

NOTED DIPLOMATS ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

Undersecretary of State and Mrs. Phillips Are Hosts; Peruvian Ambassador Returns from New York Tomorrow.

By EVELYN C. HUNT. THE UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE and Mrs. William Phillips entertained at dinner last evening when the honor guests were the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusearand and the Chilean Ambassador and Mme. Mathieu.

The Peruvian Ambassador, Federico Alfonso Peset, will return to his apartment at Wardman Park Hotel tomorrow from New York, where he went with his nephew, Luis Peset, who sailed yesterday for his home in Peru.

The Ambassador of Great Britain, Sir Auckland Geddes, returned last night from New York.

The Rumanian Minister and Princess Bibesco will entertain at dinner and a reception on January 2 in honor of Mr. Enesco, the distinguished Rumanian violinist and composer, who will be the guest conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra at its concert in that afternoon.

The Minister of Denmark, Constantin Brun, was host to a small company at luncheon yesterday at the Willard.

THE MINISTER OF ECUADOR AND MME. ELIZALDE entertained a company of twenty-two at dinner last evening.

The Minister of Costa Rica entertained a party of six at luncheon yesterday at the Willard.

MRS. DENBY, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, will not be at home on New Year Day, as she will be out of town.

Mrs. James Davis, wife of the Secretary of Labor, will receive Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Breckinridge Long were hosts to a company of thirty at dinner last evening.

Mrs. John A. Johnston, wife of General Johnston, will be at home on New Year Day. Her daughter, Mrs. Blair Spencer, will receive with her. Also the wives of several army, navy and Marine Corps officers.

CHARLES HENRY BUTLER will entertain on Monday at his usual New Year Day Montswaeg Farm breakfast a stag party, when all of the visitors served come from the Montswaeg Farm, the Butler's estate in Maine. Mrs. Butler will receive as she did past seasons, assisted by a few ladies, most of whom have been entertained at some time on the farm. There will be about 100 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ellis will entertain at dinner tomorrow evening in compliment to Justice and Mrs. George Sutherland.

Mrs. Thomas Washington will not be at home on Monday but will receive the following Mondays in January and February.

Mrs. Charles W. Wetmore has with her for the holidays her niece, Miss Elizabeth Owen, of New York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Owen. Miss Owen's engagement to Thomas Caldwell Chubb, of Llewellyn Park, Orange, N. J., was recently announced.

George C. Ramsey, of New York, has come to Washington to spend several weeks and is staying at Wardman Park Hotel.

Midshipman Waldo A. Page, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo A. Page, of New York and Washington, is spending the holidays with his parents in Washington and has as his guests Midshipman Nagel, of San Francisco, and Midshipman Simons, of Honolulu.

Mrs. Ernest Hinds, wife of Brigadier General Hinds, is in New York where she will be at the Hotel Astor for several days.

J. E. Roberts and H. A. Emple, of Albany, have taken a suite at the Lee House for several weeks.

Mrs. James C. Davis will entertain a party at supper at Le Paradis tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Langhorne entertained a small company at dinner last evening in their apartment, in the Connecticut.

Mrs. Thomas Riley Marshall, wife of the former Vice President, will receive Wednesday afternoons, January 10 and January 24, at the Hamilton Hotel. She will be at home after 4 o'clock, and has issued no cards.

Mrs. David F. Kalme, and Miss Gladys Kalme, of the Connecticut Apartments, are at Parkersburg, W. Va., having been summoned there by the death of the former's mother, Mrs. Winifred Tully.

Mayor and Mrs. William B. Ellison, of Johnson City, Tenn., are in Washington for a few days as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Everett N. Ellison in M street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Carul were hosts at a theater party last night for their daughter, Miss Helen Carul, in honor of Miss Sally McCadous, who is their guest.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond has joined Mr. Hammond in their home here. Mrs. Hammond, who is convalescing from a serious illness, remained in her Gloucester home throughout the autumn and early winter.

Philip Kelley, son of Representative and Mrs. Patrick Kelley of Michigan, who is spending the holidays here with his parents, will return to Ann Arbor, Mich., on Tuesday.

MRS. O'CONNOR, wife of J. J. O'Connor, of the United States Chamber of Commerce, who are spending the winter at Wardman Park Hotel.

Society Notes

LIEUT. AND MRS. GEORGE DORSEY PRICE who spent Christmas with his parents, Judge and Mrs. George Price, in Charleston, W. Va., have come to Washington to stay until Monday and are at the Powhatan. Mrs. Price before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth R. Walmsley.

William H. Bullard, of Boston, who was in Washington several weeks ago, has returned for an extended stay and is at the Hamilton Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Merrill, of San Francisco, are to be in Washington for several months, and have opened apartments at the Burlington Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrison will be at home on New Year Day from 5 to 9 o'clock at their residence, 1215 Decatur street. Mrs. Wallace W. G. Hanger, District candidate for President General of the D. A. R., will preside at the tea table.

Mrs. Ernest Hoes, of Yonkers, N. Y., has taken an apartment at the Lee House for the winter. She has with her her two sons.

Mrs. Edward Hillyer entertained at tea yesterday at Le Paradis.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul May, of Charleston, W. Va., are at Wardman Park Hotel for an extended visit.

Capt. and Mrs. Carl Hardig, of the Dresden Apartments, are entertaining Midshipman Lew Wallace, L. L. McCandless, of Honolulu, and daughter, Miss Lloy McCandless, who is a student at Wellesley; Mrs. Anna M. O'Brien, of Parkersburg, W. Va., and Miss Katherine O'Brien, who is a student at the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Owing to the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary Hinds Seymour, of Virginia, Mrs. Samuel Seymour, of Virginia, Minister to Cuba, will be the guest of honor at the reception and will speak on his recent visit to South America.

Midshipman Carter A. Printup, of Georgia, is a guest of Midshipman F. Kent Loomis, who is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brooks Smith, of the Hotel Roosevelt. Over the weekend Midshipman Loomis will also entertain Midshipman Lew Wallace, of Texas; Midshipman John W. Steele, of Louisiana, and Midshipman Roland Vanesse, of Rhode Island.

Advertisement for Blackstone Corsage, featuring 'Send a Blackstone Corsage' and 'Special New Year Corsage' with details on pricing and delivery.

ELABORATE BALL IS GIVEN FOR MISS WELLS

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Wells Makes Her Debut, Assisted by Miss Frances Wiser, of Canada.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH I. WELLS presented their daughter, Miss Catherine Wells, to society last evening at a ball at Rauscher's. Mr. and Mrs. Wells and their daughter were assisted in receiving by Miss Frances Wiser, of Canada, who is their guest for the holidays.

Mrs. Wells wore a gown of black spangled net over silver cloth and carried a large black feather fan. The debutante was lovely in a girlish frock of cream lace trimmed with fur and rhinestones, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet. Miss Wiser was clad in silver net over silver cloth and carried red roses.

There were about 500 guests and a buffet supper was served at midnight. Preceding the dance Mr. and Mrs. Wells entertained at dinner for their daughter when their guests were Miss Frances Wiser, Miss Evelyn Wadsworth, Miss Dorothy Warren, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Laura Bryn, Miss Elizabeth Turner, Miss K. Janavince Kerens, of New York; Miss Virginia Selden, William Randall, Reber Littlebales, John Huntington Turner, James Nolan, Samuel Beach, William Cushman, George Fulford, Graham Hodges and Lieut. Frederick Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells will entertain at dinner again this evening and will later attend the theater.

Senator and Mrs. Capper Honor Guests at Dance

MAJ. AND MRS. PARKER W. WEST gave a small dance last evening at their quarters at Soldiers' Home in honor of Senator and Mrs. Arthur Capper. Their guests numbered about thirty and they served a buffet supper at 11:30. Large clusters of poinsettias were hung in the windows and the only light in the ballroom was the many lights on the tall spruce tree which was also gay with colored balls and tinsel.

Major and Mrs. West will entertain at dinner Tuesday evening, January 2, in compliment to District Commissioner and Mrs. Cuno Rudolph.

Son of Joseph Devereux Named for Grandfather

THE infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Devereux has been named John Ryan Devereux after his paternal grandfather. Mr. and Mrs. Devereux and their son are spending the holidays with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Kemp at Glen Pass, their home in Catonsville, Md.

Mr. Devereux's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. Ryan Devereux, with their family, are spending the winter in Europe, where their daughters, Anne and Mary, are in school.

MRS. ALBERT RUDDOCK, who recently returned to Washington from China, where her husband was secretary of the American Legation.

Col. and Mrs. Fowler Give Dance for 125

COL. AND MRS. WILLIAM ERIC FOWLER gave a dance last evening for the latter's schoolgirl daughter, Miss Emily Earl, in their apartment at 1713 H street.

There were about 125 guests. The ballroom was festive with Christmas decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will be hosts at dinner Monday evening, preceding the ball which Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beale McLean will give in honor of Miss Beatrice Pitney, debutante daughter of Mr. Justice and Mrs. Mahlon Pitney.

Col. and Mrs. Drake Give Dinner for Fourteen

COL. AND MRS. CHARLES B. DRAKE entertained a company of fourteen at dinner last evening for their daughter, Miss Barrine Drake, in compliment to Miss Josephine Willford, debutante niece of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pembroke Thom.

Later the party went to the debut ball of Miss Catherine Weller.

Miss Cordelia Hepburn To Wed Paul Cushman ANNOUNCEMENT has been made of the engagement of Miss Cordelia S. Hepburn, daughter of Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn, and Paul Cushman. Miss Hepburn served in France with the Y. M. C. A. and is a member of the Junior League. Her father was the late A. Barton Hepburn, banker and financier. She is the sister of Lieut. Comdr. Robert E. M. Emmet. Mr. Cushman is a son of the late Harry Curtis Cushman, of Albany. His mother was Miss Sanderson, of Milwaukee. He was graduated from St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and from Harvard in 1912, and served overseas with the Three Hundred and Sixth Machine Gun Battalion, Seventy-seventh Division. He is a member of the Harvard and Union clubs and is in the cotton goods business.

Governor to Hold Open House New Year Day

GOVERNOR RITCHIE and his mother will be at home at the Executive Mansion at Annapolis from 4 to 6 o'clock on New Year afternoon. No invitations will be issued. Open house will be kept and there will be dancing. In the morning the governor will entertain the officers of the Maryland National Guard at a buffet luncheon.

Admiral and Mrs. Gregory Entertain Young People REAR ADMIRAL AND MRS. L. H. GREGORY entertained a party of young people yesterday in honor of Admiral and Mrs. Robert H. Coontz's guests, talking them to see the musical comedy, "Irene." Admiral and Mrs. Gregory's guests included: Miss Ruth Gregory, their daughter; Miss Bertha Coontz, Miss Catherine Ely, Miss Dorothy Reid, Midshipman M. J. Dunson, Midshipman E. Brewington Hill, Midshipman W. H. Standley, Midshipman Knox Perrell, Midshipman William A. Dolan, Midshipman Clarence Pass, Midshipman Willie King, Midshipman Ralph Randolph, and Hugh Turner, Admiral and Mrs. Gregory's nephew, of Bremerton, Wash., who will spend the winter with them.

Mrs. Quinby McKeon to Inspect New Home

MRS. QUINBY MCKEON, who is staying at the Hamilton Hotel, is here to see her new home which she is having erected at 2605 Massachusetts avenue opposite the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr. Mrs. McKeon will leave here Tuesday to spend the winter in

Don't Lose Your Hair Try Cuticura If your scalp is irritated, itching and burning and your hair dry and falling out in clumps try the following treatment. Touch spots of dandruff and itching with Cuticura Ointment and follow with hot shampoo of Cuticura Soap.

Large advertisement for Woodward & Lothrop, featuring 'Today-Remnant Day' and 'Exceptional Values in Corsets and Brassieres' with detailed lists of clothing items and prices.

Advertisement for J.M. Gidding & Co. After-Christmas Sales, listing various clothing items like Day Dresses, Day Coats, Evening Gowns, and Hats with reduced prices.

Advertisement for M. Brooks & Co. 75 Street Dresses, 54 Evening Dresses, and 63 Evening Dresses with various styles and prices.