IRISH FORCE CRISIS.

Pitched Battle Over Conscription in Parliament Likely.

London, Oct. 11.—Another political crisis is in prospect as a result of developments attending the session of Parliament which opened yesterday. The efforts of Sir Edward Carson to have conscription extended to Ireland and the opposition of John Redmond has made them the storm center.

There is every prospect of a pitched battle between the coalition government and the Irish Nationalists.

STANDARD WEIGHT FOR DISTRICT BREAD URGED

Price Raised by Loaf Cutting, Says Weights and Measures Official.

"Congress should be requested to pass a law fixing the standard weight of bread manufactured for sale, sold, or offered for sale in the District at sixteen ounces a loaf," says the annual report of George M. Roberts, superintendent of weights, measures, and marks.

Mr. Roberts says the price of bread has been raised by the reduction of the size of the loaf. This practice, he infers, is unfair and unjust in that it gives the purchaser no chance to know the truth unless he himself weighs each loaf to ascertain the amount he receives for 5 cents.

Mr. Roberts' report says nothing as to the price of the loaf. His contention is that the size should be fixed and the price fluctuate according to market conditions.

The department of weights, measures, and marks, according to the superintendent, will make a special effort this year to safeguard the public against short measures of gasoline, suggested prescriptions, and precious metals through a thorough and active investigation and testing of scales and pumps.

THREE TONS OF PAPER GATHERED BY PUPILS

School Children Collect Harvest of Wealth During First Week.

Children have collected more than three tons of old newspapers in the first week's campaign for the conservation of print paper to swell the playground and public park maintenance fund.

Teachers in the elementary schools have impressed upon the pupils the advantage of saving newspapers, which would otherwise be thrown away, with a result that the number of discarded dailies has reached a quantity where the Board of Education will advertise for competitive bids for the sale of the old paper.

The increased cost of print paper has served to bring about a realization of its value. For a number of years charitable and missionary societies have earned substantial income from the sale of old newspapers and magazines. These societies have been given much of the surplus supply of government documents. In some cases the revenue from this source has been sufficient to maintain these institutions.

Paper has advanced to a price where second-hand stock brings a considerable income. The movement to have the school children save old newspapers will result in a return to the District of approximately $25,000 if the interest is maintained to the same degree that the first week indicates.

The conservation of paper was started as an experiment, and if it proves successful, as present results indicate, the saving of other waste material will be considered by school authorities.

SOLDIERS GOT RELIEF FROM SORENESS

Boys on the Border Relieved Their Pains and Aches with Sloan's Liniment.

Once upon a time Norman Jones, serving in the National Guard at El Paso, returned to camp after a strenuous 15 mile hike, foot-sore and leg-weary. He had not been long in active service and his shoulders, back and limbs felt the after-effects of marching.

Remembering Sloan's Liniment, Jones applied it to the sore spots and went to bed. He writes: "I arose the next morning feeling fine; in fact I had entirely forgotten about the hike and went out for a four-hour drill in the sun as spry as ever."

Private Jones passed the experience along, and many a boy on the border relieved the agony of sprains, strains, bruises, insect bites, cramped muscles, rheumatic twinges, etc., by the use of Sloan's Liniment.

Easily applied without rubbing. At all drugists, 25c, 50c, and $1.00.

GIRLS, OFF FOR STAGE, BLOCKED BY POLICE

Baltimore Lassies Who Waiked Part of Way to Capital Turned Back.

The calcium light fancy of two little Baltimore girls and their visions of becoming great actresses were blighted out last night when Capt. Schneider, of the Ninth police precinct, approached 15-year-old Irene Woodward and 12-year-old Gladys Lynch, who were in the neighborhood of Fifteenth and H streets northward from the terminal of the Washington, Baltimore & Annapolis Railway.

The girls carrying a grip filled with rouge, powder, and other theatrical make-up necessities, left their homes after breakfast Tuesday morning and started to walk to this city. Half way to this city they met a farmer, who drove them along a way and took them to his home over Tuesday night. They did not learn his name, but they said he and his wife told them to go straight home. Instead of that, they started for Washington again the next morning, and finally begged a ride here one of the W. & A. conductors.

"We were going on the stage," said Irene Woodward, who lives at 230 Woodbrook avenue, Baltimore. Gladys Lynch, who laughed when brought to Police Headquarters, lives at 2427 Francis street. They told the matron of the House of Detention that they liked to drive around from jail to jail in touring cars. "It's the next best thing to going on the stage," said one of them.

C. W. Tabb, bearing a letter from Marshall Robert D. Carter, of Baltimore, came here last night and took them back to their parents.

ROBINSON CRUSOE, Jr., COMPANY PLAYERS WED

A two years' romance between Miss Cecil Carter and William Kinly, both of the "Robinson Crusoe, Jr." company, appearing this week at the Belasco, culminated yesterday when the couple quietly stole over to Rockville, Md., procured the necessary credentials, and were married. Kinly is the son of a wealthy garage owner in New York. It is said he joined the company to be near Miss Carter. Other members of the company say he was a persistent wooer and that her consent was obtained just a few moments before the Rockville run.

The couple will remain with the company on its trip to the Coast.

Mrs. W. A. Yule, of Pittsburgh, who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. M. H. Fisher, of Adams Mill road, and Miss Bess Burton, of Fairmont street, has come to New York for an extended visit.
