The Rev. F. Ward Denny officiated, and only a small company of intimate friends and relatives were present.

Miss Maria Dimpfel, of Baltimore, was the only attendant. She was gowned in silver lace with a draped overskirt, blue and pink flowered taffeta, and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

Lieut. Layson E. Adkins, U. S. A., acted as best man. Both the best man and the bridegroom wore full dress uniforms.

At the reception, which followed the ceremony, the guests were received by Mrs. Harrison and the bride's mother, Mrs. Agatha McShane, of Baltimore.

A small reception followed at the library in Chevy Chase, where the mantels were banked with daisies and other white flowers, combined with ferns. Mrs. Durant was assisted in receiving the guests by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. O. K. Burton, of Champaign, Ill.

Mrs. Durant's costume was of black net over black satin, with a tunic of silver embroidered net and a hat of black mohair braid and tulle, trimmed with orange blossoms. She wore a bouquet of orchids and roses.

TODAY'S AID TO BEAUTY. An especially fine shampoo for this weather, one that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt, can easily be made at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water. Pour slowly on scalp and massage briskly. This creates a soothing, cooling lather. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is after a canthrox shampoo arranging the hair is a pleasure.—Adv.
