Germany Throws Out Peace "Feeler" to World, Is Report

Kaiser's Chancellor Said to Have Asked Gerard to Remain at Post and Suggested Terms for Ending War by Restoring Status Quo.

Special to The Washington Herald. New York, March 21.—The Evening Post publishes the following from David Lawrence, its correspondent in Washington:

Washington, March 21.—Germany is seeking to make peace with her enemies and bring the great war in Europe to an early end.

The imperial government has gone so far as to intimate to the United States government that the time may be ripe for the services of the largest neutral nation in the beginning of peace negotiations.

Some general idea even of the terms under which the Teutonic empire would be willing to make peace have been given within the last four days to the American Ambassador, James W. Gerard, by Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the imperial chancellor at Berlin and spokesman of Emperor William.

State Department Denies U. S. Aid Was Sought in Peace Move

The State Department yesterday made a flat categorical denial of the story which hinted that Germany sought the aid of the United States in launching peace proposals.

"First—That Germany has not intimated to the United States that the time is ripe for peace negotiations, nor suggested that this is the opportune time for the United States to renew its friendly offices.

"Second—That the United States has not been informed that Ambassador Gerard at Berlin was requested to postpone his vacation because of pending peace negotiations.

CAVALRY LEAVES FORT MYER FOR MEXICAN FRONT

Fifth Regiment Under Col. Wilder Ordered to Move Last Evening.

REASON IS KEPT SECRET

Other Squadrons From West and Twenty-fourth Infantry Are En Route.

GEN. FUNSTON MAY BE UNEASY

Troopers Rounded Up in Theaters of Washington and Are Ready to Go by Midnight.

By JOSEPH P. ANNIN. Moving in three sections, the third squadron and regimental headquarters of the Fifth Cavalry are pulling out of Rosslyn, Va., this morning, bound for Columbus, N. Mex., and possibly the interior.

Along with the Twenty-fourth Infantry, stationed in Wyoming, the Fifth was ordered out at the request of Gen. Pershing, in command of the expeditionary forces.

At 8 o'clock last night, bound for the theaters, movie houses and other bright lights of the city, troopers of the Fifth were still pouring across the Aqueduct Bridge at Georgetown, pleasure bent and without a thought of Mexico.

At 8 o'clock last night, bound for the theaters, movie houses and other bright lights of the city, troopers of the Fifth were still pouring across the Aqueduct Bridge at Georgetown, pleasure bent and without a thought of Mexico.

Secrecy Surrounds Cause

At midnight, the last of the odd jobs incidental to the movement of a regiment had been wound up and troopers had turned in to get what sleep they could before 4 o'clock reveille.

SPRING WAKES RUSSIAN BEAR

Czar's Troops Take Austrian Stronghold on Dniester; Garrison Escapes.

GERMANS ALSO ADMIT LOSSES NEAR DVINSK

Large Troop Concentrations Reported in Poland Preparatory to Launching General Campaign.

Special Cable to The Washington Herald. London, March 21.—Powerful attacks, carried out with great forces of men, have given the Russians possession of the bulwark position of the Austrians northeast of Czernowitz, the bridgehead of the Dniester at Mikhalatche.

The capture of this important fortification, the first result of the Russian offensive in the south, is announced simultaneously with a Berlin admission that the German salient south of Lake Narocz, in the Dvinsk region, has been driven in by the Russians.

On both the northern and southern wings the Russians are reported employing huge masses of men in their attacks, while further large concentrations are semi-officially said to be under way in southern Poland.

PRELUDE TO GENERAL OFFENSIVE

That the Russian preparations herald a general offensive from the Baltic to Bukovina with the coming of spring is the opinion of high military men here.

The loss of the Mikhalatche bridgehead was admitted in an official statement from Vienna today. The position had been held by the Austrians for months under the greatest difficulties.

When he saw that the position could be held no longer, the Austrian commander, Col. Pfanckh, endeavored to retire by means of transports on the Dniester. These were taken under the Russian fire and some, containing wounded, were sunk.
