REGULARS LOSE AGAIN TO GRIFF'S YANNIGANS

Youngsters Capture Two Inter-Club Games by 3 to 1 and 4 to 0.

Clark Griffith's Yannigan team, under the leadership of Capt. George McBride, handed two setbacks to the Regulars yesterday in the inter-club contests played at the Florida avenue stadium. In the morning game "Lefty" Jamieson pitched the Yannigans to a nine-inning victory over the regulars by a 3-to-0 count. Doc Ayers went the entire route for the Regulars, and although beaten, showed midsession form.

The Yannigans jumped on the delivery of Bert Gallia in the afternoon contest and were well on the road to a victory when the Old Fox hustled them out to Union League Park to do battle with the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Railroaders. The Yannigans were topping the Regulars with a 4-to-0 count when this sudden S O S call was issued. Smoke Ball Walter was serving them up for the kids and Sammy Rice was the only one of the regular troopers that dented his delivery in the four sessions in which he worked. Gallia was touched for eight safe blows in three seasons. Eddie Garrity and his big hitting playing the leading role with a triple and a double. The scores follow:

Business Nine on Top.

The Business baseball team journeyed to Alexandria yesterday and defeated the high school team of that city by 11 to 9. McDonald, who did the hurting for the Stonographers, was a trifle wild and gave way to Jones, who finished the game in good form and held the Alexandrians safe all the way. Score:

Fourth race—Fruit Cake, Warsaw, Ed Rey.
Fifth race—No selections.
Sixth race—Menlo Park, Orperth, Paulson.
Seventh race—Ray of Light, Disturber, Billie Baker.
Bowie, Md., April 5.—A good afternoon's sport was held at the Bowie course, and those that backed favorites were well rewarded.

Weather conditions were ideal and as a result the largest crowd of the meeting was on hand to witness the afternoon's sport. The defeat of True as Steel by Indian Chant in the fourth race was the feature of the afternoon's sport. Indian Chant broke quickly and held his field safe the entire journey. Dartworth, a prohibitive favorite, had no trouble in winning the fifth race, an affair of one mile. The summary: FIRST RACE—Selling; 2-year-olds; four furlongs. Marmot, W. 108 (McTaggart), $6.10, $4.10, $3.30; won; Ti for Tai, 106 (H. Wake), $6.10, $5.00; second; Lady (Sullivan), $4.80, $3.30, third; Time, 1:08.15. BROOKLANDERS HAND ZEROS TO LAFAYETTE

Catholic University Whitewash Eastern Collegians in Slow Game.

Catholic University baseball team yesterday defeated the Lafayette College in a fast game, 6 to 0. Coach Cameron gave his team a shake-up, taking Rooney off third base and replacing him in the outfield, and putting Cashman on the bag. The move proved a good one, as it added hitting power to the club. The visitors in the first inning, scoring a run on two hits and a pass ball by Lake.

GEORGETOWN MEETS LAFAYETTE TODAY

Georgetown today will meet probably one of the strongest teams that is on the Blue and Gray's 1917 baseball schedule, when they take on Lafayette University at 2 o'clock on the Hilltop. The Pennsylvanians are conceded throughout the East to have one of the fastest aggregations that has represented the Eastern school in years. Coach John O'Reilly in all probability will start either Dresden or Murray with the chances favoring the latter. Murray in his last two times out has performed in a very creditable manner and right now is going at top speed. The Georgetown players are brimful of confidence since their win over Lehigh yesterday and are determined to add another victory to their string.

Fulton Loses on Foul.

New York, April 4.—Carl Morris won from Fred Fulton tonight on a foul. The end came in the fifth round after a very rough battle. Early in the fifth Morris butted Fulton, splitting Fred's lips. In a hot mix-up that followed Fulton hit Morris very low with the blow. He followed with another low blow, his first landing very low on the groin. The referee stopped the bout and declared Morris the winner. Bat Nelson hates publicity just the same as Charley Ebbets hates holidays.

LYONS PROVES DUNN'S BEST YOUNG PITCHER

Baltimore, Md., April 4.—Chester Lyons, former Washington sand-lotter, has convinced Manager Dunn that he is the best of the young pitchers the Oriole magnate has in tow. Dunn believes that in Lyons he has picked up another Lefty Russell and is expecting great things from the National Capital hurler during the coming campaign. Alva Williams, another former Washingtonian, is showing excellent promise in form, both at the bat and afield, and the veteran is counted upon to stage a "come-back" stunt that will be a thriller.

GRIFF'S YANNIGANS TRIM RAILROADERS

Nationals' Youngsters Defeat W. & A. Club 5 to 3.

Clark Griffith slipped one over on local baseball fans yesterday when he issued a hurried call during the afternoon Yannigan-Regular battle, and hustled his peppery youngsters by taxi-cab route to Union League Park, to battle the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Railway club. George McBride piloted the "kids" to the grounds at Fifteenth and H street northeast, and a seven-inning contest was staged against the Railroaders, in which the Yannigans landed the long end of a 5-to-3 count. Jimmy Shaw toed the mound for the Railroaders. Although touched up for eight safe blows by the Railroaders, he kept the hits well scattered and it was not until the final session that the Naval Academy crew were able to cross the counting block. Al Ehmling, who last season pitched with the Chambersburg club of the Blue Ridge League, worked the first four innings and was nicked for seven hits and 45 Chesley. "Finney" Kelly pitched the last three innings against the Griffmen and made a creditable showing, as two safe blows were all the Nationals' youngsters could obtain while the curve-ball artist was in the center of the diamond. Howard Shanks' timely wallpops paved the way for a quartet of the Nationals runs. The score:

DIRECTORS ARE NAMED FOR LOCAL BALL CLUB

Mike Moran Willing to Report to Augusta—Corporate Dean Here.

The board of directors of the Washington Baseball Club of the American League met yesterday in the office of the club in the Southern Building. The directors of the club for this season were appointed and the business of last season closed. One new director was appointed on the board of seven. The board that will govern the financial affairs of the Nationals this season are President Benjamin S. Minor, Vice President Rudolph Kauffman, Secretary Edward J. Walsh, Treasurer Harry Rapley, Manager Clark C. Griffith, Michael T. Keane and Thornton Moran. Moran has a grand chance of coming back into the fold because of his ability to wield the willow and the Old Fox is shooting him to President Kalbfleisch's club with a string attached to him. The Old Fox last night denied the story from Wilmington that the Baltimore club was deking for the services of Joe Judge, as he claims that for the present he intends to keep Judge on the initial corner. The "Little Corporal" F. H. Dean, U. S. A., who drilled the athletes of the Nationals in military drills at the Augusta training camp, arrived here last night and will put the boys through the first drill that the squad has held since the get-away at training camp on March 22. "Cuba" Acosta wired the Old Fox that he would report for the morning practice today. Acosta has been detained at his home on the island because of the recent revolution, as his father was one of the generals among the Cuban rebels.
