CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 28.—That Cleveland was able to defeat Wash-ington today. 3 to 2, while Detroit was winning from New York, 7 to 3, was due to Joe Wood, who is permitted to play right field for center, while his home run in the sixth round was the winning tally.
Joe's heroic batting feats not only brought victory to the tribe, but also put the Indians more than a game ahead of the Yankees. He also made it possible for Cleveland

From the second to the eighth mly one visitor got to first base. In on a pop single to left center and Eush on Wamby's wild throw to first in an effort to complete a double play. Stanley fanned pinch batter Earl Smith in the control of the batter Earl Smith in the eighth.
This strike out was the sixth registered by him in seven innings.
It was in the ninth, though, that the Shamokin Pole hurled his most artful pills. The first two Nationals got on in this round and it tory or a possible defeat.

Covey walked Judge to start the ninth, just as he had wlaked the first man to face him in the first nning when the visitors bunched wo hits and two sacrifices along with the pass for their two runs. When Rice followed Judge's walk vith a single, somebody in the stand, more anxious than the others, told Covey it was time to turn on the well known juice. Covey did, and with some mighty adroit baseball from George Burns, the first base Adonis, retired the in-vaders without one of them getting by second base.
