

GIFTS TO RED CROSS GROW MORE NUMEROUS

Presence of U. S. Staff in Europe Emphasizes Needs. Now that the vanguard of our army and navy, and also of our Red Cross surgeons and nurses has reached the other side, there is a keener appreciation of the need for the Red Cross service both at home and abroad, which is reflected in the contributions...

The Herald's Sunday Sermon

The following sermon was written especially for The Washington Herald by the Rev. Mgr. C. F. Thomas, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Tenth and G streets northwest.

Faith.

Why seek ye to kill me? were the saddest and most plaintive words that our divine Lord addressed to those who were encompassing his death. There were conflicting opinions concerning him; there was much murmuring among the multitude about him. Some said: He is a good man. And others said: No, but he seduceth the people. Of all his pains and sorrows and persecutions he endured, the most acute came, I think, from the mistrust in him and his intentions...

To Debate in Church On Liquor Question

D. Clarence Gibboney, who attracted a great deal of attention when he came to Washington to argue against the District prohibition bill, and Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the board of temperance of the Methodist Church, will debate on the question of prohibition for liquor dealers in a debate in Metropolitan Methodist Church, at 7:45 Tuesday evening. They have already debated the question in Philadelphia where 3,000 persons were in attendance. An unusual feature of the affair will be a poll of the audience on the verdict. Each side is exhorting its followers to come out for the vote.

ITALY BLOCKS SOCIALISTS.

Rome (via Paris), June 9.—The minister of the interior has confirmed the report that no passports will be given to Italian Socialists to attend the conference at Stockholm. The minister considers the conference a maneuver of the central powers, aided by Russian extremists.

She Chased Him 14 Years To Get $156 in Alimony

New York, June 9.—When George S. Crager left New York fourteen years ago he was tall and stout. When arraigned today in the Domestic Relations Court, before Magistrate Cornell, he was small and slim. His wife, Mrs. Julia Crager, of 21 East Twenty-first street, who caused his arrest on a desertion charge, looked at him once, then shook her head. It took her ten minutes to identify him positively. He told the police that he had been Light for the Willing.

St. Paul expresses it as his conviction that if the princes of this world had known the wisdom of God as revealed through Christ they would never have crucified the Lord of Glory. Similarly, the world could be brought to even a faint glimpse of the radiant light of faith, men would not be so hasty in their opposition, so cruel in their persecution, so unreasonable in their doubts. The causes whence springs their antagonism lie within themselves, and do not originate in any radical defect on the part abroad for fourteen years and had returned from South America in April, in May his wife, who had not heard a word from him since he left in 1903, had a warrant issued for his arrest. Magistrate Cornell ordered him to pay his wife $5 every week toward her support, and Crager produced $10 in bills to cover the alimony for one year. "Secretary Baker," they were advised, "he'll tell you what can be done about it." According to an Italian scientist who has classified 4,000 cases of self-destruction, more suicides occur between the ages of 35 and 39 than at any other period in life.
