Christmas Cards--Christmas Seals--Christmas Calendars

The Christmas things are arriving, and soon there will be such displays and so much to purchase, and so many selections to make, that in the rush and bustle of the Christmas season there will quite likely be some things which are overlooked or left to the last moment and then selected hurriedly. And no one likes to make selections in a hurry—especially Christmas selections—because very often it means dissatisfaction with the article purchased.

Just now, before the Christmas shopping and crowds have begun to hurry you, is the time to obtain your cards and seals and tags for Christmas bundles. And another advantage—it means making your selections while the assortments are complete, and thus procuring the prettiest designs, for of course it is always these which are chosen first.

We believe our displays are unsurpassed, and the wealth of dainty designs and pictures here allows choice of almost any style preferred.

CHRISTMAS POSTCARDS entirely fill one table, with new designs and the old Christmas and New Year Greetings, 12c and 25c dozen.

CALENDARS, more beautiful and varied than any of our previous showings; many new styles which it will be well to see.

Calendars with pictures from the works of well-known authors—Dickens, Shakespeare, Whittier, Longfellow and Van Dyke—or with quotations from the works of authors. They are in several styles, all of them very attractive.

Prices, 35c and 50c each.
