JOINT COMMITTEE
FOR SERVICE MEN,
ALEXANDRIA HEARS
Veterans' Bureau, Red Cross and Legion Will Co-operate.

THE HERALD BUREAU,
A. S. Doniphan,
727 King Street.
ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 4.— Nevell S. Greenaway, clerk of the corporation court has received a letter from Gov. Westmoreland Davis regarding aid for former service men in Virginia. It sets forth that a committee has been formed in Virginia composed of representatives of the Veterans' Bureau, the American Red Cross and the American Legion, which committee will have headquarters in the chamber of commerce building, Richmond. The committee will visit cities in Virginia, and impart information concerning all matters relating to the rights and care of former service men.

Matters pertaining to medical and hospital treatment and care, insurance, continuation and vocational training will be taken up for adjustment by the committee and cleared promptly through the Veterans' Bureau at Washington. Assistance will be rendered by the committee to former service men in the preparation of papers and forms required in making application for compensation or vocational training. Examinations can be made of applicants for assistance without delay.

The committee will furnish transportation to former service men who apply for assistance from their homes to the nearest city in which the committee will sit, provided the applicant will furnish the committee with a certified copy of his discharge.

Eleven colored men were captured late last night in a poker raid made by the police on a house on the west side of Lee between Queen and Princess streets. Collateral was deposited by eight of them and their cases will be called tomorrow morning in the police court. The men were taken by surprise when the police entered. The raid was conducted by Chief Goods, Sergt. Wilkinson and Policemen Thompson, Snellings, Magner and Newland.

Members of James W. Jackson Council No. 55, Junior Order of United American Mechanics today visited the various cemeteries of the city and decorated the graves of its deceased members in accordance with an annual custom.

J. Fred Birrell this morning delivered an address before the members of the men's Bible class of Trinity M. E. Church. At that church tonight an address was delivered by Charles E. Johnson, of the Emmanuel Bible Class of Christ Episcopal Church today resumed services at the church.

The funeral of Charles H. Simms, whose body was found in the woods near the Dyke last Thursday was held this afternoon at Beulah, Baptist Church, Fairfax County. Services were conducted by the Rev. E.
W. Mellichamp, rector of Pohick church. Burial was in the cemetery at Beulah church.

Plans have been completed for an entertainment which will be given Tuesday night in the Lyceum Hall by Koinageira, a "World renowned" magician. Proceeds will be for the benefit of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

LIET. FRANCIS BODY IN RICHMOND
CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., Sept. 4.—
The body of Lieut. James Wayne France, of this city, who was killed in the battle of the Argonne Forest on October 9, 1918, has arrived in Richmond, where the funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Lieut. France was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. France, of this city, and was an alumnus of the University of Virginia. He is survived by his parents; two sisters, Mrs. G. M. Mc-Nutt and Miss Alice W. France, both of this city; and one brother, Douglas C. France, of Raleigh, N. C., who was a first lieutenant in the Medical Corps Ambulance Service, U. S. A., during the last two months of the world war.

COALE CRIES "FALSE," TO J. W. RYON'S CHARGES Denies Race Track's Finance Organization Is Wing of G. O. P. in Prince Georges.

UPPER MARLBORO, Md., Sept. 4.— S. Gardiner Coale, chairman of the Republican State central committee, and a candidate for re-election as a member of the committee, denies the allegation of Staats Attorney J. Wilson Ryon, made at a meeting of the anti-organization wing of the Republican party of Prince Georges County, Star Hall, Mount Rainier, Friday evening that the race track interests outside of the county had contributed $5,000 to be used in the primary next Friday, to defeat the anti-organization people.

VIRGINIA SUMMER QUARTER CLOSES
Enrollment of 2,731 Exceeds
Last Year's Record
By 897.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., Sept. 4.—
The summer quarter of the University of Virginia closed yesterday.
In every respect it was the most successful session in its history. The total enrollment for both terms this year was 2,731; deducting duplicates for the second term, the net enrollment of individual students for the quarter was 2,425, an increase of 897 over any previous year.

Of the total enrollment, 2,161 were from Virginia and 570 from twenty-eight other States and three foreign countries. One of the significant features of the enrollment from Virginia is the fact that in the first term every county in the State was represented, and in the second term ninety-two counties were represented.

There were 2,004 women and 709 men. The following statistics are indicative of the character of the student body: 1,277 were registered for university credit courses, 793 were at least graduates of high schools and enrolled for elementary professional work; 94 were registered for the renewal of certificates and 639 were pursuing advanced work for no special credit, though of college grade.

The States outside of Virginia that were more largely represented were, in order of enrollment: North Carolina, with 139; South Carolina, 99; Maryland, 46; West Virginia, 38; Tennessee and Georgia, each with 35; and the remainder varying from 2 to 25.

Another gratifying feature was the enrollment of students from the Northern and Western section of the country, there being 4 from Connecticut, 4 from Delaware, 3 from Illinois, 5 from Indiana, 5 from Massachusetts, 5 from Missouri and 18 from New York.

There were more than 125 graduate students in the first term and a large number in the second term.
The body of least graduates acquired of strictly graduate courses will be offered for the purpose of encouraging this class of students to come to Virginia for their master's work rather than go North at much greater expense.

CITY IS ELATED BY LEGION ACTION
CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., Sept. 4.—
The action of the Department of Virginia American Legion, at its third annual convention in Norfolk, Va. unanimously voting to hold the 1922 session here, gives great satisfaction to the local legion and citizens.

Charlotteville was further honored when the convention made Maj. J. S.
Graves alternate delegate to represent Virginia at the next national meeting of the legion at Kansas City, and by the choice of W. A. Bark-dale as district commander.

The delegation from this city carried invitations to the convention from the mayor, the chamber of commerce, the Rotary and Young Men's Business clubs, Dean Maphis and the Alumni Association of the university.
President Barkdale of the university, wired his endorsement and offered the use of the university buildings for the 1922 meeting. The local posts were represented by five delegates and the city and chamber of commerce by Secretary Case.

Capt. Edlavitch Plans Drive in Legion Work
HYATTSVILLE, Md., Sept. 4.— Capt. J. Moses Edlavitch, overseas war hero and well-known merchant of this place, who was elected a member of the executive committee at the recent convention of the Department of Maryland, American Legion, at Baltimore, is planning to pay frequent visits to the Virginia Department, Charles Calvert, Sgt.
Mary and Montgomery counties to organize new legion posts and arouse interest in present organizations.

Southern Maryland Club Plans Outing on Sept. 15 HYATTSVILLE, Md., Sept. 4.—Under the auspices of the recently formed Southern Maryland Country Club a company program will be given on the Surrattville High School grounds September 15. At noon an old-time Southern Maryland chicken dinner will be served followed by a baseball game between the Clinton Bank team and another Southern Maryland nine. A dance will be in the school gymnasium in the evening.

Lynchburg Chamber Wants Night Trains
LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 4.— Strong opposition has been voiced in the chamber of commerce here to an effort on the part of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway to abandon the night trains between here and Richmond. Meetings called for consideration of the proposition show that the sense of the chamber is that the service rendered by that system east of Lynchburg is wholly inadequate to the needs of this city.

Storekeeper Charged With Incendiary Fire
MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 4.— H. Pelts, proprietor of a local grocery store badly damaged by fire last Saturday night, was arrested late today at the instance of State fire marshal's office, charged with setting fire to his store with the intent of defrauding insurance companies.
Pelts, who had $5,000 insurance on a stock said to be worth about $2,000, was released under $2,000 bond.

Slippery Streets Blamed By Police for Many Mishaps.
Seven persons, three of them children, were severely injured in accidents in the District Saturday.
The rain in the afternoon, which made the streets slippery, was blamed by police as the cause of the majority of accidents.

Autoists Prepare
To Fight Gang of Stone-Throwers
LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 4.—Local auto motorists who frequent the Boonboro road in the vicinity of Boonboro, some seven miles from town, are going armed now, as a result of cars being stoned at night by a crew of white men. It is thought that a gang of ruffians is endeavoring to break up the heavy traffic over this improved road.

Supplies Cost
D. C. $3,202,065
Roads, Streets, and Sewer Materials Biggest Item in Increased Yearly Expense.

Supplies and materials for the District government cost $3,202,- 065.56 last year, an increase of $48,177.31 over 1920 expenditures, according to the annual report of Marion Hargrove, purchasing agent of the District, submitted to the Comptroller Saturday.

The District government's purchases resemble those of a huge household. The fuel bill ran up to $617,315.18; electric and gas light bills were $62,312.92; food cost $10, 207.35, and food for the District institutions was charged as follows: Eggs and milk, $29,491.14; groceries, poultry, meat and fish, $192,876.43; and vegetables and fruits, $6,922.46.

The largest item in the material roads, streets and sewer work, which amounted to $733,197.41.
Hardware, plumbing supplies, paints, oils and lumber cost $367,- 457.30; forage, livery and horseshoeing, $25,210.80; and automobile supplies, $28,064.84. There was $168,718.06 paid for fire apparatus and supplies and $128,151.18 for machinery, engines, boilers and pumps.

Correspondence was also a large item, amounting to $10,720.00.
$43,757; printing and engraving, $60,- 767.07; and postage, $14,731. Piling of requisitions from schools and kindergartens supplies cost $14,- 191.48.

Relief Workers Sail for Russia
Col. W. N. Haskell Starts
With Five Thousand
Tons of Food.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The vanguard of the staff of the American relief mission to Russia sailed Saturday on the Olympic, headed by Col.
William N. Haskell, who will personally be in charge of the organization.

Five thousand tons of foodstuffs had been assembled at the docks, and other supplies will follow the party within a few weeks. Other shipments of supplies have already been sent in from other European countries, and it is not expected that there will be any appreciable delay in getting the distribution under way on a regular scale.

Sailing with Col. Haskell were T.
C. Lonergan, executive officer; Paul Schapp, of Montclair, N. J., a communications expert; Edward Fox, of Pottsville, Pa.; Maj. Charles Telford, David Barton Kinney and John Joseph Mangan, relief workers; D.
E. McSweeney and S. M. Saunders, port representatives; Dr. Henry Bequwkes and Dr. Walter Davenport, medical directors, and John A.
Sellaards, confidential secretary. The party will be joined by about thirty other relief workers who have been sent into Russia from other parts of Europe.

"LEGLESS JAKE"
AND GIRL TAKEN
IN LIQUOR RAIDS
Six Loaded Guns and Fifty Quarts of Wet Goods Captured.

James T. Holmes, colored, 226 Brooks court northwest, known as "Legless Jake" and Mabel Hill, 14 years old, 325 Syphax court southwest, said to be two of Washington's most unusual bootleggers, were arrested Saturday for alleged illegal possession and selling of intoxicating liquor.

Despite his physical handicap, "Legless Jake" Holmes, the police claim, is an active bootlegger. Besides confiscating fifty quarts of liquor, police seized five loaded 45-caliber revolvers, a loaded rifle and books and papers.

Standing in his doorway as the police raided the place, Holmes offered no resistance while the liquor and weapons were taken from a secret closet on the second floor. He was lodged at the Second precinct.
Mabel Hill, who was arrested about four months ago for bootlegging, was caught this time as she was placing several quarts of newly purloined liquor in a secret cache on the second floor of her home, police say. Regardless of her youth, she was taken to the police station.
When she appeared before Judge Katherine Sellers, of the Juvenile Court, for her first offense the case was dismissed.

The raiding parties were composed of Internal Revenue Officer Harold R. Stephenson, Lieut. Sheets, Sergts. Gray, Rone and Roper, Detectives Berry and Mansfield and Policeman Rosenburg.

Lewis Jacobson, 23 years old, was arrested in the first place while Nathan Pollan, 36 years old and Max Kaplan, 33 years old, were taken at the latter place.
