CAPTAINS DEFEATED BY VICE CAPTAINS

Sons of St. George Fail to Appear and Interclub Match Proves Interesting.

Baltimore Sons of St. George failing to appear on the scene at the Potomac Park cricket grounds, Captain Jimmy Linnon, in order not to disappoint the large crowd present, arranged a club match that proved a splendid afternoon's exemplification of the ancient game of cricket.

The two teams, drawn from the players of the Washington Cricket Club, were dubbed Captains and Vice-captains, the latter winning handsily by a score of 153 to 74.

Harrison Branch was not only top scorer but bowled the best of all the cricketers. Hon. W. H. Carter, of Massachusetts, showed that he had not forgotten his cunning in cricketery by slamming out the red ball for 78 tallies, in fielding, however, he was not up to his usual form. Featherstone put up a good game in the field, and Fitzgerald starred both in the field and in the batting career.

McNabb kept wickets in perfect style as did also the veteran Charlie King, while Harry A. Abbott proved himself both a good bowler and a crack-a-jack batsman.

Club matches will be played by the locals on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays during the season at the Potomac Park grounds. Summary:

Peter Mac's Corns Hurt.
Cleveland, July 30.—Peter Mac, racing stallion on whom Capt. David Shaw, owner, put a price of $125,000, may not be able to race all year. He has been scratched from Kalamazoo's Grand Circuit meet next week because of bad corns. Mike McDevitt, trainer, doesn't know whether the horse will get into any big stakes this season.

Wolight on the Job Again.
Larney Lightenstein, manager of Ad Wolight, who claims that he fairly beat Welsh for the title, but was deprived of the honors by a peculiar ruling by the referee, is in New York and says his man will be charmed to meet Welsh again. Or, if not Welsh, then Leonard or Dundee.

Speed-ball Johnson Breaks Griffmen's Losing Streak

Nationals Finally Land Victory by Defeating Indians in Ten-inning Game.

TRIS SPEAKER INJURED; WILL BE OUT OF GAME

Cleveland, July 30.—Tris Speaker was injured in the fourth inning of today's game, which Cleveland lost to Washington, 1 to 0. Speaker was rushed to the clubhouse with a severe sprain of the ankle and he will be out of the game for at least several weeks.

Griff's troops fought life from a cheerless angle tonight after having seen the rough side for a week. They'll try to run up a winning streak of two straight tomorrow, when Harper mounts the slab against Coumbe.

By throttling the Indians today Washington scored its third consecutive Sunday victory at Dunn Field. Johnson won two games and Boehling grabbed the other.

Bob Roth was the hitting fiend again, turning in a triple, two singles and pass in four times up. The Indian right fielder has made blows in his last seven times up, walking once to break the monotony of the old familiar walt.

McBride Starts Trouble.

The finishing touch to the hottest afternoon's combatting waged here this season was set going in the tenth by McBride. George looked like a dead bird when he reeled a Texas leaguer over second base, but Roth, who had supplanted Speaker in center following the latter's injury, and Smith, who forsok the bench to pastime in right field, became suddenly speechless.

Both started for the ball and both stopped, permitting it to fall safely for a double. Johnson bunted and Coveleskie who had entered the fray as a rescuer to the slipping Klepper in the ninth and who had muzzled the Nationals' home run, followed following the latter's injury, and Smith, who forsok the bench to pastime in right field, became suddenly speechless.

MITCHELL IS POUNDED AND CHAMPIONS WIN

Detroit, July 30.—Bill Carrigan's champions defeated the Tigers today, 2 to 0. Eight of Boston's nine tallies, and when Willie was replaced by Cunningham it was too late to help much.

Harpe pitched for Mitchell in fourth. Heiman batted for McKee in fourth. Kavanaugh batted at Cunningham in ninth.

Score: Boston, 2; Detroit, 0.

MEREDITH WILLING TO RACE IN SWEDEN

Philadelphia, Pa., July 30.—Ted Meredith, of the Meadowbrook Club, in a letter to Frederick W. Ruben, secretary of the American Athletic Union, yesterday announced he would be pleased to accept the invitation of the Swedish government to compete there next fall.

It is the intention of Ruben to choose the two other men from different sections of the country. He is in communication with Fred S. Murray, the former Leland Stanwood all-around star, and Jole Ray, of the Illinois Athletic Association. Murray could compete in any of the 100 and 200 yards and is a capable performer with the shot, hammer and at the running broad jump. He also is an adept at the high jump. Meredith can be depended upon to give a good account of himself all the middle distance races, while Ray would furnish some good competition for his rivals at one and two miles.

Ruben expects to hear from both Ray and Murray within the next few days.

CAREY BLOCKS PLAN TO EXTEND MEET

Chicago, July 30.—A movement to extend the 13-day race meet at Hawthorne was blocked today by the announcement of Tom Carey, owner of the track, that he would not rent the plant for horseracing any more this year.

"I'm just as strong for horseracing as the next," said Carey, "but too much at one time may kill the sport."

Officials in charge of the meet also decided they had decided not to extend the meet. Reformers planned to use cameras in getting evidence of betting at the track.

WHITE SOX CAPTURE TWO FROM MACKMEN

Chicago, July 30.—Chicago defeated the Athletics in both games of a double-header today, 10 to 1 and 7 to 0. The first game was a wild, free-hitting affair, in which the Sox touched Lanning for nine hits, one a homer, five triples and four doubles. Felsch featured with a homer, three-bagger and single. Clotette fielded Philadelphia safe after the first inning.

Carl Williams, a colossus, went the distance for Mack in the second game and was fairly effective, but the Sox bunched hits on him. One run was scored in the first inning on two passes and an out and in the sixth Jackson hit a homer after two had walked. Score:

BROWNIEN FIGHT TWO FROM THE YANKEES

St. Louis, July 30.—Another double victory for the Browns today, the Yankees sent Fielder Jones' winning streak to ten straight victories and the Yankees in losing, 2 to 1 and 2 to 0, slipped from first to third place, sending the Red Sox to the top. In the first game the Browns scored in the second on two singles and an infield out.

The Yankees tied it in the fifth on a pass, a sacrifice and a single. In St. Louis half of this inning Lavan singled, and the winning run scored on a sacrifice and a single.

Plank hurled a good game. With a full house in the third inning Slaker, singled, Lavan and Austin counting. Plank did not give a base on ball and fanned five. Score:

SECOND GAME.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 30.—Philadelphia defeated St. Louis, 7 to 0. The game was a wild, free-hitting affair, in which the Sox touched Lanning for nine hits, one a homer, five triples and four doubles. Felsch featured with a homer, three-bagger and single. Clotette fielded Philadelphia safe after the first inning.

Walters and Hornsby Are The "Finds" of the Season

The two baseball finds uncovered this season are Roger Hornsby, the Cardinal infielder, and Al Walters, the Yankee catcher. Oddly enough, both are graduates from small Texas town clubs, and, at the outset of the season, neither was given much consideration.

Carl Williams, a colossus, went the distance for Mack in the second game and was fairly effective, but the Sox bunched hits on him. One run was scored in the first inning on two passes and an out and in the sixth Jackson hit a homer after two had walked. Score:

Crafty Kid McCoy Amazed Crowd by Spilling Stewart

Another Kid McCoy story, which Willie Lewis delights to tell, concerns the McCoy-Jim Stewart scrap in New York back in 1908.

"That fight marked McCoy's first real appearance since his retirement six or eight years before," said Lewis. "At the time, the Kid was something like 35 years old and very much out of shape. Stewart on the other hand was just in his prime. Many touted him as the coming champion.

"The fight took place in New York and was scheduled to go six rounds. Probably the Kid told him he was crazy to go on with the match, pointing out that he didn't have a chance in the world against the fast and hard-hitting Stewart.

"Mebbe not—and mebbe I have," was the Kid's answer. "The whole lot of tricks in this trade and I've just thought out one that will let me win this fight."

"Whereupon, all the 'wise ones' laughed sarcastically.

"In the first round of that fight McCoy amazed the crowd by rushing Stewart. After he had chased him a bit, the Kid stopped, as though winded. Stewart figured that the Kid actually was all-in because of his furious opening attack. So Stewart suddenly decided to rush McCoy and try for a knock-out.

"Stewart raced in, swung at the Kid and missed. A fraction of a second later a terrific right cross from left in his system. Stewart threw his mind to slam McCoy with a terrible right. He shot over the punch, but McCoy blocked it with startling cleverness and then clinched.

"At the count of nine he arose to his feet, but before McCoy could rush to again, the round ended.

"That first round had used up McCoy. The exertion took from him and the reserve energy he had. That punch he landed sapped the last real strength within him. McCoy was through right there, and Stewart, had he known that McCoy could have gone out and finished McCoy before the end of the third round.

"But Stewart didn't know it. Furthermore, Stewart was the most surly man in the house that night. That McCoy walked was totally unexpected. It robbed him of his early confidence, and got him to thinking that, after all, this McCoy person, was still able to put away real fighters.

"Stewart, as I have stated, was just then on the ascendant. He was
