

Society

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 11.

Mrs. David F. Houston, Mrs. Clarence Cusler, Senator Howard Sutherland, Senator Davis Elkins, Mrs. Davis Elkins, Mrs. Howard Sutherland, Mrs. Harry Woodard, Mrs. L. T. Mann, Mrs. A. Mitchell Palmer, Miss Lydia Spencer, Eddy, Miss Elizabeth Adams, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Senator David I. Walsh, Mrs. Richard Olney, former Senator and Mrs. John W. Weeks, Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, Mrs. George P. McLean, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood, Mrs. George E. Moses, Mrs. Harry Keyes, Mrs. Theodore V. Boynton, Miss Sarah R. Lee, Mrs. James E. Watson, Mrs. Harry S. New, Mrs. Warren G. Harding, Mrs. Alice Fomerson, Mrs. J. Edwin Galloway, Mrs. E. Ellis, Mrs. Henry Brock, Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, Mrs. Julius Kahn, Mrs. Clarence Ridley, Mrs. William Littauer and Mrs. Sidney Ballou.

The executive committee consists of Mrs. James Carroll, chairman; Mrs. Newton D. Baker, in charge of the music for the pageant; Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, Mrs. William Morton Grinnell, Mrs. Burton L. French, Mrs. William Lit-tauer, Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, Mrs. Walter Tuckerman and Mrs. Archibald Hopkins. Mr. William Eric Fowler will be in charge of the men's committee.

HOSPITAL TO BENEFIT BY NEW PLAY.

The opening performance of Lionel Barrymore's new play, "The Letter of the Law," at the Shubert-Garrick Theater the night of February 2 will be for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital. The performance will be given under the auspices of the ladies' board of the hospital, the officers of which are Mrs. Isaac Gans, president; Mrs. J. Edwin Galloway, honorary president; Mesdames George Tully Vaughn, D. J. Callahan, Milton E. Ailes, Wilfred M. Barton, Nellie E. Fealy, T. J. Conry, A. E. Murphy and Miss Mary E. Kellher, vice presidents; Mrs. Henry R. Gower, recording secretary; Mrs. Andrew J. McIntyre, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. M. J. Ready, treasurer.

Assisting Mrs. Gans are the ticket committee, Mrs. Gans, chairman; Mrs. Wilfred M. Barton, Mrs. Michael J. Ready, Mrs. Andrew J. McIntyre, Mrs. John Haas, Miss Mary E. Kellher and Mrs. M. E. Donohoe; committee on boxes, Mrs. George Tully Vaughn, chairman, Mrs. D. J. Callahan, Mrs. J. H. Covington and Mrs. Edwin B. Behrens; flower committee, Mrs. Andrew J. McIntyre, chairman; Mrs. Mary E. Kellher, Mrs. Wilfred M. Barton and Mrs. Francis Dickens; committee on publicity, Mrs. Nellie E. Fealy, and committee on decoration, Mrs. Thomas Stanton.

The attention of the board, which during the past two or three years has been devoted mainly to the endowment of a charity ward, is now being turned toward a nurses' home, the present building, which largely represents the early activities of the board, being inadequate for the constantly increasing needs of the hospital.

Washington Camp, No. 26, Sons of Confederate Veterans, gave a delightful little dance at the Confederate Memorial Home Tuesday evening, January 12. Among those present were Mrs. Walter E. Hutton, Mrs. Maude Howell Smith, Miss Etta Taggart, Mr. and Mrs. James Anthony, Jr., Mr. Thomas Plovman, W. L. Wilkerson, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Deason, Mr. Claude N. Bennett, F. R. Fravel, J. R. Kephart, Jr., J. W. Rossom, J. Roy Price, Mrs. Charles H. Fred, Miss Etta Howell, Miss Gertrude Miller, Miss Hazel White, Mrs. E. H. Bialock, Mr. Frank L. Harris, Mr. W. J. Dodd, Mr. Roland L. Davidson and W. L. England.

The program was under the direction of the commandant, George T. Rawlins and Adjutant Elgin H. Bialock.

Preceding the dance a brief business meeting was held at which the following were elected to membership: D. C. Kelting, Capt. L. O. Grice, George E. Willis.

A committee was appointed to cooperate with Mrs. Maude Howell Smith and other committees in arranging for the historical pageant to be given by the Navy League on February 12.

The Esther Chapter was honored by the appointment of its worthy matron, Sarah M. J. Robinson, to the office of the District Chapter of the Chapter of the District of Columbia. She was installed Tuesday, January 12, 1920, by the retiring Grand Matron Mayberry.

NOTABLES TO MEET RED CROSS NURSES.

Miss Mabel Boardman announced yesterday that the Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker, Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels; Surgeon General and Mrs. Merritt W. Ireland, of the army; Surgeon General and Mrs. W. G. Braisted, of the navy; Surgeon General Rupert Blue, Public Health Service; Miss Julia Stinson, superintendent of the Army Nurse Corps; Mrs. Leah S. Higbee, superintendent of the Navy Nurse Corps; and Miss Lucy Mingeroda, superintendent of the Public Health Nursing Corps, have been invited to meet the Red Cross nurses of Washington at a reception to be held in their honor at the District Chapter of the American Red Cross, 16 Jackson place northwest, tomorrow night, January 19.

As the majority of these nurses have served overseas and as it will be their first reunion under the auspices of the Red Cross since their return from abroad, the event gives every promise of being a memorable one in Red Cross circles in this city. The reception will be held from 8 until 10, the officers of the executive committee and the chapters forming the reception committee.

Mrs. George M. Crawford, Topeka, Kans., has arrived in Washington to be the guest for several weeks of her sister, Mr. Arthur Capper, wife of Senator Capper, of Kansas.

Mrs. Arthur Capper, wife of Senator Capper, of Kansas, will be at home Thursday afternoon, January 22, at her residence, 1180 Sixteenth street.

Mrs. Herman Gasch will be the

John Howard Photo. MRS. JOHN L. MARTIN. Charming young matron who has just returned from an extended stay at Atlantic City.

hostess at the informal reception held by the directors at the clubhouse from 5 to 7 this afternoon. Assisting her will be the writers and editors of the membership, including Mrs. Boeckle (Florence Brower), Mrs. William Hard, Miss Helen Nicolay, Miss Spofford, Margaret Spalding Gerry, Mrs. Flora Macdonald Thompson.

"CONCERT IN TIME" SET FOR JAN. 31.

Monsieur Sasha Vetiachanko, Russian composer, and Virtuoso, of the Tympanon, has sent out cards for a "concert in time" to be given at the residence of Mrs. Robert M. Thompson, in Sheridan Circle, on Saturday, January 31, 1920, at 5 o'clock, under the distinguished patronage of Mrs. Lansing, Mrs. Riano, Mme. Mathieu, Mme. Le Breton, the Baroness Carter de Marchienne, Mme. Urueta, Mme. Sulzer, Mrs. Grouitch, Mrs. Henry Getty Chilton, Mrs. George Bakhtmetoff, Mrs. George F. Becker, Mrs. Henry Dimock, Mrs. Franklin Ellis, Mrs. William Corcoran Eustis, Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, Mrs. James Carroll Frazer, Mrs. Peter Goellet Gerry, the Princess Ghika, Mrs. Charles Sumner Hamlin, Mrs. Borden Harriman, Mrs. Walter Bruce Howe, Mrs. John B. Henderson, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. Mahlon Pitney, Mrs. Robert M.

Thompson, Mrs. Walter Tucker-mann, Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., Mrs. Norman Williams and Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood.

Mrs. Raymond Jarrett, of Wood-socket, R. I., is the guest of Miss Anne E. Gaskins, 4122 Keokuk street, Chevy Chase, D. C.

Mrs. T. P. MacDevitt and infant son, of 4122 Keokuk street, Chevy Chase, are spending the month of January with Mrs. W. R. Dickinson in New York City. Before returning home they will visit friends in Newark and Elizabeth, N. J., and Philadelphia, Pa.

The executive committee for the carnival of seasons ball to be given for the benefit of neighborhood clubs, is spending the month of January with Mrs. W. R. Dickinson in New York City. Before returning home they will visit friends in Newark and Elizabeth, N. J., and Philadelphia, Pa.

The following members of the Polish legation are stopping at the New Willard: Prince Francis Pulaski, counselor of the legation, and Princess Helena Pulaski; Prince and Princess Radziska; Count Christian Rawita-Ostrawska, former Polish high commissioner to Santa Cruz; Krystyn Rawita-Ostrawska, who heads the sanitary corps of the Polish Red Cross; Captain L. Marszewski, assistant military attache, and Mrs. Marszewski; Captain J. Burdakov, and Dr. J. Adamski, delegate of the ministry of finance to the legation.

Maurice Maeterlinck will lecture at the Belasco Theater Sunday afternoon, January 25, at 3:30.

The popular "bride teas" given so successfully for several seasons by the Mary Washington Chapter, D. A. B. will be resumed tomorrow afternoon at the Wyoming apartments, with Mrs. Strickland, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson and Miss Janet Richards as hostesses. Cards will begin at 2:30 in the ball room, which Mr. Leslie A. Barr has kindly loaned for the occasion. Following the game refreshments will be served. More than twenty tables have been reserved, the proceeds to be devoted to patriotic work of the chapter.

American Penwomen

The League of American Pen Women held their meeting at their club room, 1722 H street, January 12, the president, Mrs. Isaac Pearson, presiding.

Miss Jessie Griswold, chairman of the membership committee, reported twenty-seven new members, namely: Miss Ida Tarbell, Mrs. Maude S. McGricor, Mrs. Carolyn Johnson, Miss Mathilde Weil, Miss Ada D. Leslie, all of New York City; Mrs. M. A. B. Evans, of Lockport, N. Y.; Mrs. Louise Wright Simpson, Mrs. Edna Mable Sullivan, Mrs. Louise Grant Lane (Kate Burr), Mrs. Jessie Storrs Ferris Butler, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Carlo Frances Warren-Lempert, of Rochester, N. Y.; Mrs. Margaret McHalvey, of Amherst, Pa.; Mrs. Helen Richardson Brown, Miss Pearl Hall, Miss Bernice A. Johnson, Mrs. Margaret R. Burlington, Miss Lenora H. King, Mrs. Anna N. Smith, Mrs. Blanche Avies, steel Harriman-Verbeck, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Miss Ruth K. Rice, Mrs. Eva D. Kanevin Griffith, Mrs. Elbert M. Wood, Miss Carrie L. Burton, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Maurice Egan was unanimously elected honorary member of the league. An interesting report was read by Miss Redfern, corresponding secretary, giving in detail the delightful program given by the auxiliary of the league, located at Mobile, Ala. The president gave a report of the many incidents accompanying the formation of the new auxiliary recently formed at Buffalo, N. Y. December 3, 1919. A telegram was sent to Mrs. Green, felicitating her upon the organization, also upon her acceptance as honorary member of the league. The State representative, Miss Etta Howell, of the national organization, was elected president of the auxiliary, and the organization of the auxiliary was endorsed by the league and a charter issued.

Mrs. William Atherton Dupuy reported that the membership drive was now on, and in the circulars now being mailed the object of the league is set forth, calling attention to the fact that the League of American Pen Women was organized and incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia, with a charter membership of seventeen women in the year 1897. As a national organization of women engaged in literary and relational work it has increased its realm of influence until today it includes on its membership roll eminent women from every State in the Union, and has distinguished representatives in many foreign lands. Its membership is now composed of authors, artists, musicians and lecturers, thus typifying the production from pen, pencil and brush.

After the business meeting Mrs. Gertrude Buckingham Thomas gave a delightful review of "The Young Visitors" by Daisy Ashford, which has created so great a discussion as to the authorship.

Mrs. Maud Howell Smith, assisted by Mrs. Betty Farrington and Dr. Harry Neville gave the playette, "Lady Patsy," before a delighted gathering at the last meeting of the club.

Judge Kathryn Sellers of the Juvenile Court gave an interesting talk on juvenile court legislation at a club luncheon last Saturday.

Daughters of America

Loyalty Council, No. 19, Friday evening dispensed with the seventy-sixth regular meeting and gave a banquet followed by dancing in honor of Mrs. Lula A. Grubbs, state vice councillor of the District of Columbia. Mrs. Grubbs received a handsome ivory handled umbrella as a gift from the council, presentation being made by state deputy, Mrs. Clara A. Rock. The members of Loyalty Council also took advantage of this occasion to show their appreciation to Mrs. Mary A. Ferguson, state treasurer. Mrs. Ferguson received as a gift from the council a fountain pen.

The hall was beautifully decorated with streamers and holly. The tables were arranged in the center of the hall to form a crucifix, and over the top hung a large bell surrounded with various Christmas decorations, which greatly added to the Yuletide spirit.

The following officers were installed: Junior past councilor, Mrs. Clara Owens; associate junior past councilor, Mrs. Sanderson; Councillor, Miss Bessie Randall; associate councillor, Mrs. Lillian Wilson; secretary, Mrs. Gibbs; assistant recording secretary, Mrs. Lyons; conductor, Mrs. Lambert; warden, Mr. Bernard L. Ladd; inside sentinel, Mr. Joseph Mason; outside sentinel, Mrs. Fries; trustee (eighteen months), Mrs. Lambert; and six months, Mrs. Julian Grubbs. Loyalty Council, No. 19, is in its membership drive with both feet, having received fifteen applications to date, the following being received at this meeting: Mrs. G. E. Noyes, Miss Lillie Kussmaul, Miss Helen York, Mr. Harold Bradley, Mr. Charles Garretson and Mr. Robert E. Lee. The council meets on the second and fourth activities the third degree meeting night of each month.

The following officers-elect of Old Glory Council, No. 12, were installed Monday night by State Deputy Mrs. Mamie Cox Howell: Junior past councilor, Mrs. Clara Mann; associate junior past councilor, Mrs. A. J. Segar; councillor, Mrs. Jennie Wood; associate councillor, Mrs. Mary Davidson; vice councillor, Mrs. Leonard Robinson; assistant recording secretary, Mrs. Mary Whittington; recording secretary, Mrs. L. E. Thompson; re-elected twentieth term, financial secretary, Mrs. Ida E. Kerper; and re-elected officers: term, treasurer, Mrs. E. V. Thompson; re-elected twelfth term, conductor, Alonza Donaldson; warden, Mrs. Eleanor Bailey; inside sentinel, George W. Robertson; outside sentinel, Mrs. Mary Johnson, and trustee, six months, M. E. Hooper.

The annual and fraternal visitation of the New Year was made by State Councilor Mrs. M. Rosella Cole and her staff of officers Tuesday night to Triumph Council No. 8. Seated upon the platform were the honored guests of the evening, including National Councilor Mrs. Naomi Swan, State Councilor Mrs. Rosella Cole, Judiciary C. G. Bohrer, Associate State Councilor Mrs. Sadie Levy and the board of trustees. A short program was presented by Mrs. Louisa Schwenk, chairman of the committee in charge.

The next of the series of visitations will be made to Progressive Council No. 9, Thursday, January 15, at Fourth street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast, and to be followed by one to Golden Rule Council No. 10, Friday night, January 23, Eighth street and P. northeast.

A Victory Dance will be given under the auspices of the subordinate councils of the Daughters of America, Friday night, January 30, in the Masonic Temple, Eighth and F streets, northeast.

Wednesday night Liberty Council No. 6, jointly with the members of Independent Council No. 2, tendered a reception in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth M. C. Whorters, formerly Mrs. Elizabeth Mann, of Independent Council No. 2.

Do not commit the awful blunder of buying a vacuum cleaner before you investigate the new VACUETTE.

Note the advantages of this machine over all others: 1—Just as efficient at one-half and one-third the price. 2—Most durable of all vacuum cleaners. 3—No motor to get out of order or electric bills to pay. 4—No annoying electric cords to attach to fixture and give trouble. 5—Only half the weight of the lightest of all other vacuum cleaners, and therefore easier to handle and operate. 6—A handsome boon to the housewife. No home complete without one. Investigate and you will invest for this late invention is literally sweeping the country.

On exhibition and for sale at room 318, Evans Building, 1420 New York Ave. N. W. A card will bring a representative to the home. Or phone Frank-1883, Washington Sales Company.

VACUETTE SUCTION SWEEPER

Do not commit the awful blunder of buying a vacuum cleaner before you investigate the new VACUETTE. Note the advantages of this machine over all others: 1—Just as efficient at one-half and one-third the price. 2—Most durable of all vacuum cleaners. 3—No motor to get out of order or electric bills to pay. 4—No annoying electric cords to attach to fixture and give trouble. 5—Only half the weight of the lightest of all other vacuum cleaners, and therefore easier to handle and operate. 6—A handsome boon to the housewife. No home complete without one. Investigate and you will invest for this late invention is literally sweeping the country. On exhibition and for sale at room 318, Evans Building, 1420 New York Ave. N. W. A card will bring a representative to the home. Or phone Frank-1883, Washington Sales Company.

W. B. Moses & Sons
Furniture Carpets Linens Upholstery
11th and F Streets

Advance Showing of Spring and Summer Wash Dress Fabrics

Plain colored English organdies, 42 inches wide. The newest shades of washable, fine crisp organdie, special, $1.35 yd.

Plain colored English Voiles, 40 inches wide; wide tape edge, chiffon finish; special, $1.50 yd.

Plain White Chiffon Voiles, wide tape edge, beautiful sheer grades, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches wide; special, 50c to $2.00 yd.

Genuine St. Gall Embroidered Swiss in all size embroidered dots—rare values, $1.50 to $3.00 yd.

Plain white and Mosaic woven White Organdies; permanent finish, washable grades, special, 59c to $2.50 yd.

English Mercerized Batiste, yarn mercerized; excellent soft woven grades. Special, 50c to $2.00 yd.

Original "Non-Krush" and "Royal Irish" Colored Dress Linen Suiting have no equal for quality, color line and durability. We have the new shades in stock, also Uncrushable and Creaseless, in white and colors at attractive prices.

January Linen and White Sale

Bleached Pure Linen Cloths and Napkins From the Best Manufacturers

Discontinued patterns of finest pure linen cloths and napkins. No more are being manufactured owing to the scarcity of fine yarns needed in these particular grades, and the price concession allowed us on this last immense purchase enables us to give our patrons a special extra discount from prices that were in vogue months ago.

Sizes of cloths—2x2, 2x2 1-2, 2x3, 2x3 1-2, 2 1-4x2 1-4, 2 1-4x2 1-2, 2 1-4x2 1-4, 2 1-2x3, 2 1-2x3 1-2 yards

Napkins—21 1-2x21 1-2, 22x22, 24x24, 25x25 and 26x26 inches.

We urge your inspection of these particular linens, as it's the finest lot ever presented at this special reduction.

Cloth Price Ranges From $9.00 to $65.00 Each
Napkin Price Ranges From $9.00 to $35.00 Per Doz.

A Special Sale of Axminster Rugs

That means much to you in the way of money savings. Then, too, we are offering in the sale some very excellent merchandise—splendid qualities, good designs and pleasing colorings.

27x54 inches	$ 3.50
36x72 inches	3.75
4 1/2 x 7 1/2 feet	12.50
6x9 feet	22.50
8 1/2 x 10 1/2 feet	52.50
9x12 feet	57.50
11 1/4 x 12 feet	85.00
12x18 1/2 feet	95.00

A few odd sizes, such as 6.5x9, 7.5x9 and 6.9x12, if you need them.

Drapery Dept.

Sofa Pillows
Kapak filled Sofa Pillows, 24x24 in., covered with imported damask, tapestry, velour, etc. Sold formerly up to $5.00. To close out, $2.95.

Table Runners
Damask Table Runners, 24x48 in., trimmed with velvet of harmonizing color, finished with gold galloon. Special, $4.95.

Sunfast Madras
33-in. Sunfast Madras, green, brown, rose and mulberry. Suitable for curtains or overdraperies. $1.15 yard.

Curtains
Irish Point Curtains, 2 1/4 yards long. White and ivory. Neat edge designs. Regularly up to $7.50. $4.95 pair.
Novelty Lace Curtains, 2 1/4 yards long; filet mesh, small figure center, with double hem borders. Ivory color. Special, $3.95 pair.

BEGINNING TOMORROW

Our $75,000 Stock

Of Fall Merchandise Will Be Sold at Cost

This Stock-taking and Pre-inventory Sale of ours is undoubtedly the greatest bargain opportunity of the year! Nothing in our store has been overlooked—everything has been marked down for a quick-action sale. In addition, there are quite a number of new spring models in Suits and Dresses, purchased very advantageously, which will be included in this event.

COATS
$22.50 to $110.00
Values from $45.00 to $195.00

SUITS
$25.00 to $100.00
Values from $45.00 to $185.00

DRESSES
$19.75 to $75.00
Values from $35.00 to $115.00

SKIRTS
$6.50 to $25.00
Values from $10.00 to $35.00

WAISTS
$5.75 to $25.00
Values from $10.00 to $32.50

MILLINERY
$2.50 to $12.50
Values from $7.50 to $35.00

Young Ladies' Shop

1113 G St. N.W.