

PLANS ARE LAID TO BREAK FAKE PASSPORTS

Harry H. Schlaicht Renews Efforts to Have Government Take Steps to Stop Practice

PREY UPON IMMIGRANTS

Will Propose Mayor Hylan Send Lawyers to Foreign Ports to Aid Aliens Coming Over Here

By Universal Service.
Harry H. Schlaicht, head of the Downtown Chamber of Commerce of New York, yesterday renewed his efforts to have the Government take steps to stop enticing inadmissible immigrants to American ports.

He revealed to President Harding an international organization making millions out of the issuance of fraudulent passports and obtaining money from immigrants already in the United States. Mr. Schlaicht urged that the Department of Justice immediately begin an investigation and co-operate with the organization he plans to form upon his return to New York.

RING IS WORLD WIDE

The fraudulent passport ring has offices in all of the thickly populated centers and preys upon foreign-born residents to pay money to bring their relatives from Europe here, he charged.

Recently he charged, agents of this ring in Europe have the protective immigrant write to relatives here and urge them to send the necessary funds to make the trip. These letters, he says, assure the relatives the trip can be arranged and that there will be no question of admission to the United States.

Mr. Schlaicht said: "I hope eventually to see the present law abolished until something humane and adequate can be enacted to take its place. Until this can be done I shall take every step to guard the unfortunate immigrant class in this country and their relatives abroad."

WILL EMPLOY LAWYERS

I shall return to New York and immediately take up with Mayor Hylan the question of employing a special committee for the work. We will undertake to see that lawyers establish branch offices in all of the congested city areas and direct their advice free to the foreign born on the subject of immigration.

We believe that in this way we will be able to materially check the operations of these crooks. In New York we do not expect any big difficulty because we already have the organization pretty well worked out.

There is nothing more at variance with American laws and institutions than the way the present immigration law is being worked out. The treatment accorded some of the immigrants is nothing short of inhuman. Let any man come to Ellis Island with me and see the way they treat the children and I am quite sure they will feel as I do in the matter.

William Dunn, Ace, Is Reported Missing

NATCHEZ, Miss., Nov. 24.—William Gerhard Dunn, twenty-six years old, inspector of Government work, member of a prominent Eastern family, graduate of Columbia University and a member of the British air forces for five years, has been missing since last Friday and authorities of New Orleans, where he was formerly stationed, today were asked to search for him.

At the time of his disappearance Dunn was said to have had $3,000 in cash on his person. It is said that as a result of being gassed during New York, five years ago, Dunn has been a sufferer from aphasia. He is credited with having more than a dozen German planes to his credit.

Frederick County Faces Serious Water Famine

FREDERICK, Md., Nov. 24.—Prospects of a water famine in this county have reached a serious point. This section is experiencing the worst drought in its history and in some towns the situation has become a matter of grave concern. Springs and streams all over the county have dried up, creeks have dwindled to mere brooks, and in places the Monocacy and Potomac rivers can be crossed by footmen from stone to stone above the water.

Try Aged Man on Charge of Killing Five-year-old

YORK, S. C., Nov. 23.—William Faries, sixty-year-old cotton mill operative, was placed on trial here today on charges of having murdered Newton Taylor, five years old, one of the four members of the Taylor family who were killed at Clover last September.

Coxey Receives 5,907 Votes in 'Congress Race'

BELLAIRE, Ohio, Nov. 24.—THE OFFICIAL COUNT in the recent election shows "Gen." Jacob S. Coxey, of Coxey's army fame, the first man in the history of the country to run for Congress in a district other than his own, received 5,907 votes. Representative B. Frank Murphy, Republican, running for re-election, received 41,572 votes, and Marion Huffman, Democrat, 25,409.

The Eighteenth district, in which Coxey ran, is composed of Jefferson, Harrison, Belmont, Columbiana and Carroll counties. Coxey received his biggest vote, 2,289, in Belmont, the largest county, and his smallest, 138, in Carroll.

Coxey's home is in Massillon, in the Sixteenth district. He had planned to have independent candidates for Congress on his ticket and it was through withdrawal of one of those that the committee selected him to make the race. He traveled 3,500 miles by flyover and spent $1,500 for the 5,907 votes.

NEW VET HOSPITAL PLANS COMPLETED

President Harding will announce and put them in operation next week. The plan calls for immediate construction of at least thirty-one modern hospitals and in a general way for the reorganization of the method of administration, it was said. This does not mean a shakeup, it was learned, but that a different system will be employed.

SIX ARE SENTENCED TO TERMS IN PRISON

Youth Gets 20 Years for Killing Woman—Casson, Boy Burglar, Draws Seven.

George Raymond Liggins, colored, described by the police of the Fourth precinct as a good boy who only made one bad break in his life and that was to kill a woman, was sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary yesterday by Justice Bailey in Criminal Court No. 2 in connection with killing Maude Prince, his sister-in-law. The police claimed the shooting grew out of a quarrel. Attorneys Wampler and Lynch, counsel for Liggins, noted an appeal. Liggins was recently in Police Court on a charge of threatening to kill Effie Liggins, his wife, but was acquitted.

Bernard F. Casson, twenty-year-old burglar, who was surprised in the rear of the Sanitary Grocery store at 3152 Mt. Pleasant street northwest with his "pal" Wilfred Michael, was sentenced to seven years for housebreaking and larceny. Michael was killed when he attempted to fire on the police. In consideration of his plea of guilty to the housebreaking charge, the government has dropped a case of automobile stealing against Casson.

Michael J. Dewfolla, "young man about town" was sentenced to two years and two months in prison for forging the name of Charles T. Heath to a $200 check on the National Bank of Washington.

Jack Frisby was sentenced to two years for picking the pocket of Carl Shorter, 415 Hollidge Court. He got $8.

George Evans, convicted of mistreating fifteen-year-old Sarah E. Shoemaker, 3555 Thirteenth street northwest, was sentenced to one year and ten months in prison.

Ernest Seagles, colored janitor at the Bureau of Standards, who stole several thousand dollars worth of platinum from the Bureau, was sentenced to eighteen months.

Wants Change In Coal Law

In order that there may be certain amendments to the coal-finding commission law, recently enacted by Congress, President Harding conferred with Senator Borah of Idaho, chairman of the Committee on Education and Labor, and Representative William Winthrop of Massachusetts, chairman of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce.

District Flapper Uses Care With Hot Curl Irons

WASHINGTON flappers are careful with the curling irons they use on their bobbed locks. As a result, fires caused by a flapper leaving a hot curling iron on inflammable material are few and far between, according to Fire Chief George S. Watson.

Unlike their Washington sisters, the flappers of New York city are not so careful, and as a result fires started by curling irons in the metropolis have added several thousands of dollars to the fire losses of that city.

During the war, Chief Watson points out, war workers started several fires by the careless use of curling irons, but the chief is now hoping that "those days have gone forever."

JUDGE FIGHTS MOVE TO FORCE HIS HAND

Mattingly Asks Appeals Court to Ignore Dispute With Kelly in Hall Liquor Case.

Characterizing as premature the Government's attempt to force him to sign a bill of exceptions in the Hall liquor case Judge Robert E. Mattingly of the Police Court yesterday asked the Court of Appeals to ignore the matter.

The controversy over the bill of exceptions exists between Judge Mattingly and Assistant District Attorney Frank J. Kelly who conducted a losing fight to retain a hold on $50,000 worth of liquor seized at the near-beer saloon of Frank P. Hall at 1000-1002 Seventh street southwest on October 13.

Judge Mattingly ordered the liquor returned on the ground that the search warrant was defective. Assistant District Attorney Kelly noted an appeal and presented a bill of exceptions for Judge Mattingly to sign in order to have the Court of Appeals pass upon the order for return of the liquor. Judge Mattingly refused to do this, and Kelly went to the Court of Appeals. The position of Judge Mattingly now is that the Hall liquor case is not finally disposed of in the Police Court and therefore, he claims, the rules of the court forbid the signing of a bill of exceptions.

MATERIALISM DRIFT TO BE COMBATED

Catholic Welfare Council Urged to Adhere to Principles of Church.

Combating the evils resulting from the drift toward materialism is the mission of Catholic women, Rev. John J. Burke, general secretary of the National Catholic Welfare Council, told the members of the National Council of Catholic Women at the closing session of its fifty-day convention at the Willard Hotel last night. A return to the principles of the Catholic church is the means by which this can be done, he explained.

A plea that the organization scrutinize motion pictures that Catholic children be given better protection was voiced in a resolution adopted at the afternoon session. Appeal that Catholic women take a greater interest in civic and social problems also was included in a resolution.

Mrs. Michael Gavin, of New York, was re-elected president at the final meeting of the board of directors, last night. Other officers re-elected include Mrs. W. T. Donovan, of St. Louis, first vice president; Mrs. Arthur H. S. Bird, of Salt Lake City, second vice president; Miss Florence Loebler, of New Orleans, treasurer. Mrs. James H. Hackett, of Milwaukee was named third vice president.

Directors chosen: Mrs. Teresa M. Molamphy, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. Harry M. Bensingner, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. F. E. Slattery, Brighton, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Edward C. Doherty, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. E. Mackentepe, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Louis Nash, Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Arthur Gerbel, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Ellen Weckenbaugh, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. C. J. McConville, St. Paul, Minn.

Poultry Show Canary To Be Given Mrs. Harding

A canary, said to be the most remarkable in the country and which was exhibited at the Poultry Show last night, will be presented to Mrs. Harding at the White House at 10 o'clock this morning.

The bird, which has been trained to sing and stop at command, will be presented by Miss Albertina Schlenkofer, an ornithologist, and secretary to G. D. Tilly of Darien, Conn., who imported the bird. It is a St. Andrew's roller canary.

Maj. Ballinger, military aid at the White House, will receive the bird and take it to Mrs. Harding, who is still confined to her room. In connection with the show, President Elihu Hanson announced that children will be admitted free today, until 1 o'clock, if accompanied by an adult.

James A. Baird, proprietor of Baird's Farms, and president of George A. Fuller Construction Company, won first honor at the show for the best display of pigeons. The show will close at 10 o'clock tonight.

EXPECT HALL MILLS FINDING WEDNESDAY

Authorities Will Present "Pig Woman" to Grand Jury on Monday.

WILL BE CLIMAX OF CASE

Detective Gives Evidence of Friction Between Pastor and His Wife.

By Universal Service.
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov. 24.—Authorities investigating the murders of the Rev. Edward W. Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills predicted tonight that by Wednesday the grand jury sitting at Somerville will have returned indictments or indicated its disbelief in the culpability of a woman and two men against whom the State is driving.

Further evidence of friction between Hall and his wife was told by a Middlesex county detective, who said the reason Hall hurried through a wedding ceremony at his home two nights before the murders was because he wanted to keep a tryst with Mrs. Mills.

The same detective assumed responsibility for the story that a maid at the Hall home had remarked: "Mrs. Hall always got her nose out of joint when Mrs. Mills would send the clergyman a birthday or Christmas present. Mrs. Mills often inquired about the attitude of Mrs. Hall toward the rector, asking if Mrs. Hall wasn't cold to him."

The climax of the State's case is set for Monday when the grand jury is expected to hear the testimony of Mrs. Jane Gibson, who has sworn that she saw Mrs. Hall at the murder scene the night the couple were slain.

Archibald M. Johnson And Bride on Way East

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—Archibald M. Johnson, son of Senator Hiram Johnson, and his bride, Mrs. Martha Buddy Lett Johnson, were on their way east today following their marriage yesterday afternoon at the bride's apartments here. They will sail from New York December 2 for a honeymoon trip to Europe.

Mr. Johnson served in the world war, attaining the rank of major in overseas service. He is noted as a polo player. His bride came here four years ago from Aurora, Ill. About eighty friends and relatives were present at the ceremony, including Senator and Mrs. Johnson. Hiram Johnson, Jr., was the best man.

SAYS IT'S WORTH $50 A BOTTLE

Grateful Washington Woman Says She Will Answer Anyone Who Writes Her About Tanlac.

"If Tanlac had cost me fifty dollars a bottle I would consider it has been worth it all to me," asserts Mrs. Ida V. Pollard, 2217 Fourth street N. W., Washington, D. C.

"I will gladly answer anyone who writes me about my experience with Tanlac. Five bottles have done me more good than all the other medicines I have been able to buy in two years. I was so run down on account of stomach and liver troubles that I seemed to be right on the verge of despair. I was troubled with headaches, with dizzy spells and my nerves were in a wretched condition. I was also under weight and, as nothing helped me, I kept going down hill every day.

"My friends kept praising Tanlac until I decided to try it, and it wasn't long until I felt a wonderful change coming over me. My appetite was never better, even when I was a schoolgirl, than it is now. My stomach, nerves and liver no longer trouble me and I simply feel like a new person. In fact, I am a well and happy woman and I think it nothing but right that I should tell everyone I can about Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by Peoples Drug Stores and all leading druggists.
