

NEW BANK BUILDING WILL BE ERECTED IN S. W. SECTION

American Security Buys Property at Seventh and E Southwest.

Property on the northwest corner of Seventh and E streets southwest has been purchased by the Southwest Branch of the American Security and Trust Company's Home Savings Branch for the erection of a new bank building. This plans were made public at a meeting of the advisory board of the Southwest Branch held yesterday afternoon. The building on the corner and the one adjoining will be demolished to make room for the new structure. That it will be as modern a bank building as can be found in the city is assured by business men interested in the bank. White marble and limestone will be used in the building, and the interior will be furnished with modern bank equipment. In January an advisory board composed of Southwest business men was elected to supervise the building. They were: Frank A. Johnson, real estate, 305 Seventh street southwest; Capt. A. J. Taylor, marine supplies, Tenth and Water streets southwest; Geo. M. Ypatman, hardware, 425 Seventh street southwest; Dr. Charles M. Hammett, 614 F street southwest; and George Dant, lithographer, 522 Seventh street southwest. Richard R. Harris, assistant treasurer of the American Security and Trust Company, is in charge of the Southwest Branch. The bank was established in 1906.

Mrs. J. W. Thawley and daughter, of 1118 Virginia avenue southwest, gave a surprise party on her birthday.

Miss Ella Adams, of North Carolina has recently accepted a position in the Department of Agriculture, Fourteenth and B streets southwest.

The Southwest branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Bohannon, 323 Twelfth street southwest, Monday evening.

Harry Dickhaut has opened a new store at 313 Seventh street southwest, known as "The Old Curiosity Shop."

Mrs. M. H. Satter and niece, Miss Maude Gal'oway, 1118 Virginia avenue southwest, spent their vacation in North Carolina.

BIBLE BODY PLANS BIG MEMBER DRIVE

Vaughn Class Opens Extensive Campaign in City Tomorrow. The Vaughn Bible Class of Calvary Baptist Church will officially start its membership drive tomorrow. They expect almost 100 per cent attendance of its present membership of 500. A membership of 2,000 is their goal by December 1. The drive will be conducted by the following organization: Homer J. Councilor, general; John A. Patterson, major general in charge of the "Old Guard"; Ralph C. Howard, major general of the "Contenders." Reporting to each major general will be ten colonels. For the Old Guard these are: Hugh W. Smith, H. B. Nevius, Carl E. Bogardus, William E. Hughes, H. D. Ormsby, K. L. Osborne, Richard A. Sauer, Jesse L. Ward, Capt. John H. Wheeler and J. H. J. Yule.

Each colonel will have ten captains and each captain an aide. It will be noted that there are no privates, the psychology being that one can expect more of an officer, and every man is an officer.

Plans provide for reaching and inviting to the class more than 8,000 men of Washington. Prof. L. D. Bliss is their teacher.

A. S. M. Hutchinson's "This Freedom" will be discussed at the meeting of the literary section of the Takoma Park Civic Club next Tuesday at 3 o'clock. Mrs. M. Barrows, Willow avenue, will be hostess.

Charles H. D. Godfrey, Tulip avenue, Takoma Park, has returned to Philadelphia, where he will resume his studies at Pennsylvania University.

ON SHIP LOSES 52 PASSENGERS UNDER DRY LAW

Continued on Page Two. similar injunctions tomorrow, it was reported. The basis of the White Star Line's case was that the steamer Majestic was about to sail from Liverpool and unless the company had legal assurances that its liquor cargo would not be seized here the whole wet stock might have to be thrown overboard outside the three-mile limit of New York.

While steamship owners thus were apparently winning the first round in the fight against the Daugherty decision, the government may still have the upper hand in the controversy. It was pointed out that neither the injunction nor the orders to show cause say anything about the power of the customs officials to withhold clearance papers from vessels.

The probability that customs authorities may refuse clearance to ships carrying liquor was indicated by John D. Appleby, zone chief enforcement agent.

The test of this development may come Wednesday, after the period of "grace" allowed by the Treasury Department expires on all boats.

The four-masted schooner Freeman, from Norfolk, Va., to Bangor, Me., sailed to get a new captain at Vineyard Haven Mass. Its first mate, William Jones, reported that the former skipper had traded part of the cargo for booze from a rum runner off Long Island and had to be put in chains because he persisted in steering the ship straight onto the Long Island coast.

London Baptist Tells Of Russian Conditions

Work in relief and along lines of missionary endeavor being followed by the Baptists in Russia and elsewhere in Europe were discussed by Rev. J. H. Rushbrook, of London, Eng., at the prayer meeting of Calvary Baptist Church last night.

Dr. Rushbrook asserted that although there were Baptists in Russia, no one knew their number. He described the deplorable conditions in that country.

Eastside, Westside All Around Town

Intimate Glimpses Into District Happenings as Seen By Roving Reporters. When on thinks of a "moonshiner" he has visions of a secluded nook on some mountain side, where, far from the prying eyes of the world, the "blockader" carries on his nefarious trade.

"Not so," claims a reporter who obtained a personal interview from one of the city's most influential "bootleggers." The distillers are more secure in the thickly populated sections of the city than in the mountains and he extracts all the romance from the business by explaining that illicit whiskey is made with the aid of a bath tub and a copper still on the top floors of apartment houses.

The smoker will usually find a way. The other night while waiting for a car a young man took a cigarette from his pocket and started an exhaustive search through his pockets for a match. He had none and neither of his companions were supplied. Spy in the red lanterns placed on the ends of the waiting platform by the street car companies, the resourceful citizen lifted one of the globes, lighted his cigarette and commended the company for its thoughtfulness.

The story set old around town that a well known young blood attended a wedding the other day dressed in the conventional morning suit. After he had made himself thoroughly conspicuous some one attracted his attention to a note pinned to his coat tail. The billet doct, written in a larger hand than was as follows: "Dear Jim, here is the suit, but get it back by Monday as I am to be pallbearer at another unpleasant affair."

Such scenes as the one enacted at Fourteenth and F streets yesterday allay all fears that bobbed hair and the vote will ever seriously affect our women folk.

The traffic was at its worst.

about 5 p. m., when a soldier with the aid of crutches was endeavoring to cross the street. Men jostled him in their anxiety to get home in time for dinner and passing vehicles paid no heed to his crippled condition. "I'm an aged woman of the type affectionately described as moth-erly, stepped to the side of the maimed soldier and assisted him to the other side of the street.

The following dialogue took place in police court yesterday between Judge Hardison and a dusky plaintiff who evidently believes in the "baker's" dozen: "How many were in the room?" the judge asked. "I really can't say, your honor," was the reply. "Were there ten?" asked the judge, trying to help the witness. "I don't think so, judge," the man answered. "Well, were there a half dozen present?" inquired the judge. "No, six, judge. I don't believe there was more than six," replied the dorky.

WORLD PORTRAYAL LISTED TOMORROW

Rev. Taylor to Speak at M. M. M. Episcopal Church. A campaign under the title of "World Conditions" will be inaugurated tomorrow in the Metropolitan Memorial M. E. Church. Rev. Dr. James M. Taylor, who for years was a missionary in India and a world traveler, will speak twice tomorrow and each night during the week except Saturday. He will speak three times the following Sunday.

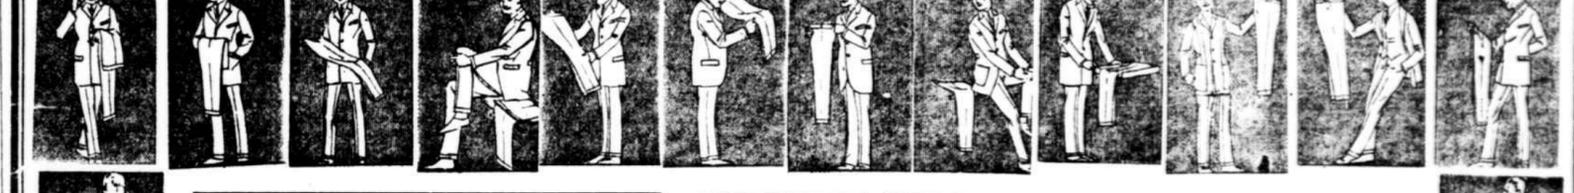

Dr. Taylor is a brilliant speaker and has been received by many churches and Kiwanis clubs most enthusiastically. He will discuss such topics as "World Conditions Which Make Democracy Impossible," "India, the Land of Superlatives," "South America, the Land of Opportunity," "Mexico, the Land of Buried Civilizations," and "Disarmament and the cost of War."

RHEUMATISM IS ENTIRELY GONE

"I Eat and Sleep Like a Child and Feel Splendid," Declares 11th St. Woman—Gives Tanlac Credit. Go where you will in the United States, Canada, Mexico or Cuba; talk with anybody who has tried it—the number is legion—and you will find an enthusiastic friend of Tanlac. Tanlac produces most gratifying results and that is where it scores. In Washington alone many thousands of people have expressed their indebtedness to the Master Medicine for the return of their health, strength and happiness. Among them is Mrs. Anna Carroll, 1218 11th Street S. E., who says: "What they put in Tanlac to make it so different and so wonderful is more than I can understand, but I do know it has built me up to where I am enjoying good health and my gratitude is unbounded. I had such a bad case of dyspepsia for a year or more that I actually dreaded to eat anything. My stomach just wouldn't let me have any peace or comfort. I could hardly stand to look at breakfast and I ate so little at other times that my strength about all left me. I also had rashes in the small of my back, rheumatic pains in my arms and legs, and was so nervous I could never hope for a good night's sleep. But things are different since I began taking Tanlac. I eat and sleep like a child and feel so well that life is a pleasure."

Tanlac is sold in Washington by Peoples Drug Stores and all leading druggists.—Adv.
