

HOBEY BAKER CAPTURES AMSTERDAM HANDICAP IN BUNCHED FINISH

Defeats Servitor, Warnote, By the Barest of Margins Separated Only by Noses as They Flash Past Judges—Edwina Left in Ruck—Knot's Work Disappointing.

By ED CUBLEY.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 29.—A wide world of racing horses dashed for the finish line in the Amsterdam Handicap this afternoon. Only one separated them, but Hobeby Baker, the Salmon star, had his in by a few inches and received the palm of victory. Servitor, outside, was second, and Warnote the rail, was third.

The trio furnished a picture that often seen on the screen with the dog going there by a miracle. It was a finish that the crowd appreciated, for Hobeby Baker was the 5-5 favorite. Up to the moment when he showed his nose over the line on the inside, he was a long way behind. He was very discouraging to the spectators as he came down the track, but when he came down the alley first in the Uncas High Weight Handicap. Squatted on Reginald's back, was Fator, the first mount of the day and he made it a winner. Fator got Reginald off winging, with Seraphus behind him. They stepped along in this manner for about a mile and a half. Reginald went to the front. Once clear of his field he hustled for home in a big hurry. Seraphus hung
