

FRANCE MAKES HUNGARY ALLY

Gain Giant Foothold in Land Of Late Foe by Recent Treaty.

CAN USE SLAV'S ARMIES

Part Control Also Granted In Railways, Factories, Shipping and Banks.

(Washington Herald-Public Ledger Service—Special Cable Dispatch.)

Paris, Sept. 4.—I learn from trustworthy sources here that the details of the commercial accord recently concluded between France and Hungary as published in the London Daily Herald, are for the most part exact.

By the treaty signed by M. Paleologue for France and M. Halmos, delegate for Hungary, the French as a guaranty of Hungary's good faith get part control of the Hungarian state railways, the principal factories, the Credit Bank—the greatest Hungarian financial institution—Danube shipping and the port of Budapest.

In addition Hungary puts at the disposition of the French and the entente all her military forces in case of need against Russia.

Seek French Friendship.

The Hungarian motives in making these vast concessions are said to be a desire on the part of Admiral Horthy to gain the good graces of the French, and to better the relations with those neighbors of Hungary whom the French are supporting.

Already in Czecho-Slovakia French interests have gained control of Skoda munition works—the Krupp of the former Austrian empire, where the famous big guns were made during the war. In upper Silesia the French have got the upper hand in the most important factories at Katowitz; in Poland they control a powerful interest in the Huta Bankowa; in Rumania, locomotive and car factories; in Jugoslavia an important part of the Danube shipping and ports. French policy just now is directed toward bringing Rumania and Hungary to friendly agreement.

Another Alliance Different.

At the same time the so-called "petite entente" recently formed by Czecho-Slovakia and Jugoslavia is for the purpose not only of economic reorganization but also of defense against Hungary. As stated by M. Benes, minister of foreign affairs of Czecho-Slovakia recently, effort is being made to gain the adherence of Rumania.

Some French observers are greatly disturbed by this alliance, in which they profess to see the workings of the German part of the Bohemian population.

From a reliable source I hear that the French are urging Rumania not to join unless Poland and Greece also become members. In that way France hopes to overcome the German influence and keep the leading place herself. It is not improbable that from the ruins of the Austrian empire a little society of nations may be formed as a result of the working of economic forces.

May Be Catholic Power.

Still further in the background of all these subterranean negotiations is the possibility of the establishment of a Catholic power in Central Europe, composed of Hungary, Austria and Bavaria—which certainly would not be displeasing to the Quays of Orsay, nor, it is believed, to the Vatican. It is pointed out by the French that the Bavarians are anxious to get free from Prussian leadership, and Austria cannot insure her economic life without the help of her immediate neighbors.

In Switzerland there is one man who is following with peculiar interest the trend of these events. He is a Hapsburg, Archduke Charles, to whom the possibility of a new Catholic power is the possibility of regaining a crown.

Marrying Tactics Of Ministers Stir Associates Wrath

Hagerstown, Md., Sept. 4.—It is expected that the Hagerstown Ministerial Union will investigate the report that there is one, and probably two, "marrying parsons" in the city. It is claimed that one of the city ministers has been tipping taxicab drivers to bring couples from a distance who come to this city to get married to his home.

A prominent minister, discussing the matter, said if the charges are true, the minister so accused is guilty of graft. It is said that the one minister under suspicion has performed 125 marriage ceremonies in the last three months.

Hagerstown is a sort of a Gretna Green for wedding couples from Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania and as many as 1,500 to 1,700 marriage licenses are issued here each year.

ZION WARS ON SMOKES

TOBACCO
THE USE OF TOBACCO, IN ANY FORM, IS A DIRTY, FILTHY, DISGUSTING, DEGRADING HABIT. NO GENTLEMAN WILL USE TOBACCO IN THIS CITY.

YOU HAVE NO MORE RIGHT TO POLLUTE WITH TOBACCO SMOKE, THE ATMOSPHERE WHICH CLEAN PEOPLE HAVE TO BREATHE, THAN YOU HAVE TO SPIT IN THE WATER WHICH THEY HAVE TO DRINK.

CUT IT OUT, YOU FOOL, BEFORE YOU REAP SMOKER'S CANCER PARALYSIS OR ONE OF THE MANY OTHER DISEASES CAUSED BY THE USE OF THE FILTHY, NASTY, STINKING STUFF! GET ZION LITERATURE AT THE MINISTRATION BUREAU.

Zion City, Ill., Sept. 4.—A bulletin board war against the use of tobacco has been started by Dowling's successor, Overseer W. G. Vollia (right), of Zion. He is erecting 100 boards with anti-tobacco and other sermons in big letters. He says this is the best method of reaching not only those who live in Zion, but the thousands of tourists who pass through in autos.

EXPECT THROUG AT WILDWOOD

Reservations at Resort for Labor Day Exceed All Records.

Wildwood, N. J., Sept. 4.—The reservations for over Labor Day exceed all previous records. Many are planning to stay for a fortnight or more. They are wise in this, for September is one of the most delightful months at the seashore. The hotels are looking forward to a month of heavy patronage, because the incessant rains of August caused thousands of persons to cancel their vacation plans with the idea of coming here in September. Accommodations await them.

The sun has at last found its sphere and its rays are soothing and healing in the language of naturists. "The water is fine." Fishing and gunning are also good during this month. And the nights are cool and comfortable, assuring pleasant repose.

The railroads, in anticipation of heavy travel, have arranged for extra trains, so as to give the patrons of this resort satisfactory service.

The Dayton, which has been well patronized all season, is planning extensive alterations this fall. The building will be entirely renovated on the interior and faced with a brick on the exterior.

The really men report many rentals for next summer and a big demand for heated apartments and cottages for all-year occupancy.

The Municipal Orchestra concert in the Casino auditorium will terminate September 12. The last concert will be free, and if the plans of the music committee of the Board of Trade materialize the climax of the musical orchestra season will be a big surprise to the patrons of the concert. A noted soloist probably will appear.

A number of other special events are planned by Conductor Walter Pfeiffer for the nights preceding the closing of the season.

POLICE READY TO BE TY COBBS

Stage All Set for Annual Diamond Clash With Home Defense.

The stage is set for the annual diamond clash between the Metropolitan Police and Home Defense League this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the American League Park.

In the last three years the Home Defense nine has won two games to the Policemen's one.

Rival captains, "Mike" Ready, of the Police aggregation, and "Jack" Ryan of the Home Defense squad, declared their teams in top form for the scrap after short workouts yesterday.

Secretary of War Baker, Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Gen. Peyton March, chief of staff, and General Le June, commandant of the Marine Corps, will occupy boxes. The United States Marine Band will play.

Major Harry Gessford, Chief of Police, announced last night that $20,647.00 had been collected in the sale of tickets for the game. The proceeds will go into the fund for the benefit of widows and orphans of members of the police department.

CATHOLIC WORK TO BE PLANNED

Welfare Societies to Meet at Catholic University Next Week.

Woman's part in civic affairs, with especial relation to social problems, as the result of the adoption of the suffrage amendment, is one of the subjects to be taken up at the annual conference of Catholic Charities, September 12-18, at the Catholic University. It was announced yesterday by the executive committee.

Bainbridge Colby, Secretary of State, will deliver the principal address at the first general meeting next Sunday evening. The Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, rector of the university and president of the conference, will preach at the morning session, and the Most Rev. John Bonzano, apostolic delegate, will officiate.

Other speakers are: The Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Hickey, Bishop of Rochester, N. Y.; Charles L. Brown, Judge of the Philadelphia Municipal Court; Thomas J. Duffy, chairman of the Ohio Industrial Commission; Edward J. Dowley, presiding justice of the Brooklyn Court of Domestic Relations; Mrs. John W. Trainor, president of the Catholic Women's League of Chicago; David L. McCabe, professor of political economy, Princeton University; Charles E. Vasaly, chairman of the State Board of Control of Minnesota; Peter Collins, director of the Knights of Columbus Reconstruction and Employment Service; Mary C. Delaney, of the New York State Department of Education; and Miss Helen P. McCormick, assistant district attorney, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Miss Helen P. McCormick, who will preside at the opening general meeting, will discuss "Women's Movements in Social and Democratic Movements."

The Department of State, it was learned yesterday, will dispatch a new note to Poland urging that guarantee be given at once that the Polish armies will not pursue any "unnecessary invasion" of Russian territory.

While admitting that the attitude of Poland in refusing to halt her armies at this particular time is not without logic and justice, the government, it was pointed out, is pledged to conserve the permanent territorial integrity of the former Russian empire.

The subject was discussed by President Wilson with Secretary Colby and Undersecretary Davis for more than an hour yesterday. Following this meeting it was ascertained that England, France and Italy have all given informal assurance to the United States that they are in entire accord with her policy.

While it was stated at the State Department yesterday that the reply from Poland cannot be considered evasive, it also can hardly be considered adequate. The belief is general among the nations therefore that she "ought to make a more satisfactory answer on the principle of protecting Russian territory."

"HOUNDING" AUTHOR OF RELATIVE VALUES

By VIGGIO TOEPPER. (Washington Herald-Cross-Atlantic Service—Special Cable Dispatch.)

Berlin, Sept. 4.—Professor Einstein, the famous scientist and author of the theory of relative values, is being hounded out of Germany by the anti-Semitic element. He is undecided where to settle and has hitherto refused all offers of employment by foreign universities. The anti-Semitic press has attacked Einstein as a notorious hunter. He has also been publicly abused at mass meetings in Berlin, resulting in tumultuous scenes.

SINN FEIN ARMY EAGER TO FIGHT

Michael Collins, Military Leader, Holds Power Among Extremists.

IS SURE OF SUCCESS

Declares All Who Advocate Peace With England Are Traitors.

By C. H. BRETHERTON. (Washington Herald-Public Ledger Service, Special Cable Dispatch.)

Dublin, Sept. 3.—The schism in Sinn Fein is today becoming more evident. As a result it may be said only one thing stands between Ireland and peace and that is the Irish Republican army.

For some time the difference of opinion has been manifesting itself among the Sinn Fein leaders, the moderates, among whom are included the absent President de Valera, Arthur Griffith, John MacNeill, Eamon O'Neil and others, are convinced that Ireland can get the substance of freedom within the empire for the asking and should not throw it away for a shadow of republican independence to which Great Britain will never agree.

Collins Riles Party.

The extremists, on the other hand, of whom Michael Collins is acknowledged to be the "strong man," maintain that an independent republic can and will in the near future be realized and that any Sinn Feiner who at the present juncture agrees to take less is a traitor to the cause.

The question at the present time has not gone far beyond the academic stage. Arthur Griffith, acting president of the Irish Republic, has issued a semi-official statement declaring he no longer has any control over the movement and to all intents and purposes washing his hands of it and declining responsibility for what may happen in the future.

Michael Collins, on the other hand, has issued a sort of ultimatum threatening that if Arthur Griffith and his moderate clique in Dail Eireann cabinet take advantage of their majority to adopt the policy of accepting less than complete independence on behalf of the Sinn Fein party, he will break away from the Dail Eireann, carrying with him Irish volunteers and the Irish Republican Brotherhood, both of which he controls.

Cleavage Exists.

On this cleavage of opinion in the Sinn Fein ranks, the case of Lord Mayor of Cork has the most important bearing. Arthur Griffith knows that the refusal of Lloyd George to release MacSwiney, in spite of all appeals made to him, is the result of the unqualified rejection by Michael Collins of his overtures of peace.

The mayor of Cork is still alive at the time of this writing and is an officer holding a high rank in the "Irish Volunteers." He is pledged to the hit to support Michael Collins and the cause of uncompromising republicanism.

Watches Martyrdom.

Michael Collins believes that the martyrdom of the mayor of Cork will begin irreconcilable contention from the moderate into the extremist camp. And that belief is no doubt well founded.

The execution of Connolly, Pearse, MacDonough after the rebellion of 1916 turned hundreds of thousands of Nationalists into Sinn Feiners. The death of MacSwiney may well turn many thousands of Sinn Feiners into fanatical republicans. The weapons of the Irish Republican army control Irish public opinion today and as long as these weapons are active, the voice of Ireland will be nothing but the echo of the voice of the adjutant general of the Irish Republican forces.
