord, Mass. The ceremony, which was witnessed only by relatives and most intimate friends, was performed by the Rev. Mr. Snyder, of the Church of the Incarnation.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, wore a gown of white satin with pearl trimmings, and a long tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Lowrey was attended only by her little niece, Ethel C. Lowrey, who served as flower girl, wearing a dainty white lace and tulle frock and carrying a basket of white roses. Mr. Charles B. Lowrey, brother of the bride, served as best man. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth left for a wedding trip, the latter wearing a gown of blue broadcloth and a black velvet hat trimmed with white plumes. They will make their home at Concord, Mass.

The marriage of Miss Louise Einstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Einstein, of 1622 Harvard street northwest, and Lieut. George Kent Shuler, U. S. N., of Lyons, N. Y., took place at noon Tuesday at the residence of the Rev. C. A. Rubenstein, in Baltimore, Md. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families. The young bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a traveling suit of blue broadcloth trimmed with skunk fur. Her black silk beaver hat had skunk trimmings, and she wore a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. After a wedding breakfast Lieut. and Mrs. Shuler left for Philadelphia and Atlantic City. Upon their return they will reside at Winthrop, Md., where the bridegroom is stationed.

The marriage of Miss C. Elizabeth Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam F. H. Fox, of Philadelphia, to Mr. Frank Sumner Whitcomb, of Washington, was solemnized Monday evening.

The ceremony was performed in the Washakie Presbyterian Church by the Rev. John T. Hackett, the pastor, and the Rev. Elliott Field.

The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Lucy Fox, as maid of honor, wore a gown of white princess satin and a tulle veil trimmed with orange blossoms. The maid of honor's white satin frock was draped with nine green silk net and trimmed with touches of gold lace. Mr. Whitcomb was attended by Mr. Charles Zahn and Mr. William G. Foliock.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Whitcomb left for a trip to the White Mountains, and after January 1 will be at home at the Highview apartment.

Sister: Read My Free Offer!

I am a woman. I know a woman's trial. I know her pain, her suffering and her help. If you, my sister, are unhappy because of ill-health, if you feel unfit for household duties, social pleasures, or daily employment, write and tell me just how you suffer, and ask for my free "Sister's" trial of a new treatment suited to your needs. Mac cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women will experience, we can better than any man. I want to tell you how to cure yourself at home at a cost of about 12 cents a week. If you suffer from women's peculiar ailments causing pain in the head, back, or ovaries, feelings of weight, and dragging down sensation, falling or displacement of the uterus, causing misery and headache, weakness or constipation and piles, painful or irregular periods, catarrhal conditions and discharges, extreme nervousness, and after making several stops en route, will arrive here about November 8.

Mrs. Thomas J. Davis has returned from a visit to Ohio.

Mrs. E. S. Kennedy entertained last night at a Halloween party for her daughter, Miss Mary Kennedy.

Mrs. S. S. Robard, who has been for some time the guest of Mrs. Catherine Berry, left on Wednesday for League Island navy yard, Pennsylvania.

Miss Anna Abbott, who has been on the Pacific Coast since May, has left California, and after making several stops en route, will arrive here about November 8.

Mrs. Helen Stevenson, of Winchester,

I INVITE YOU TO SEND TODAY FOR MY FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT and learn how these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at home without the dangers and expense of an operation. When you are cured, and able to enjoy life again, you can pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain how to overcome green sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lead-steps in young women and restore them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember it costs you nothing to give my home treatment a ten days' trial, and does not interfere with daily work. If health is worth striving for, then accept my generous offer and write for the free treatment, including my illustrated booklet, "Woman's Own Medical Advice." I will send all in plain wrappers postpaid. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark your name, and return to me. Send today, as you may not use this offer again. Address:

MRS. M. SUMMERS, E. WASHINGTON AVE., SOUTH GARD, IND.
