

The Man's Store—Official Weather Report—Showers.

DESERTS ARMY; UNDER ARREST

T. J. Fitzmaurice, of the District, Says He Won't Fight for U. S.

"I will not fight for the United States, and they can shoot me tomorrow if they like," declared Thomas J. Fitzmaurice when he was arrested yesterday at 12:30 o'clock on a charge of desertion from the national army of the United States, according to Central Office Detectives Cornwell and Berman, who made the arrest.

Provost Marshal Daniel J. Donovan was the complainant who caused Fitzmaurice to be taken into custody. According to Donovan the alleged deserter was drawn for military service by registration board No. 1, and was ordered to report to the Franklin School building, Thursday subsequent to leaving for the Camp Meade training station yesterday. Fitzmaurice failed to do so, according to Provost Marshal Donovan, and also failed to report yesterday morning at 6 o'clock when his contingent left for the camp.

Native of Ireland. The arrested man is a native of Ireland. He is 36 years of age, a machinist, who lives at 1616 Sixth street northwest. He is employed by the Potomac Electric Power Company. According to the information gleaned from the police, Fitzmaurice was late for work yesterday morning, and his superior told him that he could not return to work till noon.

On leaving the shop Fitzmaurice is alleged to have stated the same declaration that he made to the detectives a few hours later, about not fighting for the United States. Some of his fellow workers hearing the audacious statement went to their employer and said that if he continued to employ Fitzmaurice they would all resign.

Weather Conditions. District of Columbia and Maryland—Partly cloudy today, rain at night or tomorrow; fresh winds, increasing somewhat tonight.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE. Midnight, 62; 2 a. m., 64; 4 a. m., 66; 6 a. m., 68; 8 a. m., 70; 10 a. m., 72; 12 m., 74; 2 p. m., 76; 4 p. m., 78; 6 p. m., 76; 8 p. m., 74; 10 p. m., 72; 12 m., 70.

OTHER TEMPERATURES. Lowest. Highest. Rain. Boston, Mass., 62, 72, 0. Chicago, Ill., 60, 70, 0. Denver, Colo., 58, 68, 0. New Orleans, La., 70, 80, 0. New York, N. Y., 68, 78, 0. Salt Lake City, Utah, 50, 60, 0.

TIDE TABLE. Computed by United States Coast and Geodetic Survey. Today—Low tide 12:22 a. m. and 12:11 p. m.; high tide 6:18 a. m. and 6:02 p. m.

CONDITION OF THE WATER. Temperature and condition of the water yesterday: Great Falls—Temperature, 67; condition, clear. Dalecarlia reservoir—Temperature, 67; condition at north connection, clear; condition at south connection, clear. Georgetown distributing reservoir—Temperature, 66; condition at inlet, glassy, clear; condition at outlet, turbid, clear.

BIRTHS REPORTED. WHITE. Charles and Helen Wagner, boy. George and Virginia O. Valtos, girl.

COLORED. Henry and Ethel Wheeler, boy. Charles and Harriet Thompson, boy.

DEATH RECORD. WHITE. Thomas G. Seal, 75 years, 608 Quincy st. N. W.

COLORED. Agnes Morgan, 65 years, Wash. Asylum Hosp. Malinda Butler, 65, Freedmen's Hosp.

POLICE CLASH WITH ARMY OFFICERS OVER DISREGARD FOR TRAFFIC RULES

Court Insists on Obedience Although Country Is at War, and Imposes Heavy Fine on Violator

Is there a streak of Prussian arrogance among the commissioned and noncommissioned officers of the Army and Navy? Through the police court dockets a talk with the traffic policeman would convince the most neutral observer that there is something akin to it.

We do not mean to convey the idea that the officials are having trouble with army officers who have German names. Nothing of the sort. The Prussian streak is known as the "superiority itch," is causing no little trouble to the men charged with regulating and directing traffic.

A short time ago an army officer, not in uniform, insisted on going the wrong way around one of the many traffic semaphores in the city. He was halted by the policeman on duty and shown his mistake. The army officer, instead of listening to the policeman, became enraged and informed the policeman that as he was an army officer he could go where he pleased.

Seeks to Explain. The conversation dragged on for a few minutes. All the while the traffic officer was trying to explain to the army officer his mistake and to show him how to get around the semaphore without tying up the traffic. The traffic already going the wrong way, and still the army officer insisted very haughtily his right to do as he pleased.

The traffic officer was brought up before the trial board, and exonerated of the charges brought against him by the "outraged" army officer. He was charged with being impudent and with conduct unbecoming a traffic officer.

It is true, that ignorance of traffic rules by officers who have never before been in the city for any length of time is partly responsible for some of the troubles of the traffic policeman. But in the main the haughtiness, the "do-whatever-I-d-like" attitude is more to blame than any other cause.

CLUB MEMBERS IN MOTOR RUN

Rotarians Travel to Country Where Oyster Roast Is Spread.

The anticipations that the members of the Rotary Club, of Washington, had for the club run to Rotarian Hathaway's Manor House, in St. Mary's County, Maryland, came to a gratifying realization yesterday.

The dark clouds of the early morning did not dampen the enthusiasm of the Rotarians, as they assembled to a man at the Commercial Club, where they were greeted by the president, E. C. Graham, and promptly at the appointed hour members started on their novel run.

Several of the cars were decorated with national colors, hunting, American flags and dais of the allies. A prize was offered, the prize being a box at Keilts, for the most handsomely decorated car. This prize was awarded to James Sharp.

Arriving at the plantation of Rotarian Hathaway, a tract of 750 acres, with one of the old home-stands remodeled but still retaining the architecture of colonial days, the members made things lively with the architecture of colonial days, the members made things lively with the architecture of colonial days.

On the lawn was a fifteen-piece string orchestra, made up of native negroes with all kind of instruments from home-made tin banjos to guitars, violins, etc. and a dozen or more of buck and wing and jig dancers, gathered in from the surrounding country.

The delegation, which consisted of nearly one hundred, was escorted to six carts and driven one mile to the shore, led by one cart fixed up as band wagon, in which the band was placed. On the shore of the Potomac River all the oxcarts were lined up and photographed by Rotarian George Harris. Then the guests were conducted to a rough table and treated to an old-style Southern Maryland Oyster Scawl Roast.

Elks and Friends Enjoy Big Oyster Roast Here

More than 600 Elks, their wives, sweethearts and friends, made merry at the initial oyster roast of the season at Elks Hall, on 31 street, according to the members participating they had "some time."

Starting early in the evening, the members made things lively with the aid of a jazz band. Things moved at a lively clip until "Good Night Ladies" was played.

Elks oysters, fried oysters, and oyster stew formed the menu. The entertainment committee consisted of Charles Harman, chairman, assisted by Gus Brähler, Charles Caldwell, L. Hollander, and Domenick Fowler.

It was announced that on October 31 another oyster roast will be held. On the lawn was a fifteen-piece string orchestra, made up of native negroes with all kind of instruments from home-made tin banjos to guitars, violins, etc. and a dozen or more of buck and wing and jig dancers, gathered in from the surrounding country.

Elks and Friends Enjoy Big Oyster Roast Here. More than 600 Elks, their wives, sweethearts and friends, made merry at the initial oyster roast of the season at Elks Hall, on 31 street, according to the members participating they had "some time."

Starting early in the evening, the members made things lively with the aid of a jazz band. Things moved at a lively clip until "Good Night Ladies" was played.

Elks oysters, fried oysters, and oyster stew formed the menu. The entertainment committee consisted of Charles Harman, chairman, assisted by Gus Brähler, Charles Caldwell, L. Hollander, and Domenick Fowler.

It was announced that on October 31 another oyster roast will be held. On the lawn was a fifteen-piece string orchestra, made up of native negroes with all kind of instruments from home-made tin banjos to guitars, violins, etc. and a dozen or more of buck and wing and jig dancers, gathered in from the surrounding country.

KUPPENHEIMER THE Uniform of Particular Officers!

JUST as the Great and Only House of Kuppenheimer has made citizens' clothing for years that has set the standard by which other clothing is judged—SO Kuppenheimer Uniforms

—are supreme in fit and workmanship. Patriotic Prices Immediate Delivery

THE STORE WHERE QUALITY COUNTS GROSNER'S 1013 PENNA. AVE. N.W.

Elks and Friends Enjoy Big Oyster Roast Here. More than 600 Elks, their wives, sweethearts and friends, made merry at the initial oyster roast of the season at Elks Hall, on 31 street, according to the members participating they had "some time."

Starting early in the evening, the members made things lively with the aid of a jazz band. Things moved at a lively clip until "Good Night Ladies" was played.

Elks oysters, fried oysters, and oyster stew formed the menu. The entertainment committee consisted of Charles Harman, chairman, assisted by Gus Brähler, Charles Caldwell, L. Hollander, and Domenick Fowler.

It was announced that on October 31 another oyster roast will be held. On the lawn was a fifteen-piece string orchestra, made up of native negroes with all kind of instruments from home-made tin banjos to guitars, violins, etc. and a dozen or more of buck and wing and jig dancers, gathered in from the surrounding country.

Elks and Friends Enjoy Big Oyster Roast Here. More than 600 Elks, their wives, sweethearts and friends, made merry at the initial oyster roast of the season at Elks Hall, on 31 street, according to the members participating they had "some time."

Starting early in the evening, the members made things lively with the aid of a jazz band. Things moved at a lively clip until "Good Night Ladies" was played.

Advertisement for D. J. Kaufman's M. S. M. Fall Suits. It's a Great Season! Fall business—fast and snappy—has come over-night—Live wires, who buy early—who buy cleverly—who want the new things—have been flocking to D. J. Kaufman's. For that new crop of fine M. S. M. Fall Suits $17.75 TO $38.75. That "special" at $17.75 is a good one—however, "twenty" to "twenty-five" seems to be the people's choice. It gives you better fabric—better workmanship—better satisfaction. That's our honest opinion. Money's Worth or Money Back. 1005 Pa. Ave. D. J. Kaufman (Incorporated.) 1007 Pa. Ave.

Advertisement for Dances, Parties, Banquets, Lectures, SPECIAL LUNCHEONS and DINNER PARTIES. Our second and third floor halls are specially desirable for use on such occasions. With our excellent service they are sure to prove a success in every way. REGULAR DINNER, 50c. Main Dining-room. Tea Cup Inn 611 12th Street Phone Franklin 2036.

Advertisement for 3% on Savings Accounts UNION SAVINGS BANK. "Old-Fashioned Bank in Washington." LOANS HORNING. Personal National International PUBLICITY. Burrelle's Press Clipping Bureau 60 Warren St., New York City.

Advertisement for Woman to Answer Charge Of Illegal Operation. Mrs. Katie Louise Gross, 239 Prospect avenue northwest, was released on $5,000 bail yesterday afternoon to answer a charge of causing the death of Mrs. Jeanette Eddins, who died at the Georgetown Hospital several days ago from what the police alleged to be an illegal operation. Attorney D. W. Baker appears for Mrs. Gross.

Advertisement for BALTIMORE & OHIO COMPARTMENT CARS and Drawing Room Sleeping Cars ON NIGHT TRAINS BETWEEN WASHINGTON AND NEW YORK Both Directions. Leave Washington... 12:25 A. M. Arrive New York... 6:35 A. M. (Liberty Street) Arrive New York... 7:00 A. M. (Twenty-third Street)

Advertisement for Attention! Officers—James D. McConville MILITARY TAILOR, 210-212 W. Edward Building.

Advertisement for STRAND—LAST DAY MADGE KENNEDY IN BABY MINE KERENSKY AND RUSSIAN REVOLUTION. NEXT WEEK'S WM. S. HART IN GOLD DECK MARGUERITA FISCHER IN THE GIRL WHO COULDN'T GROW UP.

Advertisement for That's Gratitude. For sixteen years Josie Graham lived in the same house with Robert Emory and his family. They all ate at the same table. Josie was just like one of the family.

Advertisement for Some Old Stuff. "Judge, Ah needs a bodyguard. Ah can't walk mahself down de street lessen dis yere woman doan insult me or make some indecent remarks."

Advertisement for Poor Little Joey. Away up on Sixth street Wednesday night two boys were sitting on the curbstone. Along came a third one, little Joe Moran, Jr.

Advertisement for Judge, Ah needs a bodyguard. Ah can't walk mahself down de street lessen dis yere woman doan insult me or make some indecent remarks.

Advertisement for Judge, Ah needs a bodyguard. Ah can't walk mahself down de street lessen dis yere woman doan insult me or make some indecent remarks.

Advertisement for In the Short Time Which Remains We Must Sell Our Entire Stock of High-grade SUITS AND OVERCOATS. At Prices that Are Only a Fraction of the Real Value.

Advertisement for The Building to be Erected on this Site will be the New Home of TENNILLE, 918 G St. N. W.

Advertisement for Herald's Shopping Corner. Men and Women Collect Profits; Are You Collecting Yours? Read These Columns and Learn How to Make and Save Money Without Investment!

Advertisement for On account of certain legal proceedings and unavoidable circumstances, the tearing down of our present location, the National Rifles' Armory Building, will be postponed for about a month.

Advertisement for The men of Washington this means an extended opportunity to share the big saving on High-grade Clothing at our REBUILDING SALE.

Advertisement for The men and women who study the advertisements every morning in The Herald do not have to be told that they will find the habit profitable. They collect their profits day by day.

Advertisement for Both Save Money and Win Prize. If several sales items appear on the same sales slip, ring the one that, in your mind, represents the best bargain that you bought, and mail it to the Shopping Editor of The Herald, accompanied by a letter (not to exceed 150 words) telling why this bargain appealed to your needs as the best buying opportunity for you on that particular day.

Advertisement for How to Write Letter. The way in which your letter impresses the Shopping Editor as to the value of the article received for the money spent will count most. Neatness and phraseology are but secondary considerations.

Advertisement for All that you have to do is to save your sales slips on any of the items you buy from the hundreds of items