

COMMUNITY SINGING PROGRAM ENLARGED

Meeting of Society to Be Held Tuesday Evening.

The Community Singing Society, which during the past few years has grown to be an institution of recognized prominence in the musical life of the Capital, is preparing to enter with renewed vigor the artistic field during the coming fall and winter.

Preliminary to mapping out an enlarged program, Mr. Albert W. Harned has called a meeting of the society on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Public School Building, Twelfth and L streets northwest. At this meeting Mr. Harned will present a tentative program for the season. There are already 110 members of the society and it is expected that many more will enter with enthusiasm in its enlarged and more ambitious program.

An operatic concert early in November with a large orchestra is to be one of the features of the winter's work. This concert will include several miscellaneous numbers by members of the society. During the winter the members will prepare for a staged opera, which will be given early in the spring. Each member is asked to pay 25 cents dues a month. There are no other expenses.

Political Notes

New York, Oct. 6.—"All the President needs to carry New York is 25 per cent of the Progressive vote, and he is going to get it," said Democratic National Chairman McCormick today. "Of the Progressive enrollment in this State, Bainbridge Colby, an open supporter of the President, received a majority for United States Senator. Judge Seabury, as a candidate for governor, received 40 per cent."

"Real Progressives know that Hughes is the candidate of all the old rock-ribbed stand-patters. Hughes is telling them one thing and Roosevelt something else. They are not going to swallow it."

New York, Oct. 6.—James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture in the McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft administrations, has been elected president of the National Hughes Alliance branch in Iowa, it was announced today. Among the vice presidents of the Iowa organization are Howard Clark, Casper Schenk, both of Des Moines; C. R. Bratton, Dallas Center; George White, Nevada; Judge A. T. Lee, Ames; R. E. Dales, Des Moines, secretary, and Giger Mackinnon, Des Moines, treasurer.

This list, containing the names of former Progressives like Mr. White and Schenk, shows how the old division in Iowa has been healed, and how both sides are together in support of Hughes.

A Missouri branch of the alliance has been formed with Dwight F. Davis as president; Forest Donnell, secretary, and David R. Calhoun, treasurer and chairman of the finance committee.

New York, Oct. 6.—Commenting upon the recent open letter of Dr. Charles W. Elliot, on the Presidential campaign, Everett P. Wheeler, the distinguished New York lawyer and publicist, says, in a letter to the New York Tribune: "President Elliot, in his letter on the Presidential campaign, has stated one issue with great distinctness. He says: 'America has now turned its back on the familiar policy of Rome and Great Britain, of protecting and avenging their wandering citizens by force of arms and has set up a quite different policy of her own.'"

"It is quite true that we have turned our back on the policy which was that of Rome and Great Britain, and I may add, of France. It has also been that of this country. "President Elliot's idea seems to be to adhere to the policy of splendid isolation that some Americans have advocated. For my part I prefer to say with Emerson, 'The world was made for honest trade.' The question for the American people to decide is whether this country is prepared to protect the rights of its citizens in foreign countries, whether it will say: 'They have no business there, we will leave them to their fate.'"

Litchfield, Conn., Oct. 6.—William Kennedy, of Naugatuck, has been nominated for Congress from the Fifth District at the Democratic convention.

New York, Oct. 6.—Vance McCormick, Democratic National Committee chairman, today declared that a distinct faction or party have "entirely disappeared." He pointed to the Republican efforts to provide places for Progressives on the electoral ticket as proving that the Bull Moose are by no means annihilated.

New York, Oct. 6.—Jacob E. Hoffman, of Philadelphia, Progressive nominee for representative in the Pennsylvania legislature, has formally withdrawn his candidacy and announced his intention to support the Democratic State and national ticket. His decision was made known at the Democratic National Committee headquarters here this afternoon.

TRACTION POLES MOVED TO MAKE HIGHWAY SAFE

Without waiting for a formal order from the District Commissioners, the Washington Railway and Electric Company yesterday began removing poles on Bladensburg road, which constitute a menace to automobile traffic.

The company's officials said that since general opinion supports the belief that the pole locations make conditions unsafe for motorists, they were willing to relocate them in the interest of public safety. The cost will be considerable and it was felt that the traction company might question the jurisdiction of the District Commissioners to order the change.

An emergency permit was granted so the work might be undertaken without delay. C. S. Kimball, engineer of ways, is superintending the relocation. The first changes will be made at Twenty-eighth street, where the tracks cross the District line at the scene of the fatality early Tuesday.

The Commissioners will arrange for a conference with company officials at which other danger points will be designated for improvement. Among them is the location of poles in the middle of the highway on Connecticut avenue, of which complaint has been made by the Chevy Chase Citizens' Association.

URGES AEROPLANE CAMPAIGN.

Kansas Congressional Candidate Would Carry on Novel Fight.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 6.—After a trial fight at St. minute, William S. Hyatt, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Third Kansas district, is trying to persuade the State Central Committee to finance a campaign by aeroplane. He came from Parsons, his home, in an attempt to have Philip Billard, a professional aviator, engaged for the political fight.

Ten minutes in the air with Billard was much of an aerial campaign as Hyatt cared to finance without the committee's aid.

Several types of compressed air operated hoisting machines have been designed for use in places where the fire hazard is great.

WOMEN'S NEW SUITS

The Largest and Most Magnificent Showing We Have Ever Made

Suits that have the charm of individuality and distinctiveness—that reveal every authentic mode of the season at its best. There are suits for every woman and for all occasions.

Parisian Coutourieres of World-Wide Fame Are Represented; Bernard, Doucet, Georgette, Chanell, Lanvin, Brandt, Marshall et Armand and Callot Soeurs.

The Russian, Spanish and Directoire influences seem to predominate, and there are so many really wonderful delineations given to the various phases that a description of their beauty would be impossible.

Dressy Suits for Afternoon Wear, Tailleur Suits on Simple lines; Handsome Mourning Suits; Smartest Models in Sport Suits, and a Beautiful Selection of Suits for the Stout Figure.

Suits richly trimmed with luxurious furs are strongly featured, including such pelts as Flying Squirrel, Hudson Seal, Beaver, Mole, Skunk, Wolf and Raccoon. These furs are used in some instances to trim and mostly to form the new cape and monk collars and the new wing and muff cuffs. It is also used in deep bandings around the bottom of the coats, and touches here and there on pockets give a most unusual and distinctive effect.

Many Suits are without Fur Trimming, and these models are elegantly tailored; rows and rows of stitching on collar shows care of detail, and cuffs and narrow belts are treated similarly. Other suits of a slightly more elaborate character have deep velvet collars and cuffs or touches of hand-embroidery in colors.

Materials in Suits.
Bolivia Cloths are the richest; camel-hair velour, chifon, velvet, duvety, broad cloth, French velveteen, Russian cord, Scotch tweed, English homespun, vicoria, gabardine and wool jersey.

The Modish Shades Are
Tint, rubber gray, rose, taupe, heather, Burgundy, plum, stone green, African brown, Havana brown, oxford, navy and black. As you will see, they are all inconspicuous tones with a wonderful richness and suggestion of warmth.

The Prices Range from $25.00 to $225.00.
