For upwards of 25 years we have held a January Linen Sale and in all that time it has been noted for its splendid qualities and its splendid savings. It is so again this year.

Not only do we offer fine Table Linens in the greatest abundance, at a time when Linens are actually becoming scarce, but we also offer Bed Linens, Bed Muslins, Bed Blankets, Spreads and Comforters and White Goods and Towels—on all of which the purchaser will realize a most worthy saving in comparison with present values.

There is not a single item of Linens that is not priced at about the present prices we would have to pay at wholesale, were we to buy the goods now.

And many of the items are less. And such domestic items as Bedding, Turkish Towels, etc., are very specially priced and the savings are even larger. It is a most important event.

When we want handsome and beautiful Table Linens of a practical and substantial quality we always look to Flanders and Ireland to produce them. The product of both countries is remarkably fine.

Lately we have received a large importation of Flemish Linens, and the prices are exceedingly low, judged by present market conditions. These Linens were purchased many months ago, and have been held in the custom houses of Holland due to the exigencies of war. A recent ship brought them to us, and you will find

Table Cloths and Napkins to match.
