MILLIONS FOR CHURCH HERE

New Catholic Shrine Will Bring Many Visitors To Capital.

A great pilgrimage of Catholics to this city will take place about the first of next May to witness the start to be made in the erection of a $5,000,000 shrine at the Catholic University as a memorial to America's fallen heroes...

The magnificent ceremony over which Cardinal Gibbons will preside will be an international event. There will be representatives of the great shrines of the Blessed Virgin, both in South America and Europe, in attendance...

The main nave will be 54 feet in breadth and 85 feet in height. The lateral nave will be flanked by a series of beautiful chapels, five on each side, which will be surrounded by splendid canopies or bell towers...

The facade will be 123 feet in width and a noble dome will surmount the whole. The dome, the cross on its top being 24 feet from the ground, will be a splendid campanile or bell tower, 350 feet in height, rises at one end of the facade...

The episcopal throne of Cardinal Gibbons will be close to the high altar, which will be surrounded by fifteen beautiful small chapels in honor of the fifteen mysteries of the holy rosary...

Cardinal Gibbons will receive members of the various European diplomatic corps tomorrow in Carroll Hall, 24 G street northwest, preceding which the prelate will assist at high mass at St. Patrick's Church at 11 a. m.

The reception will be similar to those given every Thanksgiving by Cardinal Gibbons at which he meets members of the South American diplomatic corps.

At 2 p. m. the cardinal will administer the sacrament of confirmation on a large class of converts in the church.

Cardinal Gibbons will arrive in Washington late this afternoon and will spend the night at St. Patrick's rectory.

In addition to the diplomats, it is expected a number of Congressmen and other representatives of official Washington will attend.

Go-to-Church Movement Gains Impetus, Pastors Aim to Arouse Interest

Subjects for sermons announced by Washington pastors for tomorrow turn from New Year themes to the consideration of a number of other interesting religious topics of the day.

Either directly, as in the Methodist Protestant churches which are observing a go-to-church movement this month, or indirectly in arousing a renewed interest in spiritual matters, pastors of all churches will endeavor this month to impress on their congregations the importance of making not only the month of January, but the entire year 1920 a go-to-church year.

Plan Thrift Lessons. In accordance with the purpose of the church always to keep abreast with the material progress of humanity, all churches of the city are planning co-operation in teaching the lesson of saving in its religious significance during Thrift Week from January 17 to 24.

In a letter addressed to all members of the association, Dr. Palmer asks the ministers to deliver special sermons on "Thrift" on January 18, and to assist in the movement through other educational channels of their churches.

The National Thrift Week Executive Committee will address a similar request to the Roman Catholic clergy and to Jewish rabbis.

Services will be held at St. Paul's church, 1200 Wisconsin avenue, Washington Circle, at 7:30, 9:30, 10 and 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. There will be an evening service at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

THE BIBLE

Translated out of the original Hebrew and Greek, known as "Our Mother's Bible."

The Second Book of Moses, Called EXODUS.

(CHAPTER XI—Continued.) 2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow of his neighbor, and every woman of her neighbor, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 And the Lord gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the Lord, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maid-servant that is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of beasts.

5 And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, Get thee out, and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger.

6 And the Lord said unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you; that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

7 And Moses and Aaron did all the wonders before Pharaoh; and the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

CHAPTER 12.—The beginning of the year is changed. 1 The passover is instituted. 11 The rite of the passover. 15 Unleavened bread. 19 The first-born are slain. 2 The lambs are driven out of the land. 3 They come to Succoth, at the entrance of the passover.

4 And the Lord spake unto Moses, and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, This month shall be unto you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year to you.

5 I Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for the house.

6 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

7 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year; ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

8 And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month; and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.

9 And they shall take the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

10 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

11 Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the purturance thereof.

12 And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

13 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and I will execute judgment upon all the gods of Egypt; I am the Lord.

14 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.
