bower of palms and pink roses by the Rev. J. J. Dimon, of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of white Spanish lace over net and satin. Her veil was fastened with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Her only attendant, Mrs. George Manning Cummins, of Davenport, Iowa, wore a gown of pink chiffon taffeta, with crepe net and silver lace. Mr. Thomas Edmunds attended the bridegroom as best man.

Following a small reception, Mr. Tompkins and his bride left for a wedding trip, the latter wearing a tailored suit of broadcloth trimmed with beaver, with hat to match. They will reside temporarily at Atlanta, Ga., but will later make their home in Washington.

Local Societies.

Dolly Madison Chapter, D. A. R. held their first meeting of the season at the residence of Mrs. Charles F. Nesbit in Phelps place. Mrs. E. P. Metz, the vice president, presided.

The resignation of the recording secretary, Mrs. Varela, was accepted with much regret and Mrs. Heavers was elected to fill the vacancy.

The meeting was in the nature of a reunion and after the usual routine of old and new business, each member in turn gave an account of her summer experiences and travels. Mr. Nesbit gave some interesting and amusing anecdotes. Refreshments were served.

Wendell Wolfe Chapter, D. A. R. held its first meeting for 1916-17 on Monday evening, October 9, at the home of Mrs. L. E. Stine, 229 First street, with Mrs. Stine, Mrs. I. C. Stockton, and Misses Stockton and Cardwell as hostesses. The regent, Miss Bertha Frances Wolfe, presided, and there was a large and enthusiastic attendance of members. Two new members, Mrs. Mary Gordon Bailey and Miss Elizabeth B. Stryker, were present, and two guests, Mrs. Beattie N. Wild and Mrs. Ensign, of Massachusetts, the daughter of Mrs. G. C. Burton, one of the charter members of the chapter.

The paper of the evening was read by the hostess, Mrs. Stine, the subject being "The Northwest Territory." Miss Thelma Hills Payne gave the musical part of the program, singing two songs to Mrs. Wild's accompaniment, "The Winds Are All Hushed" and "A Winter's Lullaby" by DeKoven. The usual social hour with refreshments closed a delightful meeting. The next meeting will be held November 11, with Mrs. R. A. Dellett, 1125 Columbia road.

The home of Miss L. Gratz, 470 Pennsylvania Avenue, was the scene of an interesting gathering last Sunday evening, when the Cardinal Pleasure Club held its first anniversary and the installation of its newly elected officers. The following members were installed in their offices: Mr. Simon Hirschman, president; Miss Katy Krupaw, vice president; Mr. Louis Goldberg, treasurer; Mr. Abe Tolchinsky, financial secretary; Miss Lena

Train Your Hair as An Actress Does

No class of people devotes as much time to beauty as do actresses, and naturally no class must be more careful to retain and develop their charms. Inquiry among them develops the information that in hair care they find it dangerous to shampoo with any makeshift hair cleanser. Instead they have studied to find the finest preparation made for shampooing and bringing out the beauty of the hair. The majority of them say that to enjoy the best hair wash and scalp stimulator that is known, get a package of canthrox from your druggist; dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. It costs less than three cents for this amount. After its use the hair dries rapidly, with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.

Compliment to Miss Draper

Miss Margaret Draper and Prince Boncampagni, whose marriage will take place October 23, and their wedding party, consisting of Miss Glover, Miss Edith Blair and Miss Minna Blair and Mr. Brambilla, of the Italian Embassy staff, will be entertained at dinner on October 18 by the Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakhmetcheff and on October 22 by Rear Admiral and Mrs. Richardson Clover. On October 24, the evening before the wedding, Mrs. Draper will entertain them with the out-of-town guests for the wedding at a dinner dance.

Theatricals at Lyonhurst.

One of Shakespeare's early comedies, "Love's Labor Lost," was revived for the first time after two generations on Wednesday evening. It was presented to a distinguished audience, among whom were members of the diplomatic corps and Cabinet officers. Under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Newton Buckler and the scholarly inspiration of Rev. George Buckler the play was staged and presented on the grounds of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyons at Lyonhurst, Va. The flood of moonlight enhanced the beauty of the Spanish architecture and grounds, affording a splendid setting for a Shakespearean production.

The players were artistic in the rendering of their parts. Those of the cast who shone particularly on that occasion were Miss Mary Speirs, who played the part of the Princess with exquisite grace and sweet dignity becoming royalty.

Miss Pauline De Brodes, who took the part of Rosaline, was particularly adapted to the role, typifying the vivacity, beauty and charm characteristic of the sixteenth-century lady of the French court. Another of the court ladies was Mrs. McMillon who also took the part of Jaquemetta with a great deal of spirit. Miss Lillian De Brodes, taking the role of Maria, completed the Princess' train. Miss Esther Hughes who took the part of Moth, attending page of Don Armado, and played her part with winsome grace, has won great admiration by her dancing at private entertainments during the past two seasons.

Hospitalities for Mrs. Hill

Mrs. Horace G. Macfarland entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at the Chevy Chase Club in honor of Mrs. Olive Gale Hill, whose marriage to Capt. Ridley McLean, U. S. N., will take place Wednesday, November 8.

The table was adorned with pink roses, and tiny ships formed the place cards. The guests, in addition to the honor guests, included Gen. and Mrs. George F. Scriven, Gen. and Mrs. George Barnett, Col. and Mrs. W. W. Hartz, Col. and Mrs. Dion Williams, Miss Joan Ohi, Commander and Mrs. Richard H. Leih, Gen. C. H. Lauchheimer, Lieut. Commander A. Station, Mrs. Francois Berker Moran, Mr. Charles Noble Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm S. McConihe, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peter.

Capt. Ridley McLean was host at a small dinner party at the Willard, his guests including his fiancée, Mrs. Olive Gale Hill, and Mrs. Justice McReynolds. Capt. McLean and Mrs. Hill will be married on November 8.

For Catholic Alumnae.

An elaborate program of entertainment is being arranged in honor of the delegates of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae, who will come to Washington November 27 at the close of the second biennial convention of the federation to be held in Baltimore, November 24, 25 and 26.

Miss Ida Hill Bowie is chairman of the Washington entertainment committee, composed of the alumnae of the various Catholic schools of Washington, and the members of the Washington chapters of the alumnae of out-of-town schools, which will care for the 3,000 who are expected to arrive from Baltimore by special train. In addition to being given an opportunity to visit places of historic and national interest in the National Capital, the guests will be tendered a reception at the Catholic University of America, with the rector, Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, and Dr. Pace, of the university faculty, as hosts. After a visit to the various buildings of the institution, Trinity College and the Catholic Sisters' College, a luncheon will be given for the delegates in the dining hall of the university.

The afternoon will be marked by several interesting functions, and the closing feature of the day will be a brilliant reception to be held in one of the public buildings of Washington, tendered for the occasion.

Miss Bowie will be assisted in welcoming the visitors by a distinguished committee. Mrs. Newton D. Baker, Mrs. Thomas Watt Gregory, Mrs. Joseph Daniels, Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, Mrs. David Franklin Houston and Mrs. William Cox Redfield head the list of notable women on the reception committee and others who will serve with them are Mrs. Charles Henry Butler, Mrs. George Barndollar, Mrs. Mabel T. Boardman, Mme. Childron, Mrs. Philander F. Claxton, Mrs. Ryan Devereux, Miss Ella Lorraine Dorsey, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. Duncan T. Fletcher, Mrs. Archibald Francis, Mrs. Samuel J. Graham, Mrs. J. Gordon Harriman, Mrs. George Hamilton, Mrs. Robert Hinkley, Miss Nannie Randolph Beth, Mrs. Gallard Hunt, Marquise di Brolo Lanza, Mrs. Henry May, Mrs. F. B. Moran, Mrs. Joseph McThomas, Mrs. Samuel Spencer, Mrs. Claude Swanson, Mrs. Hutch I. Scott, Mrs. Brinton Stone, Mrs. Hannis Taylor, Mrs. Joseph Thropp, Mrs. Eugene Van Rensselaer, Mrs. William Wheatley, Mrs. Edwin Sweet and Mrs. Edward Douglas White.
