

SOCIETY

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ELEVEN.

any member of the chapter, and the donor of a handsome gavel for the regent's use. The chapter was greatly pleased with the success of the reception to the State regent, Mrs. G. M. Brumbaugh, on December 8, at the Raleigh, in which it participated, this being the first reception of the kind ever held in the District. Several new names were presented for membership, and considerable routine business was transacted.

The paper of the evening, the third in the series on the Northwest Territory, was given by Miss Elizabeth Bigler Stryker on "Daniel Boone, the Frontiersman," and was charmingly written and read, showing wide reading and study of the subject. Miss Katharine Whitcomb gave a reading, "The Dandy Fifth," by Frank Gasaway, which was much enjoyed. The usual social hour with refreshments closed the meeting.

The next meeting will be on January 8 at the home of Mrs. Ada Mills Payne, and Miss Payne, 55 Rhode Island avenue. It will be a guest meeting, and Representative W. E. Cox of the Third Indiana District, will give the address.

The Florida Society will hold a "get-together" meeting on Thursday, December 21, at the Logan Hotel. A surprise feature has been planned for the entertainment of the members and their guests. A very delightful number will be a dance by Miss Alva Robinson, a pupil of Miss Charlotte Hogan, who will interpret the spirit of Christmas.

The solicitor of the State Department and Mrs. Cone Johnson were hosts at dinner at the University Club before the fortnightly dinner dance, when they entertained in compliment to Miss Imogene Young, the debutante daughter of Representative W. E. Cox of the Third Indiana District, and Mrs. Charles A. Munn are entertaining a house party at Woodcrest, end, Countess Gizecka, Mr. and Mrs. William Rhineland Stewart and Mr. Henry May are among their guests.

Senator and Mrs. Peter J. McCumber entertained at dinner at the Chevy Chase Club for their daughter, Miss Helen McCumber. The other guests were Capt. and Mrs. Robert Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Colquitt, Mrs. Milo Fox, Miss Marie Sims, Miss Dorothy Shuey, Miss Frances Effinger, Miss Amy Bacon, Miss Lois Sprigg, Miss Mildred Bennett, Miss Dorothy Adams, Miss Dorothy Wyeth, Lieut. Brand, Lieut.

Miller, Lieut. Harris, Lieut. Price, Lieut. Davidson, Lieut. Somerell, Lieut. Bragdon, Dr. Daniel Borden, Mr. Fred Gibbs, Mr. John Delbert, Mr. Frank Gwathney, and Mr. John T. Graves, Jr.

Mrs. Delos Blodgett gave a dinner party at the Chevy Chase Club, her guests being asked to meet Mrs. Harriet McDaniel, of Atlanta, who is visiting Miss Helen Blodgett. The other guests were Mrs. John Carroll Payne, of Atlanta, house guest of Mrs. Blodgett, Mrs. Peeples, Miss Lucy Burleson, Miss Ruth Wilson, Miss Caroline Nash, Miss Adelaide Heath, Senator-elect McKeller, of Tennessee; John Barret, Col. Paxton, Dr. Taylor Boyd Dixon, Mr. Omar Conger, Lieut. Heath, Mr. Edward Dewey, Mr. Waldo Hill, and Mr. Joseph Abbott.

Mrs. and Mrs. Louis C. Scherer were hosts at dinner at the Army and Navy Club, entertaining in compliment to Maj. and Mrs. William J. Glasgow. The other guests were Representative and Mrs. Clarence Miller, Maj. and Mrs. Jackson and Lieut. and Mrs. Cress.

Dr. Lester Neuman has returned from Reading, Pa. where he went to attend the marriage of Miss Israel and Mr. David Baer.

Mrs. B. S. Arnhelm has returned to her home in Baltimore after a visit to relatives in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Baum have returned to their home after spending a few days in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Felheimer have returned to Washington after a stay in Reading, Pa.

Mrs. J. Hillman has returned to her home in Atlantic City after some time spent with relatives in Washington.

Mrs. B. Erlanger has returned to her home in Baltimore after a visit to friends in Washington.

Mrs. Emilio M. Amores, wife of Mr. E. M. Amores, chief translator of the Pan-American Union, and her accomplished daughter, Miss Estrella Amores, left Washington yesterday for Havana, Cuba.

Mrs. Ollie Hazenmaker, Miss Florence Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zanchler, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Deane, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rutledge, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. William McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCullis, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Deal and Miss Deal, Mrs. Mary Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harbin, Mrs. Clara Horner, Miss Elizabeth Adams, Master Harry Elwood Adams, Miss Vida Balderston, Mr. C. A. Godfree, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Buttler, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. C. Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rose and Miss Rose, Mr. and Mrs. William Rink, Mr. and Mrs. James Wickham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Pender, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Trummel, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Osthaus, Mr. M. Tabler, Miss Mae DeLauder, Mr. and Mrs. William Dement, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Smith, Miss Clara Hawer, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horner and Mrs. M. E. Corson.

Miss Carrie Kahn, of New York, will spend the Christmas holidays in Washington as the guest of Miss Oppenheimer.

Invitations are out for a dance to be given by Miss Carolyn Oppenheimer, of Belmont street, on December 24, at the Washington Suburban Club in honor of Miss Kahn, of New York.

Miss Blanche Levy, of Charlestown, W. Va., has returned to her home after a visit with Mrs. L. Gassenheimer.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

where they will spend the winter season. Miss Amores is popular in Latin-American diplomatic circles. She is a graduate with distinction of the Holy Cross Academy of this city, an accomplished linguist and a pianist.

Mr. A. Kirkstein, of Bangor, Me., will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Frank this week.

Mrs. B. Bamberger has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in the city.

Capt. Matthew A. Cross has arrived at Washington from Panama and joined Mrs. Cross, who is the guest of her parents, Admiral and Mrs. James H. Glenon, at the Navy Yard.

"Mount Eagle," the old Virginia mansion, long the property of Bryan, the eighth Lord Fairfax, has recently been purchased by Mr. Francis Alton Conolly for his wife, formerly Miss Clarine Hunter. Mr. and Mrs. Conolly, who reside at 1624 Eighteenth street, will make "Mount Eagle" their summer home. They will take possession in the spring.

Mrs. B. Meyers, who was the guest of Miss Della Fichel, has returned to her home in New York.

Mrs. L. Well has returned to her home in Philadelphia after a visit to her mother, Mrs. Herman.

Ensign Linton Herndon, attached to the U. S. S. Delaware, arrived in Washington yesterday to visit his parents at the Victoria apartment until after the holidays.

Mr. Alfred Haas, of Richmond, Va., was the guest last week of his mother, Mrs. T. Haas.

Miss Gladys Mayer has returned after spending some weeks in Baltimore with Miss Ethel Meyers.

Mr. Maurice Parker is spending a few weeks in Boston with his parents.

Mr. Allan De Ford, of Toronto, Canada, will arrive in Washington this week for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank, of Baltimore, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Hechinger last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Adams, formerly of Philadelphia, and residents of Washington during the past ten years, celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary Thursday, December 7, surrounded by relatives and friends at their residence, 815 Eighth street northeast.

A buffet luncheon was served in honor of the occasion. The guests included: Mrs. Ollie Hazenmaker, Miss Florence Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zanchler, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Deane, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rutledge, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. William McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCullis, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Deal and Miss Deal, Mrs. Mary Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harbin, Mrs. Clara Horner, Miss Elizabeth Adams, Master Harry Elwood Adams, Miss Vida Balderston, Mr. C. A. Godfree, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Buttler, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. C. Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rose and Miss Rose, Mr. and Mrs. William Rink, Mr. and Mrs. James Wickham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Pender, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Trummel, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Osthaus, Mr. M. Tabler, Miss Mae DeLauder, Mr. and Mrs. William Dement, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Smith, Miss Clara Hawer, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horner and Mrs. M. E. Corson.

At the annual election held Tuesday of Federal Lodge, No. 1, F. and A. M., the following officers were elected: Paul F. Grove, worshipful master; William S. Quinter, senior warden; Frank H. Pierce, junior warden; Stanley H. Hiddings, senior deacon; Warren C. Grimes, junior deacon; Harry Sherry, senior steward; James Runciman, junior steward; Charles B. Bayly, secretary; William A. Harris, P. H., treasurer; Richard Riggles, tiler; William T. Ballard, P. M., marshal; Masonic Board of Relief; John E. Slick, chaplain; James R. Pague, Masonic and Eastern Star Home; Walter A. Brown, incorporator, to represent stock of Federal Lodge in Masonic Hall Association; Theodore Freibus, Grand Master; Masonic Board of Relief; James W. Cheney (No. 33), organist; James S. Hicks (No. 17), director of choir. The lodge has called off its communication of December 26, on account of the holidays.

At the first communication of the lodge, to be held on the second Tuesday of January, the entered apprentice degree will be conferred with the worshipful master in the East.

The calendar of Kallipolis Grotto contains the annual nomination of officers and election of officers on January 25 and the ladies' night at the New Willard Hotel on January 16. Prophet Charles D. Shackelford is chairman of the ladies' night entertainment.

Invitations are out for a dance to be given by Miss Carolyn Oppenheimer, of Belmont street, on December 24, at the Washington Suburban Club in honor of Miss Kahn, of New York.

Miss Blanche Levy, of Charlestown, W. Va., has returned to her home after a visit with Mrs. L. Gassenheimer.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

GOSSIP OF FRATERNAL CIRCLES

Masonic Activities.

National Lodge, No. 12, will hold a stated communication in lodge room No. 2, Masonic Temple, Tuesday night. Worshipful Master McGraw announces that the Master Mason's degree will be conferred. This will be the first communication of the lodge since the election and installation of officers. Mr. McGraw hopes to have a large attendance.

At the stated communication of Dawson Lodge, No. 16, held December 11, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Frederic E. Hodges, worshipful master; William H. Murray, senior warden; Wisdom D. Brown, junior warden; John A. Colborn, past master; secretary; Joseph P. Stephenson, past master; treasurer; Perry P. Patrick, past master; master of ceremonies; William R. Clouston, senior deacon; Charles W. Hoover, junior deacon; Mark L. Stearnman, senior steward; Allen L. Colton, junior steward; James T. Moulden, tiler; John L. Apple, past master, organist; Claude H. Woodward, past master, delegate to St. John's M. Association; William W. Wallis, past master, delegate to Masonic board of relief; George W. Baumann, past master, representative to Masonic and Eastern Star Home; Thomas W. Bramhall, past master, representative to board of managers Lodge Room, No. 1; William R. Clarkson, Charles W. Hoover, and Mark Stearnman, proxies to Grand Lodge.

The absent officers were duly installed by Grand Master William W. Jernama, who also presented the retiring master, Perry P. Patrick, with a past master's jewel.

Royal and select masters—Admiral Council, No. 2, R. and S. M., will on Thursday of this week hold its monthly assembly, to which all cryptic Masons are cordially invited. Regular business will be conducted and possibly degrees will be conferred. The election of officers will follow.

At the annual election held Tuesday of Federal Lodge, No. 1, F. and A. M., the following officers were elected: Paul F. Grove, worshipful master; William S. Quinter, senior warden; Frank H. Pierce, junior warden; Stanley H. Hiddings, senior deacon; Warren C. Grimes, junior deacon; Harry Sherry, senior steward; James Runciman, junior steward; Charles B. Bayly, secretary; William A. Harris, P. H., treasurer; Richard Riggles, tiler; William T. Ballard, P. M., marshal; Masonic Board of Relief; John E. Slick, chaplain; James R. Pague, Masonic and Eastern Star Home; Walter A. Brown, incorporator, to represent stock of Federal Lodge in Masonic Hall Association; Theodore Freibus, Grand Master; Masonic Board of Relief; James W. Cheney (No. 33), organist; James S. Hicks (No. 17), director of choir. The lodge has called off its communication of December 26, on account of the holidays.

At the first communication of the lodge, to be held on the second Tuesday of January, the entered apprentice degree will be conferred with the worshipful master in the East.

The calendar of Kallipolis Grotto contains the annual nomination of officers and election of officers on January 25 and the ladies' night at the New Willard Hotel on January 16. Prophet Charles D. Shackelford is chairman of the ladies' night entertainment.

Invitations are out for a dance to be given by Miss Carolyn Oppenheimer, of Belmont street, on December 24, at the Washington Suburban Club in honor of Miss Kahn, of New York.

Miss Blanche Levy, of Charlestown, W. Va., has returned to her home after a visit with Mrs. L. Gassenheimer.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Miss Blanche Koshland has returned to her home in Baltimore after some time spent with friends in Washington.

Khoraasan, has been called for tomorrow night by Samuel M. Pearson, deputy imperial prince for the local temple. "to consider the question of infusing new life into the organization. Mr. Pearson adds in his circular, "as deputy imperial prince, I urge upon you to make a special effort to be present at this meeting. Let your old zeal and love for this branch of the order of Knights of Pythias cause you to look at this matter in the proper spirit and resolve that the temple shall not die, but live again as before." The meeting will be held in the Pythian Temple at 8 o'clock.

Webster Lodge, No. 7, Tuesday evening conferred the knight rank upon two candidates, Claude E. Haines and Charles E. Pingree. The convention was largely attended by members and visitors, among the latter being H. E. Chase, of William McKinley Lodge, No. 1, Manila, I. I., who assisted in conferring the rank, and Henry W. Hartwig, of Panama Canal Zone Lodge, No. 1.

Syracusan Lodge, No. 10, will have its page rank Friday night, the beginning of another class. This lodge closed a successful class Friday night with the rank of knight, in the presence of one of the largest meetings of the year.

Washington Company, No. 1, Uniform Rank, at its monthly assembly Wednesday night in the armory of the Pythian Temple, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: G. G. Fressy, captain; R. L. Glading, first lieutenant; F. A. Meininger, second lieutenant; Benjamin R. Sheerwood, recorder (re-elected); Roger A. Reeves, treasurer (re-elected); trustee, Charles Sanford, R. A. Reeves and George Ryall. These officers, together with those to be appointed, will be installed at the assembly of the company next month.

Langdon Lodge, No. 25—The officers for the ensuing term will be nominated at meeting tomorrow evening and no meeting will be held Monday. A special meeting will be held Thursday, at which the election of officers will take place.

Harmony Lodge, No. 9—The degree will be conferred at the regular meeting on Wednesday evening upon several candidates by the degree team under the direction of degree directors Dunn and Lybrand.

Friendship Lodge, No. 12 will hold its last meeting of the year Wednesday evening when the officers for the coming year will be elected and the degree will also be conferred. Several applicants for membership are waiting the action of the lodge and degree director, Past Grand Kincer, expects to confer the degree immediately after the installing of the officers.

The Rebekah Degree. President Belle M. Carter, of the Rebekah assembly, and President Mollie E. Edmondston, of the Assembly Home Circle, will hold meetings of their committee to make final arrangements for the reception to be given in Odd Fellows Home on New Year's night.

The last session of the school of instruction will be held tomorrow evening in Ruth Lodge room. Past President Grigaby presiding. President Belle M. Carter and the officers of the assembly will be in attendance.

Grand Treasurer J. D. Yeakley and Past Noble Grand W. Estelle Yeakley visited Esther Lodge Monday evening and extended an invitation to Esther to visit Naomi Lodge at their meeting tomorrow evening.

The Assembly Home Circle has completed arrangements for a joint theater party of all the Rebekah subordinate lodges at Poli's Theater Monday evening, January 8, for the benefit of Odd Fellows Home.

Knights of Columbus. On Monday evening, immediately after the regular business meeting, Spalding lodge will be host to the children of the members of the council. Rev. Peter C. Guiday, of the Catholic University, chaplain of Washington Council, will address the meeting, followed by motion pictures and the distribution of gifts to the children by Santa Claus, impersonated by Denis E. Connel, a member of the council. Music will be furnished by an orchestra. The following committee of ladies will assist: Mrs. F. D. McAuliffe, chairman, Mrs. W. L. Bell, Mrs. R. P. Carleton, Mrs. M. J. McAuliffe, Miss

GOSSIP OF FRATERNAL CIRCLES

Teresa Fitzgerald, Miss Catherine Harrison, Mrs. G. V. Hunt, Miss Nora M. Keane, Mrs. James Langman, Miss Katharine M. Leahy, Miss Nellie McHale, Miss Catherine Moriarty, Miss Gertrude Quinn, Miss Katherine Quinn, Miss Mary E. Quinn, Miss Cora Sullivan, Mrs. L. G. Stead and Miss Cora G. Trodden. On Thursday, January 4, Spalding Council will exemplify the first degree.

On Tuesday evening, December 13, Carroll Council will entertain the members with a Christmas party.

On Thursday evening last, at the Elks' Hall, Alcantara Caravan, No. 12, Order of Alhambra, held a roast beef dinner, preceded by an original act, entitled, "The Jollies of 1920, 1925, 30 or 40."

Keane Council held its regular meeting Thursday evening last. Among those present was Michael D. Schafer, district deputy of the order.

Maccabee Notes. Mount Vernon Tent, No. 4, met Tuesday evening in New Masonic Temple, Eighth and F streets northeast, with a large attendance. Deputy State Commander H. W. Phillips was unable to be present. Commandant Foster, of National Tent, spoke, Sir Knight James W. Springman, who has been spending the past year at Billings, Mont. Sorrow was expressed over the death of Sir Knight Groton, and sympathy was extended to the sir knight's family.

The degree team, under the leadership of Sir Knight Fling and Adams, will meet at National Tent next Monday night to rehearse with the National team for the lecture and sermon to be delivered by Rev. Dr. Abraham Simon, at the Eighth Street Temple Friday evening on "The Call for the Maccabee Spirit." Deputy Frank E. Springman paid a fraternal visit to the Georgetown Tent last Thursday evening in company with Deputy State Commander Phillips. Remarks were made by Messrs. Adams, Dr. Griffith, Hannan, Buck, Forster (Mount Vernon), King, Springmann, and others. Sir Knight Jordan was present. He has been absent several weeks on account of serious illness.

Three candidates were initiated last Monday evening by National Tent, No. 1. National Tent degree team assisted in the institution of a new tent of Maccabees in Mount Ranier last Friday evening.

All members are requested to attend the lecture to be given by Rev. Dr. Abraham Simon, at Eighth Street Temple, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, on "The Call for the Maccabee Spirit." There will be special music, "Selections from Judas Maccabeus Oratorio."

National Union Councils. Monday—Potomac, No. 28, Pythian Temple; Central, No. 29, Perpetual Association Hall; Tuesday—State, War and Navy, No. 20, Pythian Temple; Wednesday—Treasury, No. 20, Grand Army Hall; Postoffice Department, No. 24, Finn's Hall; Commercial, No. 60, Typographical Temple; Thursday—National, No. 22, Perpetual Building Association Hall; Mount Vernon, No. 61, Eagle Hall; Friday—East Washington, No. 27, Waller's Hall; McKinley, No. 26, Washington Hall.

Pressmen's Council held its regular meeting in Erie's Hall on Monday evening. President A. W. Lovelace presiding. The following officers were elected: President, W. M. Knott; vice president, J. W. Crabbs; speaker, N. E. Miller; executive, A. W. Lovelace; secretary, T. T. Ryan; financial secretary, W. H. Barnhart; treasurer, Daniel Beckwith; chaplain, Samuel Trupp; usher, J. T. Finney; delegates to the cabinet, S. P. Trupp, Arthur Schofield. Speaker Miller invited the members into the banquet chamber, where refreshments were served.

Columbia Council, No. 43, held its regular meeting in Pythian Temple. Several applications for membership were received and two members initiated by the National Union Club degree team under the leadership of Elmer Johnson, assisted by President E. C. Ford, of the National Council, who delivered an address of instruction. The following officers were elected: President, James A. Williams; vice president, Wilson Harvey; speaker, A. B. Carty; secretary, George W. Cox, financial secretary, Crawford Benny; treasurer, Elmer Webster; chaplain, George K. Jenvey; usher, Leroy J. Gaddis; sergeant-at-arms, J. H. Robb; doorkeeper, Joseph F. Glenn; delegate to the cabinet, S. P. Abbott and James A. Williams. Installation of officers will take place January 12. Retiring Speaker

Division No. 2, will hold its regular business meeting in Eagles' Hall, Sixth and E street northwest.

Daughters of America. Fidelity Council, No. 4, Daughters of America, met at its hall, 221 Louisiana avenue northwest, Tuesday evening with the councilor, Mrs. Susie Peyton, in the chair.

Mrs. Mary Ferguson, acting chairman of the summer sale, reported that $38 had been made. Mrs. Susie Peyton, councilor, in a guessing contest, won a pair of croquet armlets, given by Miss Annie Berry.

Fidelity Glee Club entertained the meeting, Deputy Mrs. E. Viola Thompson presiding at the piano.

James M. Leach will make arrangements for a banquet on the occasion.

Interior Council, No. 216, held its regular meeting Wednesday evening. Several applications were received and one candidate initiated. The following officers were elected: President, George L. Anderson; vice president, George Olsen; speaker, Edwin M. Fisher; secretary, W. B. Acker; financial secretary, Charles F. Haden; treasurer, Flin D. Morris; chaplain, M. E. Ferguson; usher, H. Krump; sergeant-at-arms, W. Wolf; doorkeeper, G. S. Brock; delegate to the cabinet, Charles F. Haden. President Jesse R. Brown appointed a committee to arrange for a suitable entertainment on January 10, when the officers will be installed.

Improved Order of Red Men. CALENDAR. Monday—Osage Tribe, No. 6, nominations and reports of membership committee; Redwing Tribe, No. 2, nominations. Tuesday—Idaho Tribe, No. 15, degree work and nominations; Wanda Council, No. 4, nominations and social. Wednesday—Osage Tribe, No. 19, class adoption and nominations; White Eagle Tribe, No. 8, nominations and election of officers; White Eagle Council, No. 4, nominations and election. Thursday—Idaho Tribe, No. 8, nominations and degree work; Sioux Tribe, No. 18, nominations and social meeting. Friday—Sioux Tribe, No. 11, second and third degree and nominations; Minnola Tribe, No. 11, nominations and social; Idaho Council, No. 1, nominations and social.

The last visitation of this year was paid to Logan Tribe, No. 8, Thursday night. The great sashem, being a member of the tribe, conferred the honor of presiding to the great senior sashem, J. Heidenheimer. Reports on the condition of the tribe were satisfactory. The speech making by the chiefs and members was interspersed by a comic feature by J. A. Madison, Jr., and F. W. Madison, entitled "Yuse Got My Clothes on." F. W. Shepherd, R. Strobel and J. A. Madison, Jr., in a negro dialect sketch and various fun-making features by members of Logan's senate.

The great sashem was presented with a large candy basket. A buffet luncheon was served.

Oswego Tribe, No. 19, has decided on a class adoption of their own Wednesday night, December 20. Logan Tribe's crack degree team will have charge of the degree work.

At Redwing Tribe on Monday night a movement was started by A. Kruse to interest the membership in giving a dramatic and musical entertainment during the winter to the friends of the order. E. R. Boyer was requested to select a cast among the degree of Pocahontas and tribal members.

The proposition to go to Herndon, Va., to visit Seneca Tribe of that place is arousing much enthusiasm.

Seneca Tribe, No. 11, rendered the first degree Friday night and concluded the meeting with nominations for the coming year.

The church service Sunday was largely attended. The sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. McLean, of the Douglas Memorial Church.

A well attended and very enthusiastic meeting of Division No. 7, was held last Sunday in Kidder Hall.

Leo Craven was appointed to purchase shamrocks for the St. Patrick's Day celebration, from the Nuns of Mayo, Ireland.

The following were unanimously elected for the ensuing year: Michael E. Buckley, president; Daniel Hyland, vice president; Leo Craven, recording secretary; Daniel M. Stenton, financial secretary; James Hackett, treasurer; Lawrence Feeney, sergeant-at-arms; Thomas R. Cavanaugh, sentinel; Edward Garvey, chairman; Daniel Sullivan, Francis Rafferty, Joseph Sheehan and Mr. Burke, standing committee; Rev. Francis McGraw, chaplain, and Michael Reedy, examining physician. Michael E. Buckley was appointed chairman of a committee to arrange for a social session to be held in connection with the installation of the new officers at the January meeting.

Division No. 2, will hold its regular business meeting in Eagles' Hall, Sixth and E street northwest.

Daughters of America. Fidelity Council, No. 4, Daughters of America, met at its hall, 221 Louisiana avenue northwest, Tuesday evening with the councilor, Mrs. Susie Peyton, in the chair.

Mrs. Mary Ferguson, acting chairman of the summer sale, reported that $38 had been made. Mrs. Susie Peyton, councilor, in a guessing contest, won a pair of croquet armlets, given by Miss Annie Berry.

Fidelity Glee Club entertained the meeting, Deputy Mrs. E. Viola Thompson presiding at the piano.

W. B. Moses & Sons F and 11th Sts. ART NEEDLEWORK AND GIFT SHOP. Magazine Baskets for the den; can be used attached to desk for waste basket, each $2.00. Flower Baskets, Marie Antoinette shape, with handle, each $1.25. Work Baskets, beautifully tinted, with cover $1.00. Fruit Baskets, hand-woven and tinted $1.25. Nut Baskets, green, brown or rose; each 50c. Tinted Work Baskets, having spool holders and guard; each 75c. Flat Reed Sandwich Trays, beautifully woven; each 50c. 18-inch Round Reed Waste Paper Baskets; each $3.00. Kindling Baskets, tinted with water colors; graceful, oval in shape; each $2.50.

Send Flowers The Xmas Gift of Truest Sentiment. Gude Cut Flowers, Growing Plants, Christmas Greens and Wreaths represent nature's choicest bounties. Order Now for Xmas Delivery. Gude Bros. Co. 1214 F Street. Members Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association. Phones Main 4277, 4278, 4279.

A Christmas Sale of Sweaters for the Tots and Young Folks. Children's Sweater Sets: Zephyr Wool—Sweater Coat, Cap, Leggings and Mittens to match $3.95. Angora Sweater Sets: All colors and white $5.90. Scarf and Cap Sets: Many colors and combinations. A wonderful assortment $1.95. Hand Knit Booties and Mittens: 25c and 50c. Teddy Bear Outfits: "Warm and Comfy." Cap, Sweater Coat, Leggings and Mittens to match. Special in this sale. $5.90. Toques and Caps for "His Majesty the Baby" 50c. Hand-knit Leggings for Baby $1.25. Kiddies' Bath Robes: $1.50 to $5.00. Pretty designs—wool.

353 Christmas Beverages 51 Years in Business. Order Now! From the Largest And Most Select Stock In the Country. Christian Xander's 909 Seventh Street Phone Main 274 Prompt Auto Deliveries.