

WAR COUNCIL WILL DISCUSS
Y. W. C. A. HOME

Sessions of Women Delegates Will Hear Notable Speakers.

How best to be of service to women war workers now in Washington is to be one of the subjects taken up by the National War Work Council of the Young Women's Christian Association, at a meeting to be held in the National Capital Tuesday. Women of national prominence, including the wives of three members of the Cabinet, and wives of several other high government officials are expected to attend.

A morning and an afternoon session are to be held, both being scheduled for the Elizabeth Thomas room, 47th and M streets northwest. It is more than likely that the question of new quarters for the Y. W. C. A. in Washington will be discussed.

Housing Problems Feature.
It is believed likely to be brought up for discussion are reports of the Washington Y. W. C. A., Eleventh and M streets northwest. It is more than likely that the question of new quarters for the Y. W. C. A. in Washington will be discussed.

The program, as tentatively arranged, follows:
Morning session: Preliminaries, devotions, treasurer's report and report of general work; "Present Conditions in Industrial Centers," discussed by Miss Florence Simms, authority on industrial conditions, and Miss Ernestine Friedman, special worker for the war council, and discussion of housing by Mrs. Rockefeller and Miss Mary Sims.

Afternoon session: Address by Miss Brown; "Work Among Colored Women," by Miss Eva D. Bowles; "Statement of Educational Progress on Social Morality Being Put Forth by the Government—the Association's Contribution," Dr. Katherine B. Davis; discussion of "How Shall We Educate the Public?" by Mrs. William A. Brown and Miss Estelle Paddock.

List of Representatives.
Representatives from all parts of the United States have signified their intention of being present. The following are the names of those who will be present: Mrs. Robert Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State; Mrs. Newton Baker, wife of the Secretary of War; Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the Secretary of Navy; Mrs. Charles W. Richardson, Mrs. William Hamilton Bayly, president of the Washington Y. W. C. A., and Miss Florence M. Brown, general secretary of the Washington Association. The presiding officer is to be Mrs. John French, of New York City.

Officers of the Washington Association are to entertain the out-of-town delegates and guests. Mrs. Daniels has arranged to take to Quantico, Va., all of those who can remain over Wednesday. The trip to Quantico will be made to see the "hostess house," which has been established near the Marine camp near that point.

NATION NOW SEEKING
200 STATISTICIANS
Wanted Immediately by War Department for Munitions Plant.
The War Department is in urgent need of 200 statisticians. Either men or women are wanted immediately for these positions at salaries ranging from $1,100 to $1,600 a year. There are a few positions at $1,800 a year.
The Civil Service Commission will receive applications until further notice. There are three groups of statisticians standing. The first requires a common school education and familiarity with all the operations of plants engaged in the manufacture of small arms, small machine parts, and other munitions. Applicants must have not less than two years of practical experience as a cost clerk.
Group two requires the same experience. The duties will be to classify the various kinds of labor employed by the manufacturers of artillery ammunition.
Group three requires graduation from a college or university of recognized standing and at least one year of experience in statistical work of a high grade. The duties of this group will consist of the tabulation of statistics as they pertain to the control of raw material and finished ordnance equipment.
Applications will not be accepted from employees of the government or of firms or corporations engaged in carrying out contracts for the government.

CONCERT PROCEEDS TO AID RED CROSS
Woodward and Lothrop's Employees Swell Ambulance Fund.
Prof. F. Hammer yesterday repeated his concert of the day before in the auditorium of Woodward & Lothrop's store for the purpose of adding to the fund being raised by the J. C. N. of the Patriotic League for the purchase of an ambulance for the Red Cross.
The employees of Woodward & Lothrop's are planning to donate an ambulance costing $2,000 to the Red Cross and by the two concerts of Friday and yesterday realized a large addition to the amount already in hand.
Miss Gertrude Schwannke, a pupil of Prof. Hammer, also gave an hour of classical selections, including Beethoven's Sonata, F Major, No. 5 at both of the concerts.

THE SPIANS OF Y. M. C. A.
MADE 12 APPEARANCES
In April the Y. M. C. A. Dramatic Players made twelve appearances, all but four of them in training camps in the vicinity of Washington. At least twenty presentations will be made in May.
Players now in the organization are Miss Estelle Allen, Miss Helen Arnold, Miss Dial Tillman, Miss Peggy Conway, Charles S. Shuterly, Kennedy Meek, Joseph Leely, Arthur W. Nelson, W. W. Vaught, Roland Williamson, Robert W. Bell, the Misses Studts, Bagman, Creveling, Davis and Bladen.
