

resident and Mrs. Wilson Entertain Supreme Court Circle at Dinner

The President and Mrs. Wilson entertained at dinner last evening at the White House when the Chief Justice and Mrs. White and the associate justices of the Supreme Court and their wives were the special guests. The dinner was served in the State dining-room, where the table was handsomely decorated with pink Killarney roses and maiden-hair ferns and after dinner the guests were entertained with a musical program in the East Room.

The dinner company included: The Chief Justice and Mrs. White, Mr. Justice and Mrs. McKenna, Mr. Justice Day, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Van Devanter, Mr. Justice Pitney, Mr. Justice McReynolds, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Brandeis, Mr. Justice Clark, Mr. Attorney General and Mrs. Gregory, Senator Thomas S. Martin, Senator Knute Nelson, Senator and Mrs. Francis G. Newlands, Senator Robert M. La Follette, Senator and Mrs. Atlee Pomeroy, Senator and Mrs. Thomas J. Walsh, Senator Paul O. Hastings, Representative and Mrs. William C. Adamson, Representative and Mrs. John J. Fitzgerald, Representative and Mrs. Lemuel P. Fuggett, Representative and Mrs. Andrew J. Volstead, Representative and Mrs. Edwin J. Webb, Representative and Mrs. Charles C. Carlin, Representative and Mrs. S. Hubert Dent, Representative and Mrs. Joseph W. Byrnes, the Solicitor General and Mrs. Davis, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Newton, Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Ingraham, Assistant Postmaster General and Mrs. Koons, Assistant Attorney General and Mrs. Thompson, Comptroller of the Currency and Mrs. Williams, Captain and Mrs. Edward W. Eberle, Colonel John Riddle, Doctor and Mrs. Hiram Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Julian B. Bolling, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus S. Darnley, Mr. and Mrs. Maury, Mrs. William H. Bolling, Miss Annie Edwards, Miss Mabel Boardman, Miss Isabella Wells, Miss Josephine Goldmark, Miss Julia C. Lathrop, Miss Mabel Stone, Miss Ethel Barclay, Miss Bertha Bolling, Miss Wilson, Miss Jones, Miss Benham, Mr. Edward W. Sheldon, Doctor Sterling Ruffin, and Mr. Paul Reimera.

Mr. Reimera, with Mr. Maurice Elmer at the piano, gave the following program after dinner: Romanze, Schumann; Der Jager, Grieg; Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes, False Phyllis, Old English; Si tu etas, Stojowski; Pappilons, Chausson; La Miroir, Franck; Le Passant, Hue; International popular and folk songs—Denny's Daughter (Huhn), Irish; Magas-an repul a daru, Hungarian; Dinauche a l'aube, French; The Bonny Earl of O'More, Scotch; Mi Nina (Gostary), Spanish; Der Kleine Rekrut (Children's Song), German.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall were the guests of honor at a dinner given last evening by the Secretary of State and Mrs. Davis. Present were: Mrs. Panaretto, the Chinese Minister and Mrs. Koo, the Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Redfield, Representative and Mrs. Henry G. Danforth, Representative Roscoe C. McCulloch, Representative and Mrs. J. Willard Ragsdale, Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Walcott, Gen. and Mrs. Charles L. Fitching, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Wood, Col. Squier, Mrs. Walsh and Mrs. Ross Thompson.

Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. William Phillips were hosts at dinner last evening at their residence in L. Street.

Mrs. Houston, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, will be at home this afternoon, when she will have assisting her Mrs. Thomas P. Gore, Mrs. W. C. Hawley, Mrs. A. E. Lever, Mrs. Carl Vrooman, Mrs. Richard Olney, Mrs. Montgomery Blair, Mrs. C. L. Mariatt and Mrs. Paul M. Warburg.

Smart society in large numbers went over to Fort Myer last evening for the hop given by the officers stationed at the post in the Administration Building. Several large dinner parties preceded the dance, which was the first to be given at Fort Myer this season, and was attended by a distinguished company.

The building was in festive array with palms, ferns, flags and bunting. The ballroom was decorated with masses of pink roses and carnations against a background of palms and smilax. The walls and ceiling were hung with silk bunting, and numerous silk standards representing every branch of the army veiled the walls. At one end of the room a large 2, representing the Second Cavalry, was formed of electric lights.

Capt. Archibald Miller, the adjutant of the post, presented the guests who were received by Mrs. Fenton, wife of Maj. Charles W. Fenton, commandant; Mrs. Archibald Miller, and Mrs. William E. French.

Supper was served at midnight in two large rooms on the lower floor of the building, which were also decorated with flags and palms. The guests were seated at small tables. In the absence of the cavalry band, Boernstein's Orchestra furnished the music.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker were the honor guests at a dinner given by Maj. and Mrs. Charles W. Fenton last evening preceding the hop.

Capt. and Mrs. David Hunt, Scott entertained at dinner before the hop, having as their guests Miss Marion Littlebrant and Miss Laura Littlebrant, daughters of Col. William T. Littlebrant, who are visiting them; Miss Margaret King, who is also their house guest; Mr. Cauda, chef d'affaires of Nicaragua; Mr. Costigan, Mr. Joseph P. Annin, Lieut. Godwin and Lieut. King.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles H. Halght were hosts at dinner before the hop, when their guests included Miss Eloise Meyer, Maj. and Mrs. Fox Connor, Mr. George Oakley Totten and Lieut. Palmer.

Mrs. William J. Glasgow gave a dinner party before the hop, her guests including Col. and Mrs. Louis Scherer, Maj. and Mrs. Kingman, Miss Genevieve Johnson, Mrs. George P. Egan, Mrs. George T. May, Mrs. Gist Blair, Miss Josephine Patten and Miss Sherrill. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick, who were the house guests of Mr. Robert Patterson, left yesterday for Canada.

Mrs. Samuel Spencer was hostess at a large card party last evening at her residence in Massachusetts avenue. Supper was served late in the evening.

Mrs. James Duncan Gatewood and her daughter, Mrs. Henry E. Jenkins, will be at home today for the last time this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith Miller, jr. of Milwaukee, are the new headquarters at the Shoreham for their stay in Washington.

Mrs. Albert Clemons, 1615 New Hampshire avenue, will not be at home today.

Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis was hostess at a luncheon at the Shoreham in compliment to Mrs. Robert McCormick, jr. The decorations consisted of spring violets and white sweet peas. The other guests were Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. George P. Egan, Mrs. George T. May, Mrs. Gist Blair, Miss Josephine Patten and Miss Sherrill. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick, who were the house guests of Mr. Robert Patterson, left yesterday for Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hudson, who have been extensively entertained during their Washington stay, were hosts at a dinner for fourteen covers at the Rose Room of the Shoreham last evening.

The College Woman's Club will entertain at a reception this evening at the club rooms, 1007 P Street. There will be a program of music by the Nevin Quartet, to be followed by dancing. Men guests of the members will be welcomed.

The members of the College Women's Club, representing the University of Michigan, Michigan Agricultural College, Adrian College, University of Minnesota, Minnesota State Normal School, Carleton College and the University of Wisconsin, were hostesses at a tea at the club rooms last afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. Miss Claribel Barnett, chairman, introduced the guest of honor, Mr. Frank S. Bright, who has just returned from an eventful European trip.

After tea was served Mr. Bright related his experiences in England and the Scandinavian countries.

An interesting wedding to take place in the spring will be that of Miss Violet Erskine and Mr. Horace Seymour, both secretaries of the British Embassy, where the ceremony will take place in April.

Miss Erskine, who is a daughter of the British consul, is the first woman diplomatist. She was attached to the staff of the British Embassy at Washington not long after the beginning of the war, being among the assistants of the late Sir Richard Crawford, minister plenipotentiary and commercial adviser of the Washington Embassy, her familiarity with customs affairs and with American institutions being especially fitting for her duties as a diplomatist.

Mr. Horace Seymour, who has been in the United States for several years, having been transferred to Washington from the foreign office at London. Mr. Seymour and his bride will return to England immediately after their marriage, the latter giving up her diplomatic career.

Mrs. Chaffee, widow of the late Lieut. Gen. A. D. Chaffee, is at the Shoreham for a short stay en route to the Southwest.

The Dixie Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will give a George Washington birthday member luncheon at the Memorial Home on the evening of February 22.

Mrs. Paul L. Joachim is in charge and will be assisted by Mrs. A. H. Mitchell, Mrs. J. W. Rose, Miss Lucy Morton, and Miss Mary Coleman.

Mrs. George J. Newgarden will not receive today.

Robert E. Lee Chapter, No. 644, U. D. C., will give a card party at Confederate Memorial Home, 1322 Vermont avenue, Friday evening, February 2, at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served during the evening. The success of the party is assured by the many tables which have already been engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nichols, and Mrs. C. L. Bodrero are prominent New Yorkers passing several days at the Shoreham.

Mrs. Dapray, wife of Maj. John A. Dapray, will not be home today, but will receive Wednesdays through February.

LAWYER ATTACKS VALUATION.

S. R. Bowen, secretary and counsel of the Potomac Electric Power Company, presented arguments on the valuation of the company's properties to the Public Utilities Commission yesterday and declared that the report of Andrew Sangster, chief accountant of the commission, should not be considered.

The commission overruled a motion made by Mr. Bowen to this effect.

Coal in Switzerland now sells at from $15.96 to $18.12 for a metric ton.

Expecting the Stork?

Every mother-to-be should be in the midst of pleasant and comfortable surroundings, and a constant user of "Mother's Friend," the true friend of expectant mothers. The future baby's health and that of its mother is of utmost importance and nothing can take the place of "Mother's Friend" in preparing for such an event. Get it at your druggist. Write for free book on Motherhood.

Address THE BRADFORD REGULATOR CO., 210 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

LOOK! See the G. St. window display of Shirts at $1.35

The Congressional Club will entertain an illustrated talk on "The Development of the Capital" on Friday afternoon, February 2, at 4 o'clock. Tea will be served at 5 o'clock.

The New York Southern Society will send a delegation composed of Mr. Walter L. McCormick, Mr. Robert L. Harrison, and Mr. Percy S. Mallett, to represent them at the Southern Relief Ball at the Willard next Monday evening.

Miss Anne Hopkins, chairman of the young ladies' committee, and Mrs. Lyman Pratt, vice chairman, have selected these additional young girls to assist them: Miss Natalie Bliss, Miss Hildegard Hurley, the Bliss Hamilton, Miss Tratte, Miss Margherita Tillman, Miss Dorothy Dennett, Miss Brooks, Miss Catherine Burdette, Miss Carolyn Mountain, Miss Marlor McCauley, Miss Julia Mattis, Miss Emma Bulloch, Miss Marie Adams, Miss Lydia Brown, Miss Natalie Bulkley, Miss Natalie Magruder, Miss Pauline Kindelberger and Miss Dorothy Campbell.

Mrs. Theodore Boynton has with her this week Mrs. Van Rensselaer, of Albany, who was appointed by Gov. Whitman as a delegate to the Congress of Constructive Patriotism.

Mrs. Boynton entertained at dinner Monday evening in honor of her guest.

Mrs. Chase Palmer will be at home informally tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith Miller, jr. of Milwaukee, are the new headquarters at the Shoreham for their stay in Washington.

Mrs. Samuel Spencer was hostess at a large card party last evening at her residence in Massachusetts avenue. Supper was served late in the evening.

Mrs. James Duncan Gatewood and her daughter, Mrs. Henry E. Jenkins, will be at home today for the last time this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith Miller, jr. of Milwaukee, are the new headquarters at the Shoreham for their stay in Washington.

Mrs. Albert Clemons, 1615 New Hampshire avenue, will not be at home today.

Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis was hostess at a luncheon at the Shoreham in compliment to Mrs. Robert McCormick, jr. The decorations consisted of spring violets and white sweet peas. The other guests were Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. George P. Egan, Mrs. George T. May, Mrs. Gist Blair, Miss Josephine Patten and Miss Sherrill. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick, who were the house guests of Mr. Robert Patterson, left yesterday for Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hudson, who have been extensively entertained during their Washington stay, were hosts at a dinner for fourteen covers at the Rose Room of the Shoreham last evening.

The College Woman's Club will entertain at a reception this evening at the club rooms, 1007 P Street. There will be a program of music by the Nevin Quartet, to be followed by dancing. Men guests of the members will be welcomed.

The members of the College Women's Club, representing the University of Michigan, Michigan Agricultural College, Adrian College, University of Minnesota, Minnesota State Normal School, Carleton College and the University of Wisconsin, were hostesses at a tea at the club rooms last afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. Miss Claribel Barnett, chairman, introduced the guest of honor, Mr. Frank S. Bright, who has just returned from an eventful European trip.

After tea was served Mr. Bright related his experiences in England and the Scandinavian countries.

An interesting wedding to take place in the spring will be that of Miss Violet Erskine and Mr. Horace Seymour, both secretaries of the British Embassy, where the ceremony will take place in April.

Miss Erskine, who is a daughter of the British consul, is the first woman diplomatist. She was attached to the staff of the British Embassy at Washington not long after the beginning of the war, being among the assistants of the late Sir Richard Crawford, minister plenipotentiary and commercial adviser of the Washington Embassy, her familiarity with customs affairs and with American institutions being especially fitting for her duties as a diplomatist.

Mr. Horace Seymour, who has been in the United States for several years, having been transferred to Washington from the foreign office at London. Mr. Seymour and his bride will return to England immediately after their marriage, the latter giving up her diplomatic career.

Mrs. Chaffee, widow of the late Lieut. Gen. A. D. Chaffee, is at the Shoreham for a short stay en route to the Southwest.

The Dixie Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will give a George Washington birthday member luncheon at the Memorial Home on the evening of February 22.

Mrs. Paul L. Joachim is in charge and will be assisted by Mrs. A. H. Mitchell, Mrs. J. W. Rose, Miss Lucy Morton, and Miss Mary Coleman.

Mrs. George J. Newgarden will not receive today.

Robert E. Lee Chapter, No. 644, U. D. C., will give a card party at Confederate Memorial Home, 1322 Vermont avenue, Friday evening, February 2, at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served during the evening. The success of the party is assured by the many tables which have already been engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nichols, and Mrs. C. L. Bodrero are prominent New Yorkers passing several days at the Shoreham.

Mrs. Dapray, wife of Maj. John A. Dapray, will not be home today, but will receive Wednesdays through February.

LAWYER ATTACKS VALUATION.

S. R. Bowen, secretary and counsel of the Potomac Electric Power Company, presented arguments on the valuation of the company's properties to the Public Utilities Commission yesterday and declared that the report of Andrew Sangster, chief accountant of the commission, should not be considered.

The commission overruled a motion made by Mr. Bowen to this effect.

Coal in Switzerland now sells at from $15.96 to $18.12 for a metric ton.

Expecting the Stork?

Every mother-to-be should be in the midst of pleasant and comfortable surroundings, and a constant user of "Mother's Friend," the true friend of expectant mothers. The future baby's health and that of its mother is of utmost importance and nothing can take the place of "Mother's Friend" in preparing for such an event. Get it at your druggist. Write for free book on Motherhood.

Address THE BRADFORD REGULATOR CO., 210 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

LOOK! See the G. St. window display of Shirts at $1.35

The Congressional Club will entertain an illustrated talk on "The Development of the Capital" on Friday afternoon, February 2, at 4 o'clock. Tea will be served at 5 o'clock.

The New York Southern Society will send a delegation composed of Mr. Walter L. McCormick, Mr. Robert L. Harrison, and Mr. Percy S. Mallett, to represent them at the Southern Relief Ball at the Willard next Monday evening.

Miss Anne Hopkins, chairman of the young ladies' committee, and Mrs. Lyman Pratt, vice chairman, have selected these additional young girls to assist them: Miss Natalie Bliss, Miss Hildegard Hurley, the Bliss Hamilton, Miss Tratte, Miss Margherita Tillman, Miss Dorothy Dennett, Miss Brooks, Miss Catherine Burdette, Miss Carolyn Mountain, Miss Marlor McCauley, Miss Julia Mattis, Miss Emma Bulloch, Miss Marie Adams, Miss Lydia Brown, Miss Natalie Bulkley, Miss Natalie Magruder, Miss Pauline Kindelberger and Miss Dorothy Campbell.

Mrs. Theodore Boynton has with her this week Mrs. Van Rensselaer, of Albany, who was appointed by Gov. Whitman as a delegate to the Congress of Constructive Patriotism.

Mrs. Boynton entertained at dinner Monday evening in honor of her guest.

Mrs. Chase Palmer will be at home informally tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith Miller, jr. of Milwaukee, are the new headquarters at the Shoreham for their stay in Washington.

Mrs. Samuel Spencer was hostess at a large card party last evening at her residence in Massachusetts avenue. Supper was served late in the evening.

Mrs. James Duncan Gatewood and her daughter, Mrs. Henry E. Jenkins, will be at home today for the last time this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith Miller, jr. of Milwaukee, are the new headquarters at the Shoreham for their stay in Washington.

Mrs. Albert Clemons, 1615 New Hampshire avenue, will not be at home today.

Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis was hostess at a luncheon at the Shoreham in compliment to Mrs. Robert McCormick, jr. The decorations consisted of spring violets and white sweet peas. The other guests were Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. George P. Egan, Mrs. George T. May, Mrs. Gist Blair, Miss Josephine Patten and Miss Sherrill. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick, who were the house guests of Mr. Robert Patterson, left yesterday for Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hudson, who have been extensively entertained during their Washington stay, were hosts at a dinner for fourteen covers at the Rose Room of the Shoreham last evening.

The College Woman's Club will entertain at a reception this evening at the club rooms, 1007 P Street. There will be a program of music by the Nevin Quartet, to be followed by dancing. Men guests of the members will be welcomed.

The members of the College Women's Club, representing the University of Michigan, Michigan Agricultural College, Adrian College, University of Minnesota, Minnesota State Normal School, Carleton College and the University of Wisconsin, were hostesses at a tea at the club rooms last afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. Miss Claribel Barnett, chairman, introduced the guest of honor, Mr. Frank S. Bright, who has just returned from an eventful European trip.

After tea was served Mr. Bright related his experiences in England and the Scandinavian countries.

An interesting wedding to take place in the spring will be that of Miss Violet Erskine and Mr. Horace Seymour, both secretaries of the British Embassy, where the ceremony will take place in April.

Miss Erskine, who is a daughter of the British consul, is the first woman diplomatist. She was attached to the staff of the British Embassy at Washington not long after the beginning of the war, being among the assistants of the late Sir Richard Crawford, minister plenipotentiary and commercial adviser of the Washington Embassy, her familiarity with customs affairs and with American institutions being especially fitting for her duties as a diplomatist.

Mr. Horace Seymour, who has been in the United States for several years, having been transferred to Washington from the foreign office at London. Mr. Seymour and his bride will return to England immediately after their marriage, the latter giving up her diplomatic career.

Mrs. Chaffee, widow of the late Lieut. Gen. A. D. Chaffee, is at the Shoreham for a short stay en route to the Southwest.

The Dixie Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will give a George Washington birthday member luncheon at the Memorial Home on the evening of February 22.

Mrs. Paul L. Joachim is in charge and will be assisted by Mrs. A. H. Mitchell, Mrs. J. W. Rose, Miss Lucy Morton, and Miss Mary Coleman.

Mrs. George J. Newgarden will not receive today.

Robert E. Lee Chapter, No. 644, U. D. C., will give a card party at Confederate Memorial Home, 1322 Vermont avenue, Friday evening, February 2, at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served during the evening. The success of the party is assured by the many tables which have already been engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nichols, and Mrs. C. L. Bodrero are prominent New Yorkers passing several days at the Shoreham.

Mrs. Dapray, wife of Maj. John A. Dapray, will not be home today, but will receive Wednesdays through February.

LAWYER ATTACKS VALUATION.

S. R. Bowen, secretary and counsel of the Potomac Electric Power Company, presented arguments on the valuation of the company's properties to the Public Utilities Commission yesterday and declared that the report of Andrew Sangster, chief accountant of the commission, should not be considered.

The commission overruled a motion made by Mr. Bowen to this effect.

Coal in Switzerland now sells at from $15.96 to $18.12 for a metric ton.

Expecting the Stork?

Every mother-to-be should be in the midst of pleasant and comfortable surroundings, and a constant user of "Mother's Friend," the true friend of expectant mothers. The future baby's health and that of its mother is of utmost importance and nothing can take the place of "Mother's Friend" in preparing for such an event. Get it at your druggist. Write for free book on Motherhood.

Address THE BRADFORD REGULATOR CO., 210 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

LOOK! See the G. St. window display of Shirts at $1.35

The Congressional Club will entertain an illustrated talk on "The Development of the Capital" on Friday afternoon, February 2, at 4 o'clock. Tea will be served at 5 o'clock.

The New York Southern Society will send a delegation composed of Mr. Walter L. McCormick, Mr. Robert L. Harrison, and Mr. Percy S. Mallett, to represent them at the Southern Relief Ball at the Willard next Monday evening.

Miss Anne Hopkins, chairman of the young ladies' committee, and Mrs. Lyman Pratt, vice chairman, have selected these additional young girls to assist them: Miss Natalie Bliss, Miss Hildegard Hurley, the Bliss Hamilton, Miss Tratte, Miss Margherita Tillman, Miss Dorothy Dennett, Miss Brooks, Miss Catherine Burdette, Miss Carolyn Mountain, Miss Marlor McCauley, Miss Julia Mattis, Miss Emma Bulloch, Miss Marie Adams, Miss Lydia Brown, Miss Natalie Bulkley, Miss Natalie Magruder, Miss Pauline Kindelberger and Miss Dorothy Campbell.

Mrs. Theodore Boynton has with her this week Mrs. Van Rensselaer, of Albany, who was appointed by Gov. Whitman as a delegate to the Congress of Constructive Patriotism.

Mrs. Boynton entertained at dinner Monday evening in honor of her guest.

Mrs. Chase Palmer will be at home informally tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith Miller, jr. of Milwaukee, are the new headquarters at the Shoreham for their stay in Washington.

Mrs. Samuel Spencer was hostess at a large card party last evening at her residence in Massachusetts avenue. Supper was served late in the evening.

Mrs. James Duncan Gatewood and her daughter, Mrs. Henry E. Jenkins, will be at home today for the last time this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith Miller, jr. of Milwaukee, are the new headquarters at the Shoreham for their stay in Washington.

Mrs. Albert Clemons, 1615 New Hampshire avenue, will not be at home today.

Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis was hostess at a luncheon at the Shoreham in compliment to Mrs. Robert McCormick, jr. The decorations consisted of spring violets and white sweet peas. The other guests were Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. George P. Egan, Mrs. George T. May, Mrs. Gist Blair, Miss Josephine Patten and Miss Sherrill. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick, who were the house guests of Mr. Robert Patterson, left yesterday for Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hudson, who have been extensively entertained during their Washington stay, were hosts at a dinner for fourteen covers at the Rose Room of the Shoreham last evening.

The College Woman's Club will entertain at a reception this evening at the club rooms, 1007 P Street. There will be a program of music by the Nevin Quartet, to be followed by dancing. Men guests of the members will be welcomed.

The members of the College Women's Club, representing the University of Michigan, Michigan Agricultural College, Adrian College, University of Minnesota, Minnesota State Normal School, Carleton College and the University of Wisconsin, were hostesses at a tea at the club rooms last afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. Miss Claribel Barnett, chairman, introduced the guest of honor, Mr. Frank S. Bright, who has just returned from an eventful European trip.

After tea was served Mr. Bright related his experiences in England and the Scandinavian countries.

An interesting wedding to take place in the spring will be that of Miss Violet Erskine and Mr. Horace Seymour, both secretaries of the British Embassy, where the ceremony will take place in April.

Miss Erskine, who is a daughter of the British consul, is the first woman diplomatist. She was attached to the staff of the British Embassy at Washington not long after the beginning of the war, being among the assistants of the late Sir Richard Crawford, minister plenipotentiary and commercial adviser of the Washington Embassy, her familiarity with customs affairs and with American institutions being especially fitting for her duties as a diplomatist.

Mr. Horace Seymour, who has been in the United States for several years, having been transferred to Washington from the foreign office at London. Mr. Seymour and his bride will return to England immediately after their marriage, the latter giving up her diplomatic career.

Mrs. Chaffee, widow of the late Lieut. Gen. A. D. Chaffee, is at the Shoreham for a short stay en route to the Southwest.

The Dixie Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will give a George Washington birthday member luncheon at the Memorial Home on the evening of February 22.

Mrs. Paul L. Joachim is in charge and will be assisted by Mrs. A. H. Mitchell, Mrs. J. W. Rose, Miss Lucy Morton, and Miss Mary Coleman.

Mrs. George J. Newgarden will not receive today.

Robert E. Lee Chapter, No. 644, U. D. C., will give a card party at Confederate Memorial Home, 1322 Vermont avenue, Friday evening, February 2, at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served during the evening. The success of the party is assured by the many tables which have already been engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nichols, and Mrs. C. L. Bodrero are prominent New Yorkers passing several days at the Shoreham.

Mrs. Dapray, wife of Maj. John A. Dapray, will not be home today, but will receive Wednesdays through February.

LAWYER ATTACKS VALUATION.

S. R. Bowen, secretary and counsel of the Potomac Electric Power Company, presented arguments on the valuation of the company's properties to the Public Utilities Commission yesterday and declared that the report of Andrew Sangster, chief accountant of the commission, should not be considered.

The commission overruled a motion made by Mr. Bowen to this effect.

Coal in Switzerland now sells at from $15.96 to $18.12 for a metric ton.

Expecting the Stork?

Every mother-to-be should be in the midst of pleasant and comfortable surroundings, and a constant user of "Mother's Friend," the true friend of expectant mothers. The future baby's health and that of its mother is of utmost importance and nothing can take the place of "Mother's Friend" in preparing for such an event. Get it at your druggist. Write for free book on Motherhood.

Address THE BRADFORD REGULATOR CO., 210 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

LOOK! See the G. St. window display of Shirts at $1.35

The Congressional Club will entertain an illustrated talk on "The Development of the Capital" on Friday afternoon, February 2, at 4 o'clock. Tea will be served at 5 o'clock.

The New York Southern Society will send a delegation composed of Mr. Walter L. McCormick, Mr. Robert L. Harrison, and Mr. Percy S. Mallett, to represent them at the Southern Relief Ball at the Willard next Monday evening.

Miss Anne Hopkins, chairman of the young ladies' committee, and Mrs. Lyman Pratt, vice chairman, have selected these additional young girls to assist them: Miss Natalie Bliss, Miss Hildegard Hurley, the Bliss Hamilton, Miss Tratte, Miss Margherita Tillman, Miss Dorothy Dennett, Miss Brooks, Miss Catherine Burdette, Miss Carolyn Mountain, Miss Marlor McCauley, Miss Julia Mattis, Miss Emma Bulloch, Miss Marie Adams, Miss Lydia Brown, Miss Natalie Bulkley, Miss Natalie Magruder, Miss Pauline Kindelberger and Miss Dorothy Campbell.

Mrs. Theodore Boynton has with her this week Mrs. Van Rensselaer, of Albany, who was appointed by Gov. Whitman as a delegate to the Congress of Constructive Patriotism.

Mrs. Boynton entertained at dinner Monday evening in honor of her guest.

Mrs. Chase Palmer will be at home informally tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith Miller, jr. of Milwaukee, are the new headquarters at the Shoreham for their stay in Washington.

Mrs. Samuel Spencer was hostess at a large card party last evening at her residence in Massachusetts avenue. Supper was served late in the evening.

Mrs. James Duncan Gatewood and her daughter, Mrs. Henry E. Jenkins, will be at home today for the last time this season.

Mr. and Mrs.