

VIRGINIA PAGEANT OPENS TONIGHT AT ALEXANDRIA

Two Nights' Presentation For Benefit of Play- grounds.

CALLS NEW PASTOR

Second Presbyterian Church Invites North Carolina Minister.

THE HERALD BUREAU.
A. 727 King Street.
ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 18.—Everything is in readiness for presentation of the Virginia historical pageant tonight and Wednesday night on Baggett's Field at the head of King street.

Each evening music will be furnished by the Fort Hunt Band, known as "Fishing's Own." Members of the Alexandria Machine Gun Company will act as guard around the grounds. Proceeds will be for the benefit of the children's playgrounds.

At the opening tomorrow night there will be an address by City Manager Wilder M. Rich, and Wednesday night by Representative R. Walton Moore.

The stage, which was completed this afternoon, has over 12,000 square feet of space and seating accommodations have been provided for 2,000 persons.

An event of rain the presentation will be postponed until the first clear night.

The committee in charge of the arrangements is composed of Miss Helen Norris Cummings, general chairman; Frank Steele, Norris P. Roland, E. J. McDermott, executive committee; H. E. Gentry, treasurer; E. A. Feldkeller, and Bernard Selig advertising; Frank Steele, N. P. Roland, E. J. McDermott, light committee; C. M. Horgan, publicity; Mrs. T. C. Howard, music and properties; Miss Mamie Conlon, prompter; Miss Mahon, dance instructor.

The congregation of the Second Presbyterian Church has extended a call to Rev. John A. McLean, Jr., pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Morgantown, N. C. William Campbell and Alfred Thomson will formally present the call at a meeting of the Potomac Presbytery Thursday in Richmond.

Rev. McLean preached in this city August 6. He is about 35 years old and a graduate of the Union Theological Seminary.

The church has been without a permanent pastor since the resignation of Rev. John Lee Allison, D. D., May 1.

The sum of $326.12 was realized from the sale of tags on the streets Saturday to raise funds to purchase school books for children of the striking railroad employes.

The burning of leaves on the bi-luminous macadam streets and beside granite curbing is injurious, according to City Manager Wilder M. Rich, who is making a request of householders to discontinue the practice.

Gov. E. Lee Trinkle will be in Alexandria November 14, to participate in the parade and class initiation under the auspices of the Northern Virginia Odd Fellows Association. The parade will take place in the afternoon and the initiation at night.

The Southern Railway Company has just received the Mikado type, similar to those used on the Santa Fe. These engines have a pulling capacity of 1,500 tons and will carry fifty loaded cars, it is stated.

Senator Claude A. Swanson has endorsed the proposition for a free public library for which a movement has been launched here. The Senator is quoted as saying "I always have been a staunch advocate of public libraries."

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

By EVELYN C. HUNT.

Mrs. James J. Davis, wife of the Secretary of Labor, will join him here at their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel on October 1. The Secretary will be in Washington to join Mrs. Davis and their children for the coming week-end at Moosehead, Ill., where they went early in July.

The Minister of Guatemala and Mrs. Olaya will close their cottage at Allentown, N. J., the end of the month and return to Washington.

The Minister of Finland, Axel Astrom, who is in New York, will return to Washington today.

The Charge d'Affaires of the Chilean Embassy and Mrs. Munizaga-Varela entertained at dinner last evening at Wardman Park in celebration of the Chilean independence day. They had as their guests members of the embassy staff and a few other friends.

Mr. Munizaga-Varela, commercial counselor of the embassy, became charge d'affaires when the counselor, Oscar Gana-Serruya, sailed for his home in Chile last week. He has come to Washington from New York, where he maintains his headquarters, to remain until the return of the Chilean Ambassador, Beltran Mathieu, who is at present abroad on leave. Mr. Gana-Serruya will return to Washington from Chile in November, bringing Mrs. Gana-Serruya with him.

The recently appointed Justice and Mrs. George Sutherland have reopened their apartment in Stoneleigh Court after having spent the summer in Europe.

Boaz Long entertained a small company at luncheon yesterday at the Shephard.

Miss Sally McCadoo, daughter of the former Secretary of the Treasury, who since returning from California, has been at the Bryn Mawr camp, will come to Washington next week as the guest of Miss Helen Carusol until entering Bryn Mawr College on October 2. Miss McCadoo and Miss Carusol were honor members of the same class at their graduation in June at Holton Arms.

Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske and his daughter, Miss Caroline H. Fiske, have returned to their apartment in Stoneleigh Court yesterday, after spending the summer at the North Shore, near Boston.

MISS MADELEINE PIERSON RETURNS FROM EUROPE.
Miss Madeleine Pierson, of the Belgian Embassy, has returned from Europe where she spent the summer.

Mrs. Marshall Field is making a brief visit to her sixteenth street home, but will not establish herself in November. Mrs. Field spent the season in London, where she entertained and was entertained by Lord and Lady Beatty and other family connections of the late Mr. Field.

Miss Josephine Williford, niece and house guest of Mrs. Alfred Pembroke Thum, entertained at luncheon yesterday for Miss Catherine Clark and her husband, Lieut. Roger Bagnall, United States Marine Corps, will take place tomorrow, and Miss Elizabeth Koonen, whose marriage to Erik Shou Henius takes place the following day, was informally at the luncheon.

The young hostess and her guests were followed by a large oval table arranged on the lawn.

Mrs. Roscoe Bulmer came up from Annapolis yesterday and entertained informally at luncheon at the Shoreham.

MISS SIDNEY WEBB BRIDE OF WALTER F. CHAPPELL.
The marriage of Miss Sidney Webb, daughter of Mr. John Sidney Webb, to Walter F. Chappell of New York, was one of the most important of the early autumn weddings.

The young couple had originally intended to have a brilliant wedding in London, but Mr. Chappell's business arrangements made it necessary for him to be in this country by November 15, and rather than cut short the honeymoon in Europe upon which they had set their hearts, they decided to advance the date. They were married, therefore, in Mrs. Webb's apartment at 2029 Connecticut avenue, with only members of the two families and a few intimate friends assembled to witness the ceremony.

The wedding took place at noon, the Rev. Edward Slater Dunlap, of St. John's Church, officiating, and was followed by breakfast in which a few other guests were invited. The bride entered the flower decked drawing room on the arm of her brother, Hayward Hutchinson Webb, who gave her in marriage. She wore a charming picture in her softly draped gown of soft ivory satin combined with chiffon with only few clusters of orange blossoms for trimming. It was made with long skirts which are so rapidly coming into favor, and the graceful uneven hem line. Orange blossoms held her full tulle veil in place and she carried a white flowered and peach color. It was simply made, but fashioned on modish lines, the skirt dipping at the sides. She wore no hat, but carried an armful of early autumn flowers.

Mrs. Webb, the bride's mother, wore a handsome and becoming costume of lace and brocade.

Among the guests from other cities assembled for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John R. Strong, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Talmage, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom; Mr. H. R. Kumbhart, another sister; Mr. Graves, Miss Graves and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Riker.

Mr. Chappell and his bride will sail shortly for Europe and expect to return about the middle of November, coming to Washington then for a short visit to Mrs. Webb. They will make their home in New York.

EX-KAISER SCORNS OBJECTIONS; WILL MARRY PRINCESS

Former Emperor's Son Share His Exile at Doorn, Holland.

BERLIN, Sept. 18.—Overriding the opposition of his sons and the German royalists here, former Kaiser Wilhelm will marry a pretty widow of royal blood in November. The official announcement of the former Kaiser's engagement to Princess Schonach-Carolath, better known by her maiden title of Princess Hermoine of Baden, was made here today. The wedding will take place in November. It was stated.

The princess, described as an attractive woman of 34, the mother of four children, recently made a lengthy visit to the former Kaiser's house in Doorn, Holland, where he is in exile. Soon rumors developed here that they were to be married. Immediately the former emperor's sons and his royalist friends in Berlin protested, declaring that his marriage now would create a bad impression throughout the fatherland and that the late Kaiser was beloved and would practically kill chances of his ever returning to Germany as Kaiser.

Wilhelm is said to have shown extreme irritation when an emissary of the royalists called at Doorn to make known these objections, dismissing his caller abruptly. A few days ago reports were received here that the marriage was to take place in the near future despite objections, and this was followed today by official confirmation.

The former Kaiser's fiancée is the widow of Prince John, George of Schonach-Carolath, who died two years ago. She was formerly the Princess Hermoine, fourth daughter of Henry the Twelfth, reigning prince of Reuss.

MAJ. GEN. HARBORD MAY LEAVE ARMY

Will Charge Officer With Brutality

Gen. James G. Harbord, deputy Chief of Staff, is considering retiring from the service, it was learned yesterday.

Gen. Harbord has not yet reached a final decision but it is understood he has spoken to Secretary of War Weeks regarding his desire to retire. It is understood Harbord wishes to take up work in civil life.

Lloyd A. Mazel, of 2429 L street northwest, will prefer charges of brutality against Policeman M. J. Dowd, of the Seventh precinct, according to a statement yesterday by J. William Shea, his attorney.

Mazel, who forfeited $10 collateral yesterday in Police Court on a charge of intoxication, claims, his attorney stated, on him at the station Saturday and knocked out his teeth.

The attack was made, it is claimed, because the prisoner rattled the cell door and asked for a drink of water. The complaint will be carried to the District Commissioners by the attorney.

Gets 360 Days in Jail For Carrying Pistol
George Jackson, colored, of Oxon Hill, Md., was sent to jail for 360 days in Police Court yesterday for carrying a loaded pistol in his pocket and also fined $10 for being drunk.

Sylvester Parmes, colored, was fined $50 for having a razor. The accused claimed he found the weapon.

Held for Grand Jury.
Accused of killing his wife, Ernest Shands, colored, 28 years old, living in the rear of 225 D street northwest, was held for the grand jury by the coroner yesterday. The wife died at Casualty Hospital from a fractured skull.

WAS KIND; IS SORRY; ALSO $160 POORER

Girl Autoist Gives Youth a Lift, and He Rifles Her Purse.

The kindness of Miss Dorothy Peake, of 1517 Webster street north-west, may cost her $160. Hailed by a girl in company with three high school girls yesterday, at Fourteenth and Belmont streets northwest, Miss Peake stopped her machine to give the youth a lift and was asked to drive to Fourteenth and H streets northwest, where she was to take the youth to her home. While on her way, Miss Peake noticed that the youth leaned near her several times, but unsuspecting, she said nothing. When the boy got out of the machine, his destination she discovered that her pocketbook containing one $100 bill and three $20 bills had been rifled.

Miss Peake reported her loss to the police and described the boy as being about 17 years of age, average size, light complexion, light hair and short trousers. He wore a Norfolk coat. Merchants have been requested by the police to keep a lookout for any boy who may try to change a $100 bill.

FALL SAYS STATES' OIL MONEY READY
Secretary of the Interior Fall has certified to the Treasury Department that the rights to the oil and gas leases in California, Colorado, Louisiana, Montana and Wyoming under the oil and gas leasing act for the fiscal year recently ended. Under the law the States receive 20 per cent of royalties for production prior to leasing and 37 1/2 per cent for production after date of lease.

The specific amounts certified are as follows: Colorado, $68,244; Colorado, $1,479; Louisiana, $109; Montana, $78,218; and Wyoming, $1,506,377.

REFUSES TO PROSECUTE HUSBAND FOR MAYHEM

Russell Owens, colored, 2142 Clark street southwest, who was alleged to have beaten his wife, Nettie Clark, so badly that she lost the sight of her left eye, was released from jail yesterday, the woman declining to prosecute him on a charge of mayhem.

She explained to District Attorney Peyton Gordon that her husband was either drugged or drunk at the time and did not know what he was doing.

Board of Trade Outing.
The fall outing of the Washington Board of Trade membership committee will be held Saturday at High Island, on the Upper Potomac, a short distance in Maryland, according to a statement made by Richard Conner, assistant secretary of the board, yesterday.
