City Pays Tribute Today to Father; Red Rose for Living, White for Dead

Today is "Father's Day." Mother was honored several weeks ago in the churches by the wearing of a carnation, and today in sermon and by floral decoration father will be remembered. Not that father demands honor—in fact, he is inclined to dodge such ceremonies and stay at home. "Father's Day" was suggested and first celebrated by a mother, Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, of Spokane, Wash. In 1910 the Y. M. C. A. adopted her suggestion, and since then each year a Sunday in June has been set aside for father.

DECISION WILL FREE MANY DRUG ADDICTS

More than a score of drug addicts, imprisoned for violation of the Harrison anti-narcotic law and the internal revenue laws, will be released as the result of two recent decisions of Federal courts upholding certain provisions of these statutes.

The Circuit Court of Appeals for the Chicago Circuit recently held that persons could not properly be imprisoned for making or having in possession smoking opium which had not paid the Federal tax because the internal revenue division had failed to place stamps on sale and promulgate regulations, thus making it practically impossible to obey the law.

The Supreme Court of the United States only a few days ago held that the Harrison anti-narcotic law's provisions requiring the registry of persons having in possession habit-forming drugs, applies only to dealers and not to users of drugs.

G. W. U. TO OPEN SUMMER SCHOOL

Arts and Sciences Department Alone to Have Registration of 200 Students.

The George Washington University Summer School will open its first session on June 28, and continue until August 5. Courses will be offered by the arts and sciences department, the Law School, the Medical School, and, if registration justifies it, also the Veterinary and Dental colleges.

Dr. William Carl Ruediger, dean of Teachers' College and director of the summer school, said last night that registration in the arts and sciences department alone will be in the neighborhood of 200 students. This is a larger number than was anticipated when the movement was started. Registration will commence tomorrow at 2023 G street northwest. Classes will be held five days a week, Saturdays and Sundays being holidays. Both morning and late afternoon courses have been arranged. Local business men are greatly interested in the project.

MARINES ESTABLISH NEW TRAVEL RECORD

Pekin, May 18.—The record for trans-Pacific travel from San Francisco to Pekin by the southern route was lowered when Corporal John Alexander and fourteen privates of the United States Marine Corps sailed today with the American legation guard of marines, after having been thirty-four days en route from San Francisco. The best previous record was thirty-five days and nine hours.

The party of marines left San Francisco via an army transport, and at Guam, Marianna islands, transhipped to the U. S. S. Brooklyn, which brought them directly to Shanghai. They came from Shanghai to Pekin by rail.

HAYWARD MAY BE HUGHES' MANAGER

Public Service Commissioner of New York Said to Be Under Consideration.

Charles E. Hughes yesterday decided definitely upon the man who will manage his campaign for the Presidency.

Identification of the name of the candidate will be made probably tomorrow, immediately after the conference between the Republican candidate and the subcommittee.

It will not be Frank Hitchcock, that much is known. The understanding is that Mr. Hughes having been compelled to repudiate Hitchcock during the sessions of the convention at Chicago, feels that to make him national chairman now might lead to embarrassments. Moreover, a younger man, and one not so prominently identified with the old management of the party, is to be desired.

On the heels of the news that a national chairman had been selected, there was a revival of the story that Col. William Hayward, Public Service Commissioner of New York, would be the chosen one. Hayward is a close friend of Gov. Whitman, of New York, now Mr. Hughes' closest political ally. They had a long and what Mr. Hughes described as a "satisfactory" conference in New York on Friday.

Hayward was the manager of Whitman's gubernatorial campaign two years ago. And, too, if Mr. Hitchcock is to be placated at all, it may be borne in mind that Hayward and Mr. Hitchcock are close friends—the former having acted as Hitchcock's assistant in the Taft campaign of 1908.

"Ras," Valuable Police Dog, Back Home With Some Alibi

"Ras," the German police dog, worth $2,000, who mysteriously vanished Friday morning, slept last night, safe and sound, in the apartments of his owner, Senor Don Ignacio Leon, secretary of the Chilean Legation, at the Portland.

"Ras" has explained his absence of twenty-four hours to Senor Leon and has been naturalized in France when he was taken here by his first owner, the infant princess of Spain, who wanted him to pose with her for a portrait. Naturally, "Ras" is all broken up by the war, with his canine relatives in the German lines and his boyhood friends in the French lines being mentioned in the casualty lists.

His eagerness for information about peace has been excused. When "Ras" vanished Friday morning he called a conference of dogs of various nationalities to be held in Dupont Circle. This conference was in progress yesterday morning when Mrs. M. R. Blumenberg, of the Highlands, was passing in her auto. Mrs. Blumenberg did not see the conference in session, but she saw it breaking up. It was broken up by a gay young Scotch terrier who "bait" when "Ras" was in serious conversation with an Irish terrier, a French poodle, a Russian wolfhound, an English bull terrier, all talking peace? The intruder so answered the conferees that they dropped their talk and started chasing the fresh young Scotch terrier.

She took to her heels and fled, being chased by the Scotch terrier. Just then, Mrs. Blumenberg's auto entered the Circle and the Scotch terrier, seeing before the machine, was able to escape. Mrs. Blumenberg stopped her car to look at "Ras." She recognized him as a thoroughbred at once. "Ras" came to get home, quickly made friends and was allowed to enter Mrs. Blumenberg's machine.

Mrs. Blumenberg, who is a director of the Animal Rescue League, notified the league's secretary, Mrs. Frank Smith, of 282 Fifteenth street, who in turn notified Police Inspector Gesford. The police soon located Senor Leon and "Ras" was taken home. "Ras" declined to talk for publication last night, but his evident disapproval was interpreted by The Washington Herald reporter as convincing that there is little hope for a speedy end of the war.
