Miss Addam's Niece to Wed

The engagement has been announced of Miss Anna Marvot Haldeman, of Chicago, to Mr. Emanuel Julius, a socialist writer on the Appeal to Reason, published at Grand, Kans.

Miss Haldeman is a niece of Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House. She also is the daughter of wealthy parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Addam, of Grand, where she lives. She was graduated from Bryn Mawr, played the ingenue role in "Excuse Me" and is a member of several stock companies. She is the daughter of wealthy parents, both dead. Her mother, when Mr. Haldeman died several years ago, became the first woman bank president in the West. When Mrs. Haldeman died the daughter stepped immediately into the active management of the institution.

At a recent convention of Kansas bankers she delivered an address on the functions of the country bank and the need for more stringent regulations. Her speech made financial veterans sit up and take notice.

Miss Addams announced the engagement. The wedding will be early next month.

Army and Navy Notes.

Col. and Mrs. V. A. F. Flagler entertained at dinner at the Army and Navy Club in honor of Gen. William M. Black. Their other guests were Col. and Mrs. W. W. Harts and their house guest, Mrs. Patricia Z. Col. and Mrs. Edward L. Munson, Col. and Mrs. Graham D. Fitch, Maj. and Mrs. William P. Wooten, Maj. and Mrs. James A. Shipton and Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. T. Lowndes.

Mr. A. Livingston Mason, of Newport, R. I., has announced the engagement of his daughter, Miss Marguerite Schuyler Mason, to Lieut. Robert Taylor Merrill, U. S. N. Miss Mason is a member of one of the most prominent families in Rhode Island. Lieut. Merrill is at present in command of the Tonopah, which is used as a tender to the submarine flotilla. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Spencer Merrill, of Peacedale, R. I. No date has been fixed for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tully Vaughan were hosts at dinner Wednesday evening at the Army and Navy Club in honor of some of their friends among the visiting surgeons of the American Surgical Association. Among the guests were Dr. Albert Vanderbeer, president of the American Medical Association; Dr. and Mrs. Hampton, Dr. W. W. Iken and Dr. J. B. Roberts, of Philadelphia, Dr. George E. Armstrong and the Misses Armstrong, Dr. Francis Shepherd and Miss Shepherd, of Montreal, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Lillenthal, of New York; Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Oliver and Dr. Oliver's mother, of Cincinnati; Dr. and Mrs. August Jones, of Omaha, and Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Bennie, of Kansas City.

Col. and Mrs. Richmond P. Davis were hosts at dinner recently at the Army and Navy Club, having as their guests Gen. and Mrs. McLean, Admiral and Mrs. Frederic R. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Hampton (Gary, Md.) and Mrs. William D. Connor, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. McConihe, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wells, Mr. J. E. Lefevre, Baron Costelli, Mr. Edward Plather and Mr. Charles Richardson.

In another party dining at the Army and Navy Club Thursday evening were Col. and Mrs. Rufus H. Lane, Col. and Mrs. Dion Williams, Maj. C. F. Hill,

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Many Easter brides and bridegrooms have hit the "Honeymoon Trail" that leads to White Sulphur than which there is no more charming place in which to spend a honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Bolton, of Baltimore, have been among the notable honeymooners here this spring. Another most attractive Southern bride is Mrs. Antonio Lazio, of New York, who was Miss Constance Stearns, of Augusta, Ga.

Mr. H. N. Landon and Mr. S. F. Whitmarsh, of Baltimore, have been at the Greenbrier this week.

An important coal conference here by coal owners and operators on Saturday evening will be followed by a banquet and several Baltimore and Washington business men are expected to be present. Mr. Francis B. James has arrived at the Greenbrier from Washington and

ALEXANDRIA.

The Junior German Club gave its annual May ball on Friday night in the auditorium of the Elks' Home. A large number of children participated, all of whom were dressed in fancy costumes. will spend some time here, enjoying the riding and golf. Mr. V. B. Edwards and Miss V. Edwards have come from Washington to spend a few weeks at the Greenbrier where, as usual, Col. and Mrs. William C. Wheatley, of Washington, will come during the summer season to occupy their cottage. Dr. Walter A. Weeks, of Washington, spent several days at the Greenbrier last week, attending an important conference of noted physicians and specialists at the annual meeting of the American J. R. & O. Society on May 5 and 6. Over 175 physicians from all over the United States and Canada were in attendance and it was voted the best attended and most important meeting the society had enjoyed during its twenty-two years of existence at the annual banquet in the Elizabethan room of the Greenbrier on Friday evening. Mr. William Pitt Crasson, of Washington, who spent last week in New York, has returned here to make a stay of some length in the hope that he may completely regain his health, much impaired after a tour of foreign military prisons.
