The Importance of Skin Care in the Springtime

Infectious skin diseases are irritating, unpleasant, unsightly and dangerous. There never was a greater mistake made than trying to cure such disorders with pastes, lotions or creams, rubbed on the outside. You can't cure skin diseases that way, because they are the direct result of infected blood, and you can't rub or soak poisons out of the blood.

Indian Embargo Lifted.

New York, July 17.—Arthur B. Selby, a civil engineer, who arrived here from Calcutta by way of San Francisco on his way to London, said there would be no difficulty for Americans to visit India in the fall as the government has removed the embargo on permitting aliens to visit the interior cities.

Send Greetings to Militia.

At a meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's, at Mount Rainier last night, a resolution was adopted ordering the secretary to secure the names of all members of the brotherhood in the District militia and extend to them the greeting and well wishes of the society. President Frank Birgefeldt presided.

One of the veteran delegates is Forest L. May, postmaster at Dayton, Ohio.

Most of the postmasters found their hearts welcome in the news that they probably would be given official homes. The House bill providing new postoffices was reported yesterday and was the subject of even closer scrutiny than the home newspapers.

Postmaster G. A. Huffman, of Des Moines, challenges the claim that there is any postoffice in the United States which sells more stamps per capita than does his little "shabbeen."

Naturally, each postmaster is the original booster for his "burg," and in this connection must be accepted the statements of Postmaster C. F. Cook that Austin, Minn., not only has the finest pork and ham packing establishment, but that in their general postmaster they have the "largest, noisiest and handsomest baby" that ever visited the Cook household.

Among the arrivals yesterday were Mrs. E. Watkins and Mrs. Des Rich-
