They have been in the past, they are today, and they will be in the future. Men who decide elections are nine times out of ten classed with "The Silent Vote"---That great body of thinking men who make up their minds without taking every Tom, Dick and Harry into their confidence. Men who wear Burrojaps shoes are thinking men who decide the shoe question the same way they decide the Presidential question---on the merits of the candidates. That is why season after season, Burrojaps shoes enjoy such tremendous popularity.

This season is no exception. In fact the peculiar situation existing in the shoe market, with prices rising and quality going down, has made Burrojaps shoes with their guarantee of wear and satisfaction even more in demand than ever.
