

"NO LIVES LOST AT TAMPICO," SAYS MAYO

Three Thousand Rescued and Sent to This Country.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels lifted the order locking the lips of subordinate officers of the navy long enough to permit Admiral H. T. Mayo to explain the "Tampico incident," for which the administration was accused of deserting Americans in the hour of imminent danger.

Admiral Mayo talked with George Creel, with the permission of the Secretary, and while disclaiming any interest in politics, the interview is a vigorous defense of the administration's Mexican policy and is being circulated as such by the Democratic National Committee.

He rehearsed much of the history of the Mexican trouble at the time the Huerta rebels were active in Vera Cruz and Tampico and touching on the incident wherein it was charged that American citizens were obliged to seek the protection of an alien flag, said:

"I received so many alarming reports during the night of April 22 that I decided to go up the river on the morning of the 23d and bring the Americans out of Tampico. What I had been guarding against was any appearance of hostile action that might occasion a general outbreak, but the pressure put upon me was too strong to be resisted.

"You see, the problem was not merely the protection of Americans in Tampico alone, for the foreign population was scattered all throughout the region and among ranches far in the interior. Early on the morning of April 23 I sent a message to Capt. Doughty, of the British cruiser Hermonie, telling him of my intention, and asking him to inform Gen. Zaragoza that I was coming in for the sole purpose of taking out American citizens.

"For three days the work of rescue went on. We took out about 2,000 Americans, dividing up among the ships as best we could. I chartered one steamer and also had sent me two transports, the Hancock and the Dixie, and two Ward Line steamers. I sent about 2,100 Americans to Galveston in these vessels and the Connecticut and some colliers and destroyers. Also later sent a large number to New Orleans.

"Were any lives lost, Admiral Mayo?"

"Not a single life."

5,000 FREE DINNERS FOR AGED EX-SLAVES

Five thousand free dinner tickets for the aged will be distributed among the Washington negro churches by Dr. Simon P. W. Drew, chairman, and W. Ferri Frisby, secretary of the general committee, for the fifty-fourth convention and union of ex-slaves and former owners, October 23 to November 6, in Cosmopolitan Baptist Church, N street between Ninth and Tenth streets. The White Cross National Colored Old Folks' Home Association of America and National Evangelistic Ministers' Alliance of America will have charge of the convention. The meals will be served from 1 to 6 o'clock daily.

Gov. A. O. Stanley, of Kentucky, has appointed three commissioners to represent that State at the reunion.

PRESENT PROSPERITY SUBSTANTIAL—EDWARDS

"Bull Movement" Will Continue, Says Local Broker.

The prosperity that is sweeping over the New York Stock Exchange is not of an ephemeral nature but is destined to continue for many months, in the opinion of John L. Edwards, of the firm of John L. Edwards & Co., stock brokers, with offices at 1415 G street northwest.

"The bull movement that is characterizing the sessions of the New York exchange," said Mr. Edwards last night, "undoubtedly will continue for some time. This is not alone my own opinion, but also the opinion of numerous other stock brokers. The movement is sure to last until after the election, and should Hughes be elected, new impetus unquestionably will be given to the prosperity wave."

"Washington speculators are reaping a harvest of money from the present bull movement on the market. Speculation has increased to a marvelous extent, as might have been anticipated, and nearly all the speculators have entered the market at the right time.

"The great majority of Washington speculators are interested in Steel and have made big profits off the rapid advance in quotations on this security. Rails also are popular, although not nearly so much so as Steel.

"It is more or less dangerous to make forecasts regarding the stock market, but Steel, I think, is very likely to hit 225 before the bull movement reaches its apex of advance."

PRETTY GIRLS TO AID ARMENIAN SUFFERERS

Ministers Make Appeal from Pulpit for Assistance.

Several hundred of the most attractive girls in the Capital will assist in the collection of funds for Armenian and Syrian war sufferers as a result of the appeal for volunteers made by four of the prominent churches of Washington yesterday. Rev. Randolph H. McKim, of the Church of the Epiphany; Rev. Dr. Charles Wood, of the Church of the Covenant; Rev. Dr. C. A. Vincent, of Mount Pleasant Congregational Church, and Rev. Dr. John Van Schaick, Jr., of the Church of Our Father, were the ministers who made the appeal for workers.

The girls will be organized into an efficient working unit by the women's auxiliary committee of the American relief committee, of which Henry B. F. Macfarland is chairman. They will cover all prominent traffic centers, the department stores, theaters, government buildings, banks and hotels. Proprietors of a number of stores have offered space in their establishments for the sale of goods on relief day.

Saturday, October 21, has been designated by President Wilson as the official day for the collection of relief funds. Other cities have adopted plans similar to those which will be in operation in Washington, and it is expected that over $100,000 will be realized from all sources.

CHEAPER DIET LIKELY FOR DENIZENS OF ZOO

High Living Cost to Force Revision of Menu.

The high cost of living has hit the Zoo and if food prices keep soaring, the animals soon will go on a cheaper diet. Most of the mighty beasts of the jungle prefer meat and the lions especially are particular about the grade of beef that is pushed into their cages. Embalmed beef and tainted flesh may pass the army commissary, but His Majesty, the King of Beasts, contemptuously sniffs and turns away from anything but the choicest of cuts.

Some of the large semi-tropical birds also feed on meat and fish and it costs about 60 per cent more than it did a year ago to satisfy their appetites. Even the price of stale bread, the bears' favorite dish, has gone up. Zoo officials attribute this to the fact that many families now buy the cheaper loaves one and two days old, with the result that the bakers' surplus, which goes to the Zoo, has been reduced. Cutting down the quality and kind is not easy, since many go on hunger strikes when they fail to receive their favorite dishes. However, the Zoo officials are devising substitutes for some of the more expensive items on the menagerie menu.

The warm weather yesterday brought out a record October Sunday crowd to the park and both animals and birds enjoyed their last Sunday in the open. Winter quarters will be ready for occupancy by the later part of the week. All except the hardy northern birds and some semi-tropical specimens which can endure the cold weather will be placed in a sheltered aviary. The animals with few exceptions will occupy steam-heated quarters. One of the large South American constructors has a bad case of indigestion. It has not eaten for more than two weeks and is being treated in a sheltered enclosure. Unless its dyspepsia improves it will be forced to swallow a couple of tender rabbits sometime this week. The Zoo population otherwise is in good health.

HORSE IN KITCHEN BARRED.

Neighbors Object to Baltimorean's "Nice Little Horse."

Baltimore, Oct. 8.—A kitchen is no place for a horse, even if it's a summer kitchen and the horse is small and well-behaved. And so, under the edict of Justice Cliff, Northeastern Police Station, new accommodations will have to be found for the horse that was picked up for "less than the price of a suit of clothes" by James Healey's son and housed in his summer kitchen at 828 McKim street.

DOG BITES MOVIE STAR.

Four-Year-Old Jane Lee Attacked by Theda Bara's Pet.

New York, Oct. 8.—Four-year-old Jane Lee, one of the youngest movie stars, was attacked and bitten on the nose by the Russian wolfhound of Theda Bara at the Fort Lee, N. J., studio of William Fox last night. At first it was feared that little Jane would be scarred for life, but it was said today at the Pasteur Institute, where she was taken in an auto immediately, that in time the marks of the bite will entirely disappear.

HUNT FUNERAL SERVICES.

Will Be Buried in Rock Creek Cemetery Tomorrow.

Dr. Arthur Leroy Hunt will be buried in Rock Creek Cemetery at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Rev. Percival Hall, of the Church of the Epiphany, will officiate. The funeral will start from Dr. Hunt's late residence, 1814 Monroe street. Dr. Hunt was a well-known worker in the Health Department, and it is believed that he contracted infantile paralysis, which caused his death, in the discharge of his official duties.

HUGHES FAVORITE IN STRAW VOTE CAMPAIGN

Twenty States Vote for Republican Against Twelve for Wilson.

That the lines are tightening and the margin of votes between President Wilson and Charles E. Hughes will be close, according to the result of the third Herald's straw poll of the New York Herald, taken in thirty-two States.

Of the 78,803 voters who have expressed a choice, the Republican nominee has a lead over President Wilson of 4,184. The totals are Wilson, 36,928; Hughes, 41,112, and Benson, 1,665.

All of the returns would indicate that the pivotal point in the election will center in the result in New York, Indiana, Wisconsin, Illinois, Nebraska and Michigan. While the returns of the Herald place New York in the Republican column, it is admitted that the Empire State would be equally as correctly listed if marked as doubtful. Twenty of the States polled show a plurality for Hughes, while twelve favor the President. Listed as Hughes States on the result of the poll to date are: New Jersey, Delaware, Nebraska, Kansas, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Ohio, Indiana, Wyoming, Minnesota, North Dakota, California, New Mexico and Oregon.

In the Wilson column, based on the third week returns, are: New York, Connecticut, Maryland, Missouri, Oklahoma, Wisconsin, Massachusetts, West Virginia, Kentucky, Colorado, Arizona and Washington.

TEN YEARS FOR PATRIOT.

Famous Belgian Friar Sentenced by the Germans.

Rome, Oct. 8.—Pere Nuygens, of Ghent, the celebrated Dominican friar, has been court-martialed and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment with hard labor by the Germans. A dispatch from Havre states that the learned Dominican recently made a fiery patriotic speech in Ghent.

WATCH YOUR CHILDREN'S TOILET HABITS

Irregularity Makes Cross, Weak, Sickly Children.

It is second nature to the child to neglect itself in this important matter—one of the worst possible things for its health. Colds, fever, sore throat, tonsillitis and indigestion all can usually be traced back to this neglect and to constipation.

Watch your children—see to it that they have a regular time for going every day, and if you find that they are neglecting it, or if they keep insisting that they don't have to go, then it is your duty to help them and Nature by giving an NR Tablet when they go to bed at night. It will not grip or cause trouble during the night, but in the morning they will feel fine. Do this every night for a couple of weeks and the morning habit will be established.

This will keep your children in good health and free from sickness and stomach and bowel troubles. Remember the name of this splendid laxative—Nature's Remedy—just ask your druggist for NR Tablets—25c a box. At all four People's Drug Stores: 7th & K Sts. N. W., 7th & E Sts. N. W., 14th & U Sts. N. W., 7th & M Sts. N. W.

Credit and Least Prices Go Hand-in-Hand Here

The chief point is that credit is freely yours at the People's Department Store.

We want you to accept that statement at its face value, and to know that you can go anywhere and everywhere in this great furniture department—select all and everything you wish—furniture for one room or for every room in the house—and we shall be ready and willing to make terms of payment that will meet your entire convenience.

There are two kinds of credit—the kind that makes you pay nearly double an article's value for the privilege of paying the bill later on, and makes the buying of it both humiliating and annoying—and the People's Department Store kind, that gives you the articles at actual cash price and then divides up the total amount into small sums to come due at convenient intervals.

But remember this: Do not get the "installment-store" idea—there isn't an installment-store feature connected with it—no inflated values, no enormous prices, no humiliating details to go through, no "red tape" whatever.

After you have made your purchases simply say to the salesman, "Charge them." That's all. Leave the rest to us—and you will find our delivery service as satisfactory and prompt as our sales service.
