

Nutshell News

Emma Chambers, 70, 827 Elliott street northeast, slipped and fell down a flight of cellar steps yesterday morning and is now in Casualty Hospital suffering from contusions about the head and body.

The apartment of Mrs. Lillian Browning, 1014 Tenth street northwest, yesterday was entered by a thief with a duplicate key. A German silver jewelry box containing $13 in bills, some change and a pawn ticket were stolen.

Marie Ford, 1219 Ninth street northwest, yesterday reported to the police that her home had been entered and robbed of a corded coat, a corduroy skirt, one bed-spread and four sheets, valued at $10.

An electric search-light on the automobile of J. D. Johnson, 1689 Newton street northwest, was stolen Thursday night as the machine stood in front of 1513 R street northwest.

The office of J. James, 1521 G street northwest, yesterday was damaged to the extent of $1,500 by fire caused by an overheated stove. No one was injured. The office was a temporary structure for use in connection with building operations.

Edward Brooks, colored, 22 years old, of Occoquan, Va., fell overboard from a scow of the Columbia Granite and Dredging Company near Oxen Run, Md., and was drowned. The body was recovered by William Simmons, Alexandria, Va.

Two latrobe pots valued at $5 were stolen yesterday from the back yard at the home of Clyde L. Bowers, 1207 H street northwest, according to a report received at police headquarters.

Benjamin Scales, 1803 Q street, reported to the police yesterday that his place had been broken into Thursday night and $7 worth of chewing gum and smoking material taken. Entrance was gained by smashing a front window.

Thieves stole several lengths of garden hose and several brushes and property of Daniel's Realty Company, from 17 Rhode Island avenue, valued at $10, according to a report made to the police yesterday.

Edward Buckner, colored, 40 years old, died without medical attention at his home, 212 Broadway alley southwest, yesterday. Coroner Corbett was notified.

Mary Thomas, colored, was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary yesterday by Justice Gould in Criminal Division No. 1. The woman was convicted of performing an operation on Esther Fleet on January 7, causing the latter's death. Attorney Thomas L. Jones represented the accused and Assistant United States Attorney Leahy conducted the prosecution.

Harry Dougherty, who was convicted January 19 of manslaughter in connection with the death of Granville Mills, who, he testified, made insulting remarks to his wife, will not have to go to jail as a result of the fracas. Justice Gould, of the District Court, has had the case under advisement for several weeks and announced yesterday that he would release Dougherty under personal bonds.

On account of alleged failure to pay his wife alimony as ordered by the court, James P. McDonald, a local contractor, is under $1,500 bail in New York, having been arrested for contempt of court. He is said to be back in his alimony payments to the extent of $4,950.

James Scriven, 18, and Sylvester Dudley, 17, were held in $2,000 bail yesterday to answer charges of wholesale looting of vacant houses. Forty-three cases, the police say, are lodged against each of the boys. Detective Simpson, of the First Precinct, and Policemen Wernhelm and Trice arrested the alleged looters.

Lieut. Col. Chester Harding, governor of the Canal Zone, has been elected president of the Panama Railroad, the War Department was notified yesterday. He succeeds Maj. Gen. Goethals, former governor of the road.

Charles Cummins, stand 7 and 8, Eastern Market, yesterday reported to the police that he had lost from his automobile during the afternoon one 8-pound ham, two packages of coffee, three cans of sardines, four pounds of hominy, and a dozen oranges, total value $4.50.

John P. Wetherill, 15 years old, 1870 Wyoming avenue northwest, while riding horseback yesterday morning, fell with his mount and sustained a sprained ankle. The lad was taken home by friends. Later he was treated at Garfield Hospital.

The Seventeenth Infantry will arrive at Fort McPherson and Oglethorpe, Ga., today to guard the 800 interned German sailors whose transfer has been ordered from their ships in Philadelphia. Companies A, B, C, D, E and F will take half of the sailors to McPherson, and Companies G, H, I, K, L, M will guard the other half at Oglethorpe.

Charles Dunning, employed by the Cudahy Packing Company, was arraigned yesterday before the United States Branch of the Police Court on a charge of stealing provisions from his employers. Policeman V. A. Osterman, who took the stand against Dunning, charged that the prisoner stole a large ham and a shoulder, concealing them under his coat. He was sentenced to sixty days in jail.

NEW YORK HOTEL ARRIVALS.

Special to The Washington Herald.
New York, March 23.—The following Washingtons are registered at hotels here: F. G. Cottrell, Murray Hill; D. Dale, Van Cortlandt; Mrs. R. G. Hoos, Martha Washington; G. R. Macomber, Continental; H. T. Rodier, Hermitage; J. Stein, Hermitage; H. A. Vale, Bristol; Mrs. J. Adams, Marlboro; W. Barry, New Victoria; Mrs. W. Barry, New Victoria; M. F. Fry, Breckin; W. J. Marjole, Grand; Miss R. McCann, Martha Washington; Mrs. J. Parker, Marlborough; F. L. Francis, Murry Hill; W. J. Hughson, Herald Square; D. A. Kennedy, Woodward; E. F. Lane, Grand; Mrs. E. F. Lane, Grand; E. S. McKim, Hermitage; C. H. Saffell, Wellington; J. B. Shelby, Netherland; W. A. Weed, Park Avenue; C. H. Buttes, Murry Hill; H. Goldman, Broadway Central; S. F. Howland, Arlington; D. E. Casey, Wallack; G. R. Gilbert, Bristol; Mrs. G. B. Gilbert, Bristol.

MEANS WAR, SAYS CRISP.

Americus, Ga., March 23.—That the calling of the extraordinary session of Congress on April 2 means a declaration of war by the United States against Germany, was the opinion expressed today by Representative Chas. B. Crisp, member of the Ways and Means Committee. "There is no question in mind but that Congress will accede to any request made by President Wilson, and I believe that nothing short of a formal declaration of war will result," said the Congressman.

20,000 TO GUARD RAILWAY.

Mexico, City, March 23.—The War Department has completed arrangements for the raising of an army of 20,000 men to protect the principal railway lines from raids by bandits. It was announced today that this is one of the chief features in the scheme for the pacification of Mexico.

Henry P. Fletcher, now American ambassador to Mexico, will hold a reception tomorrow to meet the members of the American colonies.

The Woodward & Lothrop Men's Store

Spring and Easter Styles Specially Selected for The Young Men

TO MEET THE MOST EXACTING TASTES OF THOSE MEN WHO TAKE A PARTICULAR PRIDE IN THEIR APPEARANCE AND REALIZE THE IMPORTANCE OF THEIR APPAREL.

Easter and Spring assortments are now entirely complete in the Men's Store--Clothing, Haberdashery, Hats and Shoes showing the most delightful style changes and the brightest and most effective novelties that any season has brought forth. Everything that has been stamped with approval is here, and of the highest quality. Those who through preference or reason demand the more conservative types are equally well provided for. And though conservative, they have a certain distinction that is enviable.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

TAN AND BLACK LOW SHOES IN SMART NEW MODELS

Shoes that are the last word in smartness of design—recognized by style authorities as the best. They will add the necessary sense of feeling well dressed.

New models at $7.00—Handsome Tan and Black Russia Calfskin, high quality leather; last of custom appearance, snug fitting around heel and neck, with a particularly good arch. Also the "Nu-Arch" Oxford Tie in tan and black; an excellent shoe for the support of the arch with style enough to please any man.

New models at $6.00—Black and Mahogany Tan Russia Calfskin—English last, slightly rounded toe, low heel; also Dark Tan Blucher Oxfords.

Main Floor—Tenth st.

HATS IN EVERY GOOD SHAPE AND MODEL

Probably more men are "finicky" about the selection of their Hats than any of their wearing apparel. To meet this condition we select our Hats with extreme judgment and care, taking pains to assure the correctness of each model, and to get individual models for young men and the mature men; the novelties and the conservative blocks. Our stock now contains all the good models for spring and Easter in the various shades of gray, tan, brown and green.

Our Colonial Hats at $3.00—Among this splendid line is one model with a fancy crush silk embroidered band to match or contrast with the color of the hat. This is decidedly a young men's model with the military tendencies plainly in evidence.

Main Floor—F st.

BELTED BACK, NORFOLKS, PINCH-BACKS AND VARIATIONS IN SPORT SUITS

Continue to Be the Best Fashion for Young Men and Youths

We are making a more determined effort than ever on Young Men's Models, and show a larger assortment than ever before attempted, comprising all the latest style features in extreme novelties and the plainer garments. Many variations in Belted Coats, both single and double-breasted.

To particularize on all the features which distinguish these Suits from the casual garments is impossible, but suffice it to say that every worthy style creation is shown. Plain color fabrics and very fine fancy weaves.

With all this attention to Young Men's Models you may be assured that our noted assortments of conservative fabrics have not been overlooked.

Handsome Pinch-back models in Youths' Suits of plain blue, green and gray soft worsteds, sizes 33 to 40, $15.00 and up. Young Men's and Men's Suits, all models, $15.00 to $35.00.

Main Floor—Tenth st.

Gloves of Approved Correctness

Gray and Tan for street and general wear, and white as always for formal occasions.

Fowne's Pure Silk Gloves, plain gray and gray with black embroidered back; double tipped fingers, $1.00 pair.

Gray Suede Gloves—spring-weight; light, medium and dark shades, $2.75 pair.

Dent's Light-weight Gray Mocha Gloves, a soft and pliable glove of the most elegant quality; black embroidered backs, $3.50 pair.

Tan Washable Chamois Gloves, with silk stitched back, $2.00 pair.

Link Cuff Buttons To Use With Soft Shirts

It is the fashion to have the Cuff Links match the predominating color of the Shirt. We have every color and many designs in Enameled Silver. $1.00 to $3.00 pair.

High School Cadets' Drilling Gloves

We have just received a large fresh assortment of White Cotton Gloves for high school cadets' use. There has been a notable scarcity of these gloves, but we are glad to offer all sizes at this time. However, selections should be made at once. 25c pair.

Soft & Stiff Collars In Correct Shapes

Arrow Form-fitting Collars; four models, including the two new ones just introduced, and all the other popular shapes, 2 for 30c. Earl and Wilson Collars, 15c and 25c each. Soft Collars of many fabrics and shapes, 15c, 25c and 50c.

Main floor—F st. entrance.

Clocked and Striped Hose

Are the Smartest

The tasteful color contrasts presented by clocks and circular stripes in men's silk socks are giving them the preference with young men who dress according to fashion. There is a wide variety to select from.

55c, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00 pair.

Plain-colored Silk Hose—We have splendid assortment at the old popular price of 50c, and others at 75c, $1.00 and $1.50.

Walking Sticks For Every Man of Fashion

Colors, woods and shapes that immediately designate ours as the correct fashion. Light, dark and medium colored woods—greens, tans, black, ivory; mostly crook handles with Sterling silver bands and caps. $1.00 to $12.00.

LUGGAGE DEPARTMENT, Fourth Floor, Tenth Street Ready With the Largest Display of WARDROBE TRUNKS Ever Shown by This Store

Here, as is naturally to be expected with such a tremendous stock, you will find more styles than is usually offered, and the prices are right, quality considered.

Two famous makes of Wardrobe Trunks, well known for excellence, are:
SAFE-LOCK WARDROBE. HARTMAN WARDROBE.

No finer, handsomer or more durable and convenient trunks are to be had.

Fourth floor—Tenth st.