

"WAR ON WASTE" CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Committees from Merchants and Housekeepers Holds Its Initial Session.

PROGRAM MAPPED OUT

Exhibit Will Be Shown First Week in May—Buttons Bearing Slogan Being Distributed.

"Make every dollar tell; cut out the waste in home, and in shop," is the slogan of the joint committee of the Retail Merchants' Association and Housekeepers' Alliance in the "War on Waste" campaign.

The determined efforts of the committees to awaken public interest in the campaign will culminate in an exhibition during the week beginning May 1, according to a program mapped out yesterday at a meeting of the joint committee in the headquarters of the Retail Merchants' Association.

Indicative of the interest shown, every member of the two committees was accounted for when the meeting was called to order. Those of the Retail Merchants' Association who were not present telephoned, as did the committee of the Housekeepers' Alliance.

John L. Newbold, chairman of the merchants committee, opened the meeting with an explanation of the campaign's purposes and then invited Mrs. Flora McDonald Thompson, president of the alliance and chairman of its committee, to take the chair.

Distributing Buttons. The joint committee agreed upon daily meetings in connection with the exhibit. In addition to appliances, charts and other paraphernalia in connection with the campaign against waste, there also will be an exhibit of the departments of Agriculture and Commerce.

Charles J. Columbus, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, acted as secretary of the meeting. The committee is now distributing buttons bearing the words, "Housekeepers' Alliance; War on Waste." Banners bearing the slogan of the committee, "Make Every Dollar Tell; Cut Out the Waste in Home, and in Shop," have been painted and will be placed on vehicles wherever possible.

The committee representing the alliance consists of Mrs. Thompson, chairman, and Mrs. Henry T. Rainey, Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, Miss Kibby, Mrs. Charles P. Neill, Mrs. P. R. Biggs, Mrs. Theodore L. Cole, Mrs. R. T. West, Mrs. Appleton J. Clark, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. S. L. Ransome, Mrs. Richard Wainwright, Miss Georgia Robinson, Mrs. Blich, Mrs. W. A. Lewis, W. Austin, Miss Ellen A. Rugg, Mrs. Whitman Cross, Mrs. Paul B. Dunbar, Mrs. R. W. La Follette, Mrs. George E. Fleming, Miss Lucy Madrine, Mrs. George O. Smith, Mrs. T. W. Sidwell, Mrs. Wendell P. Stanford, Mrs. John Van Schalk, Jr., and Mrs. W. C. Woodward.

Members representing the merchants are: John L. Newbold, chairman; Lester Lansburgh, A. Lisner, Sigmond Kann, Mrs. M. Brooks, Anton Stephan, Franklin Killian, Mrs. E. H. Hill, Mrs. Jennie Kalka, S. M. Avery, Julius Garfinkle, Guy H. Tolman, Z. D. Blackstone, Isaac Gens, Mark Dobrin, Edwin Hahn, Gustav Erlebacher, P. T. Hall, and J. M. Bird.

Executive, as Gladiator in Show Window, Taken Into Court by Corporation Attorney's Office. Attracted by a constant crowd in front of a boot shop in Pennsylvania avenue, a policeman of the First Precinct shouldered his way in and saw a cartoon depicting a gladiator in the window. He thought it was a violation of the police regulation prohibiting the exhibition of pictures of crime, but hid himself to the District Building and laid the case before Assistant Corporation Counsel Taggart.

Mr. Taggart thought so too, but determined to have an expert opinion upon the matter, so issued a warrant summoning Charles W. Thurston, manager of Moon's Beacon Boot Shop, 915 Pennsylvania avenue in which the cartoon was displayed, to the Police Court.

CHARGED WITH GAMBLING. Seven Alleged Handbook Men Indicted—Other True Bills. Seven alleged handbook men were indicted yesterday by the grand jury for conspiring in connection with horse races. The men charged are Albin Straus, Ezra P. Collins, Walter Darling, Albert Johnson, colored, James McKee, Ray J. Reed, and Samuel Sondheimer. The jury ignored a similar charge against William Wallace Fosbender.

Others indicted are: Harry Green, Robert E. Bell, Charles H. May, Grace Simms, Isaac Lee, and Robert Johnson, assaults with dangerous weapons; Lyle N. Gills, embezzlement; Charles B. Terry, non-support of minor child; Arthur Davis and John Bradford, deprivation on private property; Frank Smith, grand larceny; Joseph Nebbett, second offense petit larceny; Charles Morris and Luther Pickett, housebreaking; James Carter, George Thomas and Clarence Chinn, housebreaking and larceny; Beverly Walker, Preston Medley, Walter Pickett and John Pickett, housebreaking and larceny; Walter Pickett, grand larceny; Artie Payne, robbery; Frank Smith, Lacey Darcy and William Evans, housebreaking and larceny; Charles W. Hendon, on violating postal laws; Cornelius C. Wells and William Lumpkins, non-support of wife and child; Mary Anderson, housebreaking and larceny, and William Evans, three cases housebreaking.

Conspiracy Case Postponed. The recent illness of H. Robert Fowler caused the postponement of the hearing by Justice Gould, of the District Supreme Court, until next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock of the application for a writ of habeas corpus to prevent the removal to the State of New York of Mr. Fowler, former representative from New York, and Henry B. Martin, to answer to an indictment charging conspiracy in connection with the strikes and walkouts in munition factories of this country. The court postponed indefinitely the case of Herman J. Schulteis, indicted in connection with these men because of his present illness.

House Subcommittee Will Incorporate Provision in Annual District Appropriations Measure. In the absence of action by the House District Committee, the subcommittee on District appropriations of the House Appropriations Committee has decided to incorporate in the annual District bill a provision for repeal of the half-and-half feature of the act of 1878. The bill is now being completed by Chairman Lusk and his colleagues, and may be reported to the House next week. The repeal provision requires that the full available revenue from District taxation by expense before money necessary to carry out the authorizations in the bill be appropriated from the Treasury. No attempt is made to apply an inheritance tax, as suggested in the report of the fiscal committee. A bill providing for the establishment in the District of a laboratory for the study of the criminal and pauper classes was introduced by Representative Lobeck, a member of the District Committee, yesterday. CONFEDERATES TO MEET. Camp 171 of Veterans Will Be Hosts at Gathering Tuesday. Camp 171, United Confederate Veterans, will have for its guests at its social meeting to be held in Confederate Memorial Hall, 122 Vermont avenue northwest, at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, the North Carolina Society, the Southern Relief Society, the seven chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and Washington Camp, No. 368, Sons of Confederate Veterans. The meeting will be addressed by Representative Charles M. Stedman, of the Fifth North Carolina District, his subject being the part North Carolina took in the war between the States.
