G. W. U. NOTES

The Medical School at George Washington University will soon be one of the finest in the country as the result of plans university officials for the development of the department.

The freshmen class this year is twice the size of the 1918 and 1919 classes. If the present rate of registration continues, it will doubtless be necessary to enlarge the quarters next year.

The university hospital has been extensively improved and is now running at full capacity.

The Hatchet, weekly student publication, will be represented at the convention of the Intercollegiate News Association at Pennsylvania State College by Harold E. Rhame.

Work has begun already on the compilation of the Cherry Tree student year-book.

More than twenty girls have reported for practice for the girls' basketball team.

A George Washington University Club is being formed.

More than 1,500 university students have signed the student activities tax.

Harry Newman is in charge of a drive to increase the number of subscribers to more than 2,000.

Mrs. Louis Hertle, wife of one of the university trustees, and Mrs. John Paul Earnest, wife of Prof. Earnest, of the Law School, have started a campaign to raise funds to furnish recreation and rest rooms for men and women students of the Law School.

An attractive room has been assigned the girl students on the second floor and a large clubroom has been set aside in the basement for the men.

The first dance of the season to be given by the Joseph H. Choate chapter Sigma Nu Phi fraternity, National University, will be held at Hauscher's, Connecticut avenue and H street northwest, November 20, 1920, at 8:30.

The committee on arrangements are Ralph G. Robey, chairman; R. H. Cook, Godfrey Munter and Ernest S. Davis.

Elaborate preparations are being made by the committee in anticipation of the largest fraternity gathering of the school year.
