British Labor Bodies in Secret Meetings Demand Troops Be Withdrawn.

By SYDNEY B. CAVE.
 London, July 17.—As a result of secret conferences between the miners' federation and the amalgamated engineers, Lloyd George has been notified that these two great labor bodies are prepared, unless the government shall at once withdraw all troops from Ireland, to back the labor resolution for a general strike. The leaders say they will await the premier's return from Spa for an answer, but if it should then be unfavorable they will order their members to throw down their tools and walk out at once.

There is a general feeling in labor circles that Lloyd George is "funking" on the Irish question, and will not dare to dissolve Parliament and go before the people. They believe he is not unwilling to see labor take so pronounced an attitude and that he will seize on it as a reason for a radical change in policy.

The recent raids on Irish post-offices have caused the government to make a radical change in policy there, I learn. The authorities say that collusion exists between postal employees both in England and Ireland and the Sinn Fein, and as a result Irish employees in the post office are to be transferred and scattered among other government offices, where they will not have access to government correspondence, while their places are to be taken by English and Scotch employees. Posters are already being made by the latter against their being shifted.

Woman Hurt in Auto Crash Sues for $60,000 Damages

Victor Gallota, of 1216 Fourteenth street northwest, and his wife, Mrs. Carmella Gallota, filed suit yesterday in the District Supreme Court to recover $60,000 damages from Ruby Lee Minor and Lida L. Weaver, for personal injuries to Mrs. Gallota on April 15.

Mrs. Gallota, it is claimed, was injured near Thomas Circle northwest, when automobiles driven by Ruby Lee Minor and Lida L. Weaver collided. One of the machines was deflected by the collision, it is alleged, and struck Mrs. Gallota.

Justice Bailey Off for South.

Associate Justice Jennings Bailey, who has been sitting in the District Supreme Court during the first two weeks of the summer term, left the city yesterday to join his family at Ridge Top, Tenn., a Southern vacation resort. Chief Justice Walter L. McCoy will return Monday and sit in all the branches of the court for two weeks.

Rockville, Md.

Rockville, Md., July 17.—Following a long illness John F. Rinehart, a well-known resident of Germantown, this county, died yesterday at his home, aged 59 years. He was unmarried.

Miss Edith Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Thompson, of Hyattstown, this county, and Earl J. Watkins, of Cedar Grove, this county, were married this afternoon by Rev. L. A. Thomas, pastor of the Baptist Church at Cedar Grove.

Miss Beatrice Knott and John Crawford, both of Washington, were married in Rockville today by Rev. P. Rowland Wagner, pastor of the Baptist Church. Rev. Mr. Wagner officiated at the marriage here yesterday of Miss Frances E. Taylor, of Lynch Mines, Kentucky, and James E. Wall, of Washington.

The Dealers' Auto-Motive Association of Montgomery County has been organized among the automobile dealers of this county, with thirty members and the following officers: President, Edgar Reed, of Rockville; vice president, William A. Waters, of Gaithersburg; secretary-treasurer, Cuyler Meads, of Rockville; membership committee, E. R. Brosius, James O. King, C. W. Brown and S. M. Montgomery.

Mrs. Eva Louise Smith, of Takoma Park, this county, is the defendant in a suit for a limited divorce filed in the Circuit Court here by Francis Smith, also of Takoma Park. The bill sets forth that the couple were married in England in January, 1911. The bill charges cruelty and an unmanageable temper.

An announcement has been made of the marriage in Washington a few days ago of Miss Eva Reed, daughter of the late Philip Reed, of this place, and Bernard Hanshaw, of Germantown. They are making their home in Rockville.

She Is Too Pretty To Escape SAYS JUDGE, AND REDUCES BAIL Of Indicted "Princess"

San Francisco, July 17.—Wearing a vampish gown and a dazzling Oriental smile bordered by wonderful teeth, self-styled "Princess Pattra of Alexandria, Egypt," was brought back here from New York to answer to a charge of embezzlement. She is out on bail after being arrested on the complaint of Erich Buehler, a former ardent admirer, who says she larcened $10,000 he advanced her to invest in a movie company.

The "Princess" says she has credentials to prove her royal blood. There are, however, folks up in Reno who say the "Princess" bears a striking resemblance to a plain American girl who used to clerk in a cigar stand in the Golden Hotel there a year ago, and who was wont to do dance specialties on amateur nights.

Is a Royal Spender.
 Buehler says she's too good a spender for a garden variety American to tag after. She won his fortune along with his heart and then called it quits, is his rueful complaint.

He says she spent $105 on one dinner for her.

The "Princess," on the other hand, says she can't help liking Buehler, although he's "too caveman-like." She assured Buehler that his money is safe in New York, and says the charge is an outgrowth of jealous fury.

Coming across the continent "Princess Pat" as she is called, got along famously with officers who escorted her westward on extradition papers granted following her indictment by the San Francisco grand jury.

"She's too pretty to escape," argued her attorney in asking reduction of her bail and Judge Ward agreed with him. The bail was lowered from $15,000 to $2,000, and "Princess Pat" gave his honor a bewitching smile in gratitude.

The "Princess" cut a wide swath here a year ago, when she announced she would spend $50,000 on a wardrobe, and was anxious to marry a "young and temperamental American."

Big Orchard Changes Owners.
 Cumberland, Md., July 17.—The Mountain Dale orchards, lying between this city in the vicinity of Oldtown, were purchased by L. P. Miller, orchardist, of Berkeley Springs, W. Va. It is understood the price was $75,000. The plant includes a total of 695 acres of land, of which 275 are planted in apples.

SHOWS ZIONIST DUTY TO ARABS

London Labor Leader Says World Watches Jewish Nation.

By WILLIAM ZUCKERMAN.
 London, July 17.—Labof's attitude to the Zionist movement was disclosed tonight by George Lansbury, a prominent leader in unionism, who recently visited Soviet Russia as a British labor delegate.

"British labor believes the Jews should have a definite home," he said. "We are for the preservation of their nationality, which is possible only in a national homeland. But we hope to see the Jews in Palestine live in harmony with the Arabs. The Jewish settlement there should be beneficial to both Jews and Arabs. They should develop a civilization which will attract the Arabs."

"British labor naturally sympathizes with the labor group in the Zionist movement and its efforts to build a new state on the basis of social justice. But the most important problem of the new state is its relationship to the Arabs. This, I believe, the Jewish cosmopolitanism can solve. But the Jews must remain the eyes of the world, and their civilization can attract the nationalists of the East, and that is good for all races generally."

Dr. McKim at the church, where a section will be reserved for them.

Hubby Danced for Girls, Clad in Filmy Garments Says Wife in Court Action

Baltimore, July 16.—"Fairy dances" staged by her husband for the benefit of the young lady boarders, in which he appeared sometimes in pink pajamas and sometimes in a flowing gown, was only one of the charges laid by Mrs. Alice Katzenberger, who appeared against her husband in Northwest Police Court today before Justice Chapman, charging him with nonsupport.

According to Mrs. Katzenberger, her husband left her about two months ago when she refused to permit him to put a still in the cellar. They have been married ten years, she told the judge, and in that time, she alleged, she has only had one suit, while he had three and four a season and no furniture.

Before the separation, when both lived at the Fulton avenue address, where Mrs. Katzenberger kept a boarding house, there were many hilarious nights. Her husband, she said, would don his filmy garments nearly every night and tell the young women who were in the house to witness his athletic dancing. When she protested he flew into a rage, she said. It was a short time after this that he left her. She had caught him saying sweet things to some of the boarders, she testified.

Katzenberger's attorney made countercharges that startled both the judge and his counsel. Among other things Katzenberger said that his wife spent many an evening and night in the room of a male boarder, and that he had himself seen her in filmy crepe de chine in earnest and lingering conversation with an aforesaid boarder. He often wondered, he said, that the police did not raid his home. It was due to conditions like those, he alleged, he left.

Starving Peasants Given New Life By Polish-American Y. W. C. A. Girls On Mission of Mercy in Fatherland

(Public Ledger Service.)
 The simple announcement carried in the cables of Friday that the Polish woman's battalion is "being partly fed by the American Young Women's Christian Association" gives but a hint of the heroic work which has been accomplished by members of this organization in assisting the nation to establish itself in real autonomy.

While Hugh Gibson, American Minister to Poland, but now in Washington, was still in Warsaw there reported to him twenty Polish-American girls who, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A., were recruited for work in Poland.

Ten more girls have joined the party since that time and, under the name of the Polish Grays, they have been indefatigable in their efforts to stamp out disease and relieve the misery of the people who suffered so long under the domination of European rulers. They have had wonderful success. In addition they have earned the undying gratitude of the people among whom they have labored.

Pathetic Tales Told.
 Instances of the need and suffering which they have encountered are contained in the following letters which were addressed to Mr. Gibson in the nature of reports:

"The Polish Grays went to visit one family and found that it was the grandmother that was ill. She was lying on straw in one corner of the little hut they occupied, with her daughter-in-law, son and three tiny grandchildren huddled around her. She was desperately ill, and there was no money and no one to help. Here they were, a family that once had prospered, and now barely existing."

"Mother has no clothes except the shawl that she has on, and we own no ground. People here are too poor to employ me. I am willing to work, but there is none, and even if I had ground there is no seed to plant. So the first 5,000 marks of the fund went to these refugees."

Finds Home Gone.
 "A year ago another woman returned from Russia, found her home burned down, then the typhus came and swept her husband and her three children away. They had no way of living. This was the story of Mary Lajus, in the village of Kerchowska. When she came back from Russia a few months ago her husband died of typhus. She was left alone with three children, living in a dugout along with a mule and several chickens. The family of Michalina Smitek and two daughters is known throughout the village, but not much help can be given them, as the village is so poor itself. The only son of this family was taken in by the army and the mother and children are ill and unable to work. The 300 marks given to Michalina by an American girl from the fund was a godsend, and tears of thanks stood in the mother's eyes as she blessed the kind giver of the money."

VIENNA NEAR RUIN, DECLARES SOCIALIST

Geneva, July 17.—Ruined by the vast bureaucratic apparatus and financial debauch inseparable from the practice of State socialism, Vienna is on the verge of final bankruptcy and economic collapse, according to statements made by the city treasurer, himself a Socialist, to the Austrian press.

There are in Vienna today 54,000 municipal officers who cost the city 1,000,000,000 crowns a year in salaries. The city's daily deficit amounts at present to 3,500,000 crowns, although municipal taxes are six times higher than they were before the war.

Quit Home Rather Than Lose His Dog

GEORGE AND FLUFFY.
 Who were found living in a shed outside Seattle, Wash., whether they went because George's folks, at Olalla, were too poor to keep both, and George wasn't willing to give up Fluffy. The boy had been earning about 50 cents daily doing odd jobs. Religiously he spent half for food for Fluffy.

A home was obtained for boy and dog on Meadowbrook Farm near North Bend. Plenty of food to eat for both and the promise that George will have the schooling he craves.

Banishes Craving for Tobacco Remarkably Successful, Say Druggists

If You Smoke Too Much You Can Easily Quit

No product can be successfully sold for any length of time unless it possesses real merit and can be heartily recommended by reputable and responsible dealers. The Nicotol treatment for efficiently and harmlessly curbing or completely banishing all desire for tobacco has been on the market only a year—but today it is sold by a large majority of up-to-date druggists in every state in the Union and every Province of Canada.

The Nicotol treatment was a success from the start. This shows, first, the hundreds of thousands, yes, millions of people, perhaps, want to curb or stop entirely, their present uncontrollable craving for tobacco; second that the Nicotol treatment does its work pleasantly, thoroughly, quickly and harmlessly; and thirdly the remedies being non-secret and non-injurious druggists have been pleased to co-operate and recommend Nicotol.

To illustrate the co-operation of druggists, a company operating five of the best stores in Washington, D. C., wrote in part as follows: "The sale of Nicotol has been greater than all the rest of the articles of this nature we have ever sold. The demand was so great we were compelled to order it locally pending shipment from you direct."

The largest drug house in Salt Lake City, with six stores, says: "We take this opportunity of expressing ourselves regarding Nicotol. We have enjoyed a very large sale to all our customers."

The leading Chestnut Street druggist in Philadelphia (Jacob Bros.), wrote: "Our sales of Nicotol have passed our expectations. We are receiving many repeat orders and many expressions of opinion which have been very favorable." A prominent Rochester druggist when asked about Nicotol said: "It is truly a remarkable remedy for the tobacco habit. It's ahead of anything we have ever sold before."

The Nicotol treatment is dual in action. You take one Nicotol tablet after each meal and the tobacco habit is directed. Nicotol banishes the desire for tobacco, while Tokosan acts as a nerve sedative. In a week's time your craving for tobacco should be greatly diminished and after two or three weeks you will probably have no desire for tobacco, the nicotine poison will be practically gone; and your general health should be wonderfully improved. Mind you, it is not claimed that the Nicotol treatment forever banish your desire for the moderate use of tobacco. You can begin its use again in a few days, with the assurance that Nicotol can always be depended upon to curb the desire at any time.

If your druggist has no Nicotol in stock he can get it from his jobber in short order, but if in a hurry you can depend upon Peoples Drug Store of this city as not only having it on hand but also this opportunity of expressing ourselves regarding Nicotol. We have enjoyed a very large sale to all our customers."
