

Muriel Ostriche, noted Screen Actress, dresses her beautiful hair in the Coffeur Charmante, pictured and described in "Artistic French Coiffures," a dainty little book enclosed with every Bonnie-B Hair Net.

Follow the directions given in this booklet and you can dress your own hair just as Miss Ostriche arranges hers. And be sure to finish your toilette with a

Bonnie-B IMPORTED HAIR NET

Bonnie-B Hair Nets add a wonderful luxury to your hair. Only the finest quality human hair, thoroughly sterilized and reconditioned, is used in making the Bonnie-B Hair Net. The Bonnie-B, most elastic net you can buy—and the most durable!—Guaranteed to wear three times longer than any other. For each, two for 25¢; white or gray 25¢.

Bonnie-B Veils, imported from France, and Vel-Ve-Dab, the new Bonnie-B Powder Puff are the same guaranteed quality as Bonnie-B Hair Nets. At all Department stores, Specialty shops and Dress Stores.

The Bonnie-B Co., Inc., 222 Fourth Avenue, New York

Snooky the humanzee star of the Chester Comedies and his pal, Eddie Bonns.

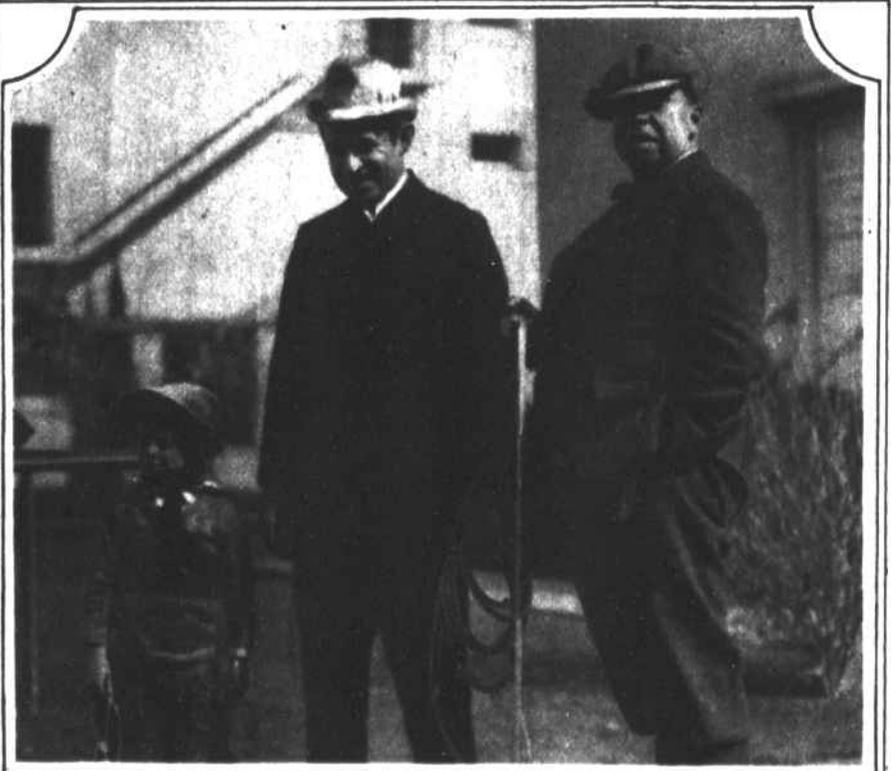

Chinese students at Columbia College, New York, to give a Chinese play—a sixth century revival "Mulan." Scene: Daughters trying to prevent their father from going to war. The proceeds of the play are to be given to the Chinese Famine Fund. Copyright Keystone View Company

These two distinguished gentlemen are none other than Gouverneur Morris, the author, and Clayton Hamilton, the critic, both of whom are in the Goldwyn service. The Director didn't want anybody to watch his production so he put up these screens but the two writing genrv fooled him

A remarkable freak picture of Victor Schertzinger, director of the Goldwyn picture, "The Concert," in the triple capacity of violinist, accompanist and director.

It is to laugh! When two such humorists as Will Rogers and Irvin S. Cobb get together. It's hard to tell whether the rumble is a California earthquake or just the laughter of the populace. The pint-size cowboy is Jimmy Rogers, Will's 5 year old son.