

RACE NEWS AND COMMENT BY COLLYER AND "HIGHWAY"—FAVORITES HAVE BAD DAY AT HAVRE DE GRACE TRACK

COLLYER'S COMMENT on the SPORT OF KINGS

Manager Waite. The pickler to be ranked out of the brine barrel at Lexington this afternoon is none other than Tom McDowell's smart campaigner. He is cherry ripe, as are all the rest of McDowell's nags, and all the Manager needs today is snug handling in order to be on the front end of the procession when the pay-off station is reached. Any odd price will be a good one. Claude Brown has never raced to best form. Lady Luxuray could hold the others safe. All this happens in the third number.

In the inaugural dash I fancy the chances of Jordice best. His terrific speed over a short journey and the going is just made to order. Blue Paradise has worked fairly well. So has Blushing Beauty. Jack Hare, Jr., is a "money horse." Well meant he would be a hard nut to crack. Miss Fontaine figures much the best in the second. Is a fair sort of a 2-year-old in clever hands. Puzzle has worked like a house afire, but is in a bad post horse. Repeat will go well.

The clockers' long-shot special—a bird that you should be allowed to write your ticket on—is Judge David. According to the lads at the Kentucky track he was shipped from the East in order to make possible a genuine melon cutting. The wise money riders today, Chief Brown is right on edge. Kimpalong will go well. The Camden entry seemingly has been dropped into a soft spot in the fifth. Either one should be able to trim such company. Blowing Bubbles worked like a wild horse before leaving the East. Tab closely. Old Man Brown, the daddy of all of the clockers, shoots me Brink as the three-star special at Havre de Grace. Brownie also likes Martin Noonan, Phedoden and Gath. Over at Annapolis I have John P. Grier as the real live one. That's all.

One best bet of the day—Manager Waite. Best take-a-chance bet—Brink. Best parlay—McLean entry, Tenons Bon. Miss Fontaine to show.

LEXINGTON SELECTIONS. First—Jordice, Blushing Beauty, Jack Hare, Jr. Second—Miss Fontaine, Puzzle. Repeat—McLean entry, Tenons Bon, Miss Fontaine to show.
